A Message from Deacon Ed Grieb ...

28th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME An Invitation to Share Divine Life

Through our Baptism, we are each given God's great invitation to divine life. And by accepting His invitation, we see life differently, because we see it through the eyes of faith.

The theme of eating, drinking and feasting is an important part of our scripture readings this Sunday. This image of a great banquet corresponds to the fulfillment of God's reign ... a time of complete joy and gladness in God's Kingdom. It's a banquet where everyone has an opportunity to feast equally, with no preferential treatment among guests....all are one with the Lord.

In our 1st reading from the prophet Isaiah, we get the sense that this ideal vision is almost too good to be true. While we often think of Isaiah's prophecies as being associated with the incarnation, our passage today portrays the days of God's reign at the end of time when death and grief have then been destroyed...the fulfillment of God's promise of things to come...the true hope of our faith.

Our responsorial today is similarly reassuring and uplifting, "I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life." It reminds us of the promise and anticipation of the joy of God's invitation, as we strive to live up to His invitation. Paul's letter to the Philippians, the first Christian community that Paul established in Europe, reflects the pleasure he takes in knowing that they maintain their faith in his absence and thanks them for generosity in sending him help while he awaits trial in jail. Paul reassures them to persevere in the faith much as he does while in jail, undeterred because he knows that with Christ he (and they) is strengthened. He also reassures them that their good works have encouraged his own faith in the growing Church.

Jesus' parable in our Gospel passage today is part of his final teaching to the disciples as He approaches His death. He continues to confront the religious leaders in Jerusalem as He looks to unwrap the mystery of the Kingdom for His disciples. In this latest parable, the kings' invites have been rejected, so he sends his servants out to invite everyone they can find, and we read between the lines to realize that this invitation corresponds to the invitation extended by Christ's Church to all throughout the ages. We've each been invited (and accepted!) and are now entrusted to pay-it-forward and offer The Good News to others. All those who accept are expected to have an open heart and mind to hear God's call (i.e. 'proper attire' or 'attitude'), while those who don't are like the man cast out into the darkness to experience the 'wailing and gnashing of teeth' (i.e. not a good outcome!).

Each of us have an opportunity to experience and participate in the Feast of the Holy Mass. Attendance requires our active participation and attentiveness, with hearts prepared to meet Jesus. This is a wonderful opportunity which Jesus has given to us....but, do we make every effort to accept this generous invitation? Are we prepared and ready when we arrive?

Our parish family Mass here at SJE is at 10 AM each Sunday and it's always wonderful to see the large number of families that attend and participate. Over the past two years here as part of the parish, I've witnessed the joy, gladness and wonder that the children bring to our family Mass each week and how it helps all of us experience the special invitation to share at the table of the Lord. I recently came across the below 'invitation' from another Church, encouraging families with young children to attend and thought 'what a wonderful example we already have here at SJE.....'

Please be advised of our expectations at SJE Catholic Church regarding children at Mass:

Children are not simply the future of the Catholic Church. They are part of the Church right now! If your kids are loud, please still come to Mass; If you're running late because getting everyone dressed and out the door was a battle, please still come to Mass; If your toddler won't sit still, please still come to Mass. If your baby needs to eat, please still come to Mass; If your child asks questions at the least convenient moment, please still come to Mass; If someone cries, drops a toy, or has to make their third trip to the bathroom, please still come to Mass; If your child doesn't know all the prayers, responses, or exactly when to sit, stand, and kneel, please still come to Mass; If you feel like you spent the entire Mass managing your children and heard approximately 12% of the homily, please still come to Mass; If Sunday morning feels messy instead of peaceful, please still come to Mass; If you're worried your children are distracting the people around you, please still come to Mass; If your child has a disability or special needs, please still come to Mass;

Children do not learn how to be part of the Church by staying home until they can sit quietly. They learn by being here; They learn the Sign of the Cross by watching us make it; They learn the prayers by hearing us pray them; They learn the Scriptures by hearing the Word of God proclaimed. They learn reverence by watching us kneel; They learn that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist by seeing the love and reverence with which we approach to receive Him; They learn that the Church is their home because we make room for them here; The wiggles, whispers, crying babies, and little voices are not signs that children don't belong at Mass, they are signs that the Church is alive; So bring the babies. Bring the toddlers. Bring the big kids. Sit in the front so the littles can see. Step out when you need to... but always come back in; At Baptism, these children became members of the Body of Christ. They belong here; They need the grace of the sacraments, the example of their parents, and the love and patience of their parish family; Children are not simply the future of the Catholic Church. They are part of the Church right now!

Heavenly Father,

We come before You with grateful hearts, thanking You for the many blessings You have bestowed upon our nation. Guide our country in the ways of truth, justice, freedom, and peace.

We entrust to Your loving care all who serve in our Armed Forces. Protect them, strengthen them in times of challenge, and grant them courage, wisdom, and perseverance. Keep them safe wherever they serve and bring them home to their loved ones.

We remember with gratitude those who have given their lives in service to our country. Welcome them into Your eternal Kingdom, and comfort their families with the hope of the Resurrection and the assurance of Your unfailing love.

Help us to be faithful stewards of the freedoms we enjoy. Inspire us to live with integrity, serve one another with charity, uphold the dignity of every human person, and always seek the common good.

Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of Peace and Patroness of the United States, bless our nation with unity, wisdom, justice, and lasting peace. Guide our leaders, strengthen our communities, and help us always to place our trust in You.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Prayer and Remembrance

At SJE, we offer parishioners many ways to remember loved ones or honor someone living through the offering of votive and altar candles, as well as altar bread and wine. These offerings create a visible sign of prayer and devotion while supporting the life of our parish.

Votive candles illuminate the beautiful statues throughout our church, including the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella, and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. As these candles burn, they bring light to our sacred space and invite quiet reflection, inspiring deeper moments of prayer and trust in God.

Both votive candles and altar candles may be offered for $25 per week. Altar bread and wine may be offered for $250 per month. The names of those remembered or honored through these offerings will be listed in the parish bulletin during the month.

To make an offering, please visit or contact the Parish Office at 631.878.0009 or email rectory@sjecm.org. May these candles be a sign of hope, remembrance, and prayer for all who gather in our church.

Month of Remembrance...

Special All Souls Parish Mass of Remembrance 7:00 PM Mass ~ Monday, November 2nd

We will celebrate a special All Souls Parish Mass of Remembrance on All Souls Day, Monday, November 2 at 7:00 PM. At this Mass we will pray by name for all who have died in our parish community over the past year. All families who have celebrated a funeral Mass at SJE in the past year are being specially invited, and all parishioners, whether or not they have experienced a loss, are invited to come and join in prayer. Following the Mass, all are welcome for hospitality. Please consider participating in this Mass to join together in prayerful solidarity with our brothers and sisters who have lost a loved one in the past year.

Altar of Remembrance

During the month of November, we remember in a special way our loved ones who have died. This year, we will be preparing a special Altar of Remembrance in the Seton Chapel. Beginning November 1st, you are invited to place a picture on the altar so that we may remember your loved ones and pray for each other. Please limit the size of your photo (perhaps no larger than 4 x 6) so that there is room for everyone who wishes to participate. You may place the picture in a small frame. Please remember to write your name and phone number on the back of the picture. Pictures may be dropped off at the rectory or at the sacristy.

We ask that you pick up your picture no later than Wednesday, November 25th.

Book of the Names of the Dead

Beginning November 1st, a special book will be placed inside Our Lady's Chapel for members of our parish community to write down the names of loved ones who have died. The names in this book will be remembered at our Masses throughout the month of November.

All Souls Day Novena envelopes are now available. These envelopes are a meaningful way for you to have your deceased loved ones prayed for in the Novena of Masses for All Souls Day. Please take an envelope, fill out the name of the deceased, and return the envelope with your donation. Envelopes may be returned either in the collection basket or at the rectory. Special Masses will be offered for nine (9) days throughout the month of November for these intentions for the deceased.

A Message from Monsignor Walden...

Scientific estimates tell us that our planet earth has been in existence for over 4.5 billion years and will be around for another 4 to 5 billion years before the sun destroys it. How long will it take us as human beings to figure out how to live with each other in true concern for one another and in just and lasting peace? Blessed with the vision of faith, we do have the answer: Our God and His love for us. As smart as we are as human beings with human and artificial intelligence, we are bombarded daily with reports of violence, killing, and injustice. Jesus, the Son of God, came two thousand years ago to open our minds and hearts to God's love and the power of our love for one another when we embrace Him together.

Last week, we had two parables about vineyards that were given to human beings and how we as human beings can destroy the gift of nature and abuse each other with greed and selfishness. This weekend, the Gospel (Matthew 22:1-14) presents us with a parable about people who are invited to a wedding feast and not only refuse to come, but even murder some of those sent to invite them. Apathy compounded with anger, selfishness and injustice quickly puts us at odds with one another. History shows us that there have been many tyrants with zealous followers who bring division and suffering so unjustly into our world. Last week I read this thought from Pope Benedict XIV in "Benedictus: Day by Day with Pope Benedict XVI: "It seems to me that if we listen to the voices of our age, of people who are consciously living, suffering, and loving in the world today, we will realize that we cannot serve this world with a kind of banal officiousness. It has no need of confirmation but rather of transformation, of the radicalism of the Gospel." Is it really radical to give, forgive, love, and respect one another? At times, the commercial ads of politicians who are running for office present more about the faults of their followers than a solution to working together for all. There was only one true man who walked the face of the earth and that is Jesus Christ. How blessed we are to receive Him in Holy Communion, to be guided by the Holy Spirit inflamed in us in the Sacrament of Confirmation, and His life-giving mercy in the Sacrament of Penance. Jesus not only opens our minds and hearts to all we can be when we take Him seriously, He walks the journey of life with us if we allow Him to. He is far more than a few prayers daily and Sunday Mass. As He says at the Last Supper in John 14:6, "I am the Way and the Truth, and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through me," No Jesus, no personal peace, no peace with one another. He suffered death on the cross to make that so clear.

I offer the second reading from this Sunday's Mass for your prayerful reflection (Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20).

Brothers and Sisters:

I know how to live in humble circumstances;

I know also how to live with abundance.

In every circumstance and in all things
I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry, of living in abundance and of being in need. I can do all things in him who strengthens me. Still, it was kind of you to share in my distress.

My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus. To our God and Father, glory forever and ever. Amen.

Celebración de una Quinceañera en San Juan Evangelista

San Juan Evangelista da la bienvenida a las familias que desean celebrar una Quinceañera, una hermosa tradición católica en la que se da gracias a Dios al cumplir una joven sus 15 años. Aunque la Quinceañera no es un sacramento, incluye una bendición especial para la joven al comenzar una nueva etapa de su vida y asumir las responsabilidades de vivir su fe católica.

Las familias que deseen programar una Quinceañera deben estar registradas como feligreses de San Juan Evangelista o residir dentro de los límites de la parroquia. La celebración debe programarse con al menos cuatro meses de anticipación, y la joven debe haber recibido los Sacramentos del Bautismo, la Primera Comunión y la Confirmación. Si aún no ha recibido la Confirmación, deberá estar inscrita en el programa de Formación en la Fe de la parroquia.

Antes de hacer arreglos para la recepción u otros preparativos, las familias deben reunirse primero con un sacerdote o un miembro del Equipo Pastoral para conversar sobre la preparación y reservar una fecha con la Iglesia.

Para obtener más información o comenzar el proceso, comuníquese con la Oficina Parroquial al 631-878-0009 o por correo electrónico a rectory@sjecm.org.

Bereavement Support...

Grieving is a natural process each of us goes through after the death of a loved one. While no one can take away our sadness, others can help by listening and caring. Sharing our feelings with others who have experienced the death of a loved one help many people begin the healing process.

*Grief never ends but it changes.
It is a passage, not a place to stay.
It is not a sign of weakness,
nor a lack of faith.
Grief is the price of love.*

Starts October 17th

Saturday mornings from 10:30 AM to 12 noon

Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA)

Do you know someone who is interested in becoming Catholic?

Or are you interested in learning more about the Catholic faith?

Jesus said to his apostles, "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19).

The Catholic Church joyfully welcomes those who desire to learn more about our faith and those who feel called to become Catholic. The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) is the process through which adults explore the teachings of the Catholic Church, deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ, and prayerfully discern becoming members of the Catholic faith.

For those who have never been baptized, OCIA prepares them to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist. Those who have already been baptized in another Christian tradition are prepared to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church through the Sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist.

OCIA at St. John the Evangelist begins Sunday, October 18, 2026. The journey includes learning about the Catholic faith, prayer, and personal discernment as participants prepare to receive the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil.

There is no obligation simply by inquiring, and questions are always welcome.

If you or someone you know is interested in becoming Catholic or would like to learn more about OCIA, please contact the Rectory Office.

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Please take some time look through the back pages of the bulletin! It features many local businesses (and often the work of parishioners) and the good work they do in our community. We have parishioners who do everything from car detailing to car mechanics to lacrosse training to taking care of pets. Take a look and learn more!

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

Also, if your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist - most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area - receive or view our bulletin online.
