A Reflection from Deacon Michael Hoonhout...

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time 'Your Faith Has Saved You' (Luke 17:11-19)

The most important human acts in life are usually quite simple and ordinary. By "ordinary" I mean common and by "simple" I mean not that difficult to do. But the reason why they are so important is because of the extraordinary difference they make in our lives. Acts like being honest and truthful or being kind and respectful. How long does any human relationship last without honesty? How quickly trust is ruined when someone fails to tell the truth! Being kind and courteous is the key to making social relations hum. Respect upholds another person's dignity and kindness honors it. It doesn't take much to be truthful and kind, and what a blessing when human interactions are honest and respectful.

Another important, simple and ordinary human act is being grateful and showing thanks, which is the theme of this week's Scripture readings. Returning thanks to others for their compassion and generosity is simply right and proper, and again, not so difficult to do. Yet in addition to being appropriate and right for human relationships, gratitude and thanksgiving are so fundamentally crucial for a healthy relationship with God. Indeed, it is not an exaggeration to say that only upon a foundation of heartfelt gratitude can any person have a right relationship with God. The opposites of gratitude—a lack of appreciation and a sense of entitlement—close the human heart to God's love, foster pride and reflect a basic cluelessness about who we are before the Almighty and how much we completely depend upon Him for everything. From the Creator we have everything; without the Creator we are nothing. "What do you possess that you did not receive?" (1 Corinthians 4:7). We often take our existence, our abilities, and our health for granted, even though we always owe a fundamental debt of gratitude to God for everything we are and have.

Gratitude before God is not only the foundation of our relationship with Him, but also essential for growing in that relationship. In the first reading, we hear how Naaman the Syrian comes to faith in the one and only true God in all the earth—the Lord God of Israel—after being overcome with gratitude for the miraculous healing of his leprosy. Gratitude softened his heart to receive the gift of faith, and deep appreciation for the gift of the miracle sealed his commitment to spend the rest of his life worshipping the God of Israel alone. If he had received the miracle without thanks or appreciation, his skin would be soft and new, but his heart would be hard and old.

In the Gospel of Luke, we hear how only one leper out of ten comes to true faith in Jesus Christ because his desire to give thanks led him back to Jesus. The other nine got what they wanted from Jesus and then were done with him. But the tenth, the Samaritan, allowed gratitude to move him from appreciating the gift to loving the Giver. When he returns he is not seeking further gain, but rather giving back, his heart glorifying God and thanking Jesus. Being truly grateful for the countless gifts we have received from God fosters a true love for God and His indescribable goodness. If we love the good things we receive from God, how much more should we love the Giver who gives all we are and have out of His love for us! A grateful heart becomes a loving heart.

Gratitude is also a deep wellspring for prayer. Whenever I find it difficult to pray, I recall the blessings in my life and remember that God gave them to me simply because He loves me. A renewed gratitude truly lifts up my heart to God and centers my thoughts on what truly matters. We can too easily focus on our problems or what we do not have, so gratitude is important for changing a self-centered focus that limits prayer to asking God for things, to a loving and grateful gazing upon God which wants to honor, bless and serve Him for being so good.

"Where are the other nine?" Jesus is disappointed by a lack of gratitude in those to whom He has given a great gift. He knows how crucial it is for us to render due thanks to God that He became our Eucharistia, making Himself the perfect Thanksgiving which we can offer God at Mass. This is a fulfillment of Psalm 116:12: "How can I repay the Lord for all the great good done for me? I will raise the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord." Jesus as our Eucharist is both the greatest gift God gives to us and the greatest thanksgiving we can give back to God. We receive; do we give thanks? May we not be like the ten lepers in the Gospel where only one out of every ten Catholics gives true thanks to God for the Eucharist!

Remembering Our Loved Ones

This week, the Sanctuary Lamp, the St. Joseph and the St. Theresa Candles will be lit in memory of:

Timothy O'Sullivan

The Altar Bread & Wine for the month of October has been donated in memory of:

Ann and Harry Holland

Mass Intentions

Remembering one who has passed away at Mass is a most noble practice calling us to pray for one who has died at the most powerful prayer we know - the celebration of the Eucharist.

Altar Bread and Wine

Names will be listed in each bulletin during the course of that month.

An offering of $200 is requested.

SJE offers a number of ways to remember loved ones, or honor someone living.

To make an offering, visit or contact the Parish Office at 631.878.0009 or email to rectory@sjecm.org

Votive Candles/Altar Candles

A number of votive candles enlighten the beautiful statues in our church. You may have a particular devotion to one of these saints. These candles are next to the statues of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They bring a certain light to the statues and, hopefully, inspire some deeper times of prayer and reflection. Altar Candles - $25.00 per week.

His ministry emphasizes God's love, Divine Mercy, and the joy of living the Catholic faith.

We are pleased to welcome Al Barbarino to St. John the Evangelist on Wednesday, October 15, where he will present an evening of reinforcing our magnificent Catholic Faith in Word and Song.

Month of Remembrance...

Special All Souls Parish Mass of Remembrance 2:00 PM Mass ~ Sunday, November 2nd

We will celebrate a special All Souls Parish Mass of Remembrance on All Souls Day, Sunday, November 2 at 2:00 PM. At this Mass we will pray by name for all who have died in our parish community over the past year. All families who have celebrated a funeral Mass at SJE in the past year are being specially invited, and all parishioners, whether or not they have experienced a loss, are invited to come and join in prayer. Following the Mass, all are welcome for hospitality. Please consider participating in this Mass to join together in prayerful solidarity with our brothers and sisters who have lost a loved one in the past year.

Altar of Remembrance

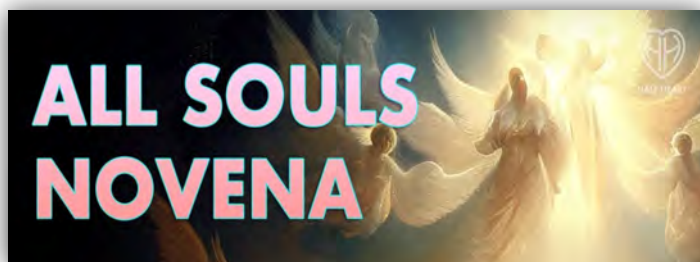

During the month of November, we remember in a special way our loved ones who have died. This year, we will be preparing a special Altar of Remembrance in the Seton Chapel. Beginning November 1st, you are invited to place a picture on the altar so that we may remember your loved ones and pray for each other. Please limit the size of your photo (perhaps no larger than 4 x 6) so that there is room for everyone who wishes to participate. You may place the picture in a small frame. Please remember to write your name and phone number on the back of the picture. Pictures may be dropped off at the rectory or at the sacristy.

We ask that you pick up your picture no later than Wednesday, November 26th.

Book of the Names of the Dead

Beginning November 1st, a special book will be placed inside Our Lady's Chapel for members of our parish community to write down the names of loved ones who have died. The names in this book will be remembered at our Masses throughout the month of November.

All Souls Day Novena envelopes are now available. These envelopes are a meaningful way for you to have your deceased loved ones prayed for in the Novena of Masses for All Souls Day. Please take an envelope, fill out the name of the deceased, and return the envelope with your donation. Envelopes may be returned either in the collection basket or at the rectory. Special Masses will be offered for nine (9) days throughout the month of November for these intentions for the deceased.

Did you know that our new Baptism Program is up and running?

Here at St. John's we redesigned our Baptism Preparation program in January 2025. We wanted our program to be warm and welcoming, so we have included more interpersonal communication and multiple opportunities for families to come to St. John's prior to the day of Baptism. Our mission is to make St. John's every family's home away from home, where we come together to worship our Almighty God, to learn about our amazing Catholic faith, to dive deeper in our personal relationship with Jesus and grow together as a parish family accepting, loving, supporting and serving each other, our local community and beyond. Our Baptism preparation program now includes the following components:

- * Registration into the parish as a family
- * Complete the online Baptism registration for the child who is to be Baptized
- * Attend an in-person Baptism Preparation class
- * Complete the online Baptism Belonging video course
- * Submit all required paperwork

When all requirements have been met, meet with a member of the Baptism Ministry to schedule a date for Baptism.

Order of Christian Initiation for Adults [OCIA]

Do you know someone who is interested in becoming Catholic?

Jesus said to his apostles, "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19). The Good News of salvation in Jesus Christ is meant for all peoples, and the Catholic Church is open to all who believe. A non-Christian becomes a Catholic by baptism, and non-Catholic Christians who are already baptized in the Name of the Trinity enter fully into the Catholic Church by receiving Confirmation and Eucharist. These three Sacraments of Initiation are given to adult candidates once a year on the most Solemn Feast of Easter.

The preparation to become a Catholic through the Easter sacraments, known as the OCIA, involves coming to know the faith taught by the Church, and by prayer and ritual receiving the grace to commit to living that faith. The process of entering into the Catholic Church through OCIA at St. John the Evangelist is beginning soon and will extend to the end of March 2026. That process includes informal classes on the Catholic Faith and a time of prayerful discernment for each inquirer to embrace the fullness of Catholic teaching and freely commit to becoming Catholic. Admission into the Catholic Church for those who sustain their desire to join her throughout the process will take place at the Easter Vigil, on Saturday, April 4, 2026. During the last six weeks (the holy Season of Lent) before admission at Easter, candidates will be formally commit to being baptized at Easter and will be welcomed by the faith community.

Anyone who is interested in participating in the OCIA program at St. John the Evangelist is asked to either call the Rectory or email Deacon Michael Hoonhout at mhoonhout@sjecm.org.

Feast of St. Francis @ SJE

Bereavement Support...

Grieving is a natural process each of us goes through after the death of a loved one. While no one can take away our sadness, others can help by listening and caring. Sharing our feelings with others who have experienced the death of a loved one help many people begin the healing process.

*Grief never ends but it changes.
It is a passage, not a place to stay.
It is not a sign of weakness,
nor a lack of faith.
Grief is the price of love.*

Women's Group...

Our Women's Group will begin again on Monday, September 22, 2025, at 10 AM to 11:30 AM. We welcome newcomers anytime to join our group. All meetings are open, come when you can. There are no rules, just desire for growth in Jesus and fellowship.

We're still reading The Sanctifier by Archbishop Luis M. Martinez. Part I is about True Devotion to the Holy Spirit. Part II: The Gifts of the Holy Spirit. Part III: The Fruit of the Spirit. Part IV: The Beatitudes.

As we read, we come to understand through our sharing, that the Holy Spirit is working in our daily lives & we're right where we're supposed to be on our journey. We're growing a little at a time. We all have the same feelings, doubts, fears, lack of knowledge, we're imperfect & we come to accept that. We're sisters in Jesus cheering each other on. If you're uncomfortable to share, you don't have to. We're just happy that you choose to be with us.

There is no charge for the books, all meetings are on Mondays, 10-11:30 AM, which gives you time to attend 12:00 mass if you wish. We're in the white house meeting room (convent), between the school & the rectory (blue house).

A Message from Msgr. Walden...

Gratitude is a very important and a life-giving part of who we are and how we live together peacefully, joyfully, and happily. In the Gospel for today's Mass (Luke 17:11-19), we see that Jesus cured ten lepers but only one came back, falling at the feet of Jesus in pure gratitude. Jesus replied to him, "'Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?' Then he said to him, 'Stand up and go; your faith has saved you.'" Gratitude is such a very important part of who we are and how we live with each other. Gratitude humbles us in joy, encourages us to give of ourselves with the best of motives, and paves the way for peace with one another and peace in our world.

Last Sunday, I joined a number of people who were part of the Stand For Life at exit 70 of the LIE and route 111. How encouraging it was to see so many people holding signs expressing the joy of new life in the face of legalized abortion in our nation and praying for an end to abortion! Many cars passed by honking their horns in agreement. The only negative comment I heard from a passing car was, "My body, my choice." Is she not grateful for her mother's choice to bring her to birth? The choice to do evil or support evil, especially to the most vulnerable among us has been wreaking havoc and causing division since Roe vs. Wade on January 22, 1973. Even more in the past month we have seen the killing of innocent and pro-life people. There are school shootings, shootings in churches, and other places where we gather for good purposes. How did this happen? It is one thing to have disagreements, but when that leads to rejection with violent words, gestures, and actions, evil is flourishing among us. Just put the letter "D" in front of the word evil and the Devil is having his day.

Why do people get so caught up in anger and literally kill others? Killing the innocent among us is nothing new for the human race. The greatest act of killing an innocent person 2000 years ago backfired when Jesus rose for the dead after being crucified and entombed. The most amazing part of the Resurrection is that Jesus not only overcame evil, He came back to offer His presence to us as we make our journey through life in this world. Jesus did not come to make us winners over evil as much as He came to make His love, truth, compassion, and mercy part of who we are. These virtues are not for pushovers but for all who hunger and thirst for peace in their hearts, peace in our world, and peace forever in God's and one another's presence in heaven.

One of the expressions we use when we talk about the Sacrament of Confession is calling it the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Jesus came to reconcile us to God and one another. We cannot be one with God and not seek unity with one another. True unity has its foundation in mercy, truth, and humility encompassed with love. Reconciliation leads to peace only when it is based on the truth of who we are as children of God in Jesus Christ. Forgiveness, humility, and a firm resolve to seek and live the truth together is the road to peace. We all need to take that step as individuals and as the people of God united in prayer, celebration of the Sacraments, and divine love for and with each other.

I close with these words from Colossians 3:1-17.

Since you have been raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Put to death, then, the parts of you that are earthly: immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and the greed that is idolatry. Because of these the wrath of God is coming upon the disobedient. By these you too once conducted yourselves, when you lived in that way. But now you must put them all away: anger, fury, malice, slander, and obscene language out of your mouths. Stop lying to one another, since you have taken off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed, for knowledge, in the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all and in all. Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

PILGRIMS OF HOPE

2025 is the Jubilee Holy Year, the 2,025th anniversary of the Incarnation of our Lord, an "event of great spiritual, ecclesial, and social significance in the life of the Church." The concept of "Jubilee" has its origins in the Book of Leviticus (chapter 25) as a special year of reconciliation, pilgrimage, and coming home. Pope Francis has designated the 2025 Holy Year as a time to renew ourselves as "Pilgrims of Hope."

THE JUBILEE PRAYER

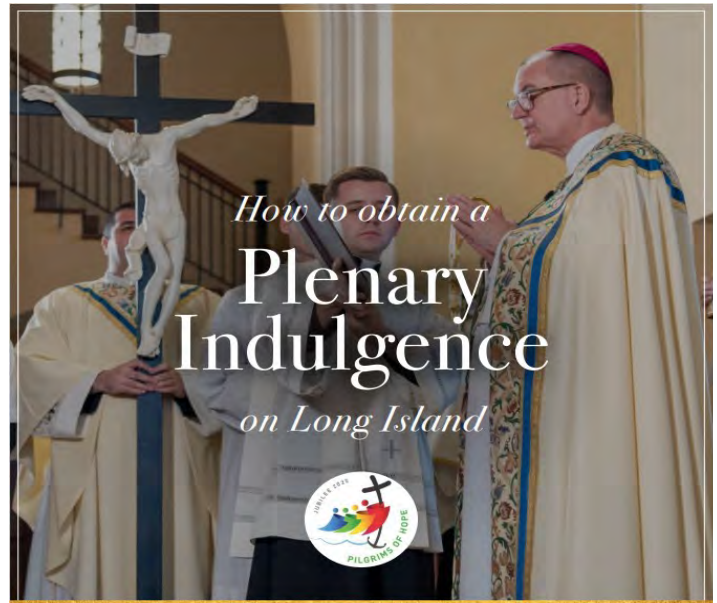

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope
for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos
in the sure expectation
of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

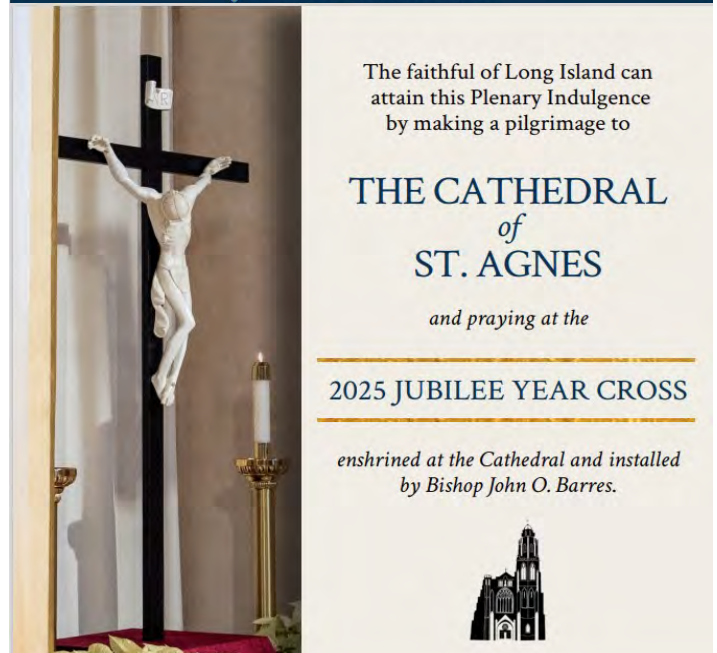

May the grace of the Jubilee
reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer
throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.

Amen
