What does it mean to form my conscience?

Catholics have a long tradition of engagement in the public square. Sometimes that engagement requires making difficult moral decisions that impact our own lives and those of others. Our conscience can help guide the decisions we make. The Second Vatican Council guides us: “Always summoning [one] to love good and avoid evil, the voice of conscience can when necessary speak to [one’s] heart more specifically: do this, shun that” (Gaudium et Spes 16). However, our conscience doesn’t just come to us when we are born. We must work throughout our lives to form it through prayer, learning, and conversation.

How do I form my conscience?

It takes time to form our consciences so that we can make well-reasoned judgments about particular, real-life situations. The Church teaches that it is important to work continually on conscience formation so we can be prepared to make decisions whenever the opportunity arises. Some specific ideas to form your conscience are:

- 1) Begin by being open to the truth and what is right.
- 2) Study Sacred Scripture and the teaching of the Church.
- 3) Examine the facts and background information about various choices and be discerning in where we gather information.
- 4) Prayerfully reflect to discern the will of God (Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, no. 18).

Additionally, it is important to consider how our community of faith can help us form good consciences through some of these steps:

- 1) Seek the prudent advice and good example of trusted leaders and others to support and enlighten our conscience.
- 2) Learn about the authoritative teaching of the Church.
- 3) Pray for the gifts of the Holy Spirit to help us develop our conscience.
- 4) Regularly partake in an examination of conscience to hear God’s voice in your life.¹

Doing the work of forming our consciences can seem daunting. Fortunately, we have many church teachings that can help us in this important task. Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship is an important resource for U.S. Catholics and helps us prayerfully reflect on how we can apply Church teaching in our civic life. “Conscience is not something that allows us to justify doing whatever we want, nor is it a mere “feeling” about what we should or should not do. Rather, conscience is the voice of God resounding in the human heart, revealing the truth to us and calling us to do what is good while shunning what is evil.”²

Here are some questions for further reflection:

1. When has my conscience guided me to “do good and avoid evil”?
2. What are some key resources I can use to form my conscience?
3. Forming conscience is a “lifelong task.” What do I do to regularly form my conscience? What more should I do?

Prepare a box with the Thanksgiving Meal and drop it off to the Auditorium on Sunday, November 22, 2020 between 11 a.m. (after 10 a.m. Mass) and 1 p.m. Please fill out the form below and/or email thanksgiving@sjecm.org so we know we have each of our families covered.

#3: Help Prepare Baskets. We will need help on the following dates/times:

Spirit Day 2020

"I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you." John 16:23

While we were not able to have our "official" Spirit Day this year, many of you were disappointed because we did not have our Spirit Day t-shirts, sweatshirts, etc. Our Spirit Day Committee met and have put together a bunch of items for 2020!

We are selling them after Masses this weekend. If you would prefer to purchase them away from the crowds, you can purchase them by filling out the form below and bringing it to the Rectory or emailing rectory@sjecm.org.

MONTH OF REMEMBRANCE

Special All Souls Parish Mass of Remembrance

7:00 p.m. Mass
Monday, November 2

We will celebrate a special All Souls Parish Mass of Remembrance on All Souls Day, Monday, November 2 at 7:00 p.m. At this Mass we will pray by name for all who have died in our parish community over the past year. All families who have celebrated a funeral Mass at SJE in the past year are being specially invited, and all parishioners, whether or not they have experienced a loss, are invited to come and join in prayer. Following the Mass, all are welcome for hospitality. Please consider participating in this Mass to join together in prayerful solidarity with our brothers and sisters who have lost a loved one in the past year.

ALL SOULS DAY NOVENA

All Souls Day Novena envelopes are now available. These envelopes are a meaningful way for you to have your deceased loved ones prayed for in the Novena of Masses for All Souls Day. Take an envelope, fill out the name of the deceased, and return the envelope with your donation. Envelopes may be returned either in the collection basket or at the rectory. Special Masses will be offered for nine (9) days throughout the month of November for these intentions for the deceased.

ALTAR OF REMEMBRANCE

During the month of November, we remember in a special way our loved ones who have died. This year, we will be preparing a special Altar of Remembrance in the Seton Chapel. Beginning November 1st, you are invited to place a picture on the altar so that we may remember your loved ones and pray for each other. Please limit the size of your photo (perhaps no larger than 4 x 6) so that there is room for everyone who wishes to participate. You may place the picture in a small frame. Please remember to write your name and phone number on the back of the picture. Pictures may be dropped off at the rectory or at the sacristy. We ask that you pick up your picture no later than Monday, November 30.

BOOK OF THE NAMES OF THE DEAD

Beginning November 1st, a special book will be placed inside Our Lady's Chapel for members of our parish community to write down the names of loved ones who have died. The names in this book will be remembered at our Masses throughout the month of November.

WHAT'S HAPPENING @ SJE

On Monday, October 18, 2020, the Totus Tuus Men's Prayer Group led an evening of prayer on the Rosary. Seminarian Louis Cona offered the reflection. As we continue to move through this month of the Rosary, let us pray that we may turn ever more to Mary, seeking her help and support, as we say, "pray for us, O holy Mother of God, that we be made worthy of the promises of Christ."

Our Lady Queen of Apostles, pray for us!
Our Lady of the Rosary,
pray for us!

Seton Chapel – Closed 11/5 – 11/8

Therefore, the Seton Chapel, the IHM Meeting Room and the Chapel Lobby will be closed on Thursday, November 5th, Friday, November 6, Saturday, November 7th and Sunday, November 8th.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will NOT take place on the 5th and the 6th.

All Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion should bring communion to the sick from the tabernacle in the Church.

At this time, we anticipate everything opening and returning to normal on Monday, November 9, 2020.

STAYING IN TOUCH!

We are working to remain in contact during these days. Here are some ways:

Parish Phone Call. While there is no regular schedule for this, we try to reach out at various times to all parishioners who are registered in the parish. Please note it begins with "This is an important message from your child's school" as we make use of a messenger service that is used by local schools. Rest assured it's a message from SJE.

Constant Contact. We will begin emailing regular updates to all emails we have on file at SJE. If you are not receiving them – they will begin regularly this weekend – contact the parish office at rectory@sjecm.org so your information can be updated. This allows our parish staff to update our records which is always an ongoing challenge!

Mailings. We do not carry out regular parish mailings because of the expense involved. You will receive a mailing from the parish for our 2020 Parish Christmas Appeal (regular Christmas Collection) and a postcard from WeShare, our online giving platform in the months ahead.

Social Media. Remember to follow SJE on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter if you use these applications. You can also access the parish bulletin using sjecm.org.

Daily Spiritual Message. Please call us! Yes - call everyday by dialing 631.878.0009, x. 185 for a daily spiritual message from Fr. John or Seminarian Louis and some other special guests.
