A message from Fr. Patrick...

2023 Catholic Ministries Appeal Parish Update

During these last few weekends, I have been speaking briefly at the end of each mass in support of our annual Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA). With just under two months to go, we are currently at 76 percent of our goal of $115,100 with 24 percent to go to reach our goal.

Last year we were at 88 percent of the goal at this time. Even though we are behind this year, I am optimistic that we can still reach our goal again this year. Based on the size of our parish and number of active parishioners, we can easily achieve our goal if all of us participate regardless of the amount we are able to contribute.

The CMA is a diocesan charity that goes to assist many ministries in our diocese. Much of the funds raised each year goes directly to Catholic Charities located in Hicksville. The Catholic Ministries Appeal also supports those in formation to the Diaconate and Priesthood. Over the years and most recently, St. John the Evangelist has benefited from these funds which support the education of the many seminarians who have gone through St. John's for their summer internship and pastoral year formation. Most recently, St. John's has benefited from the services of Deacon Michael Hoonhout and Fathers Joe Catafago and Louis Cona.

I firmly believe in this diocesan charity because every dollar raised goes in direct support of this appeal. Countless numbers of people truly benefit from the many different resources it provides so that the mission of the Church can continue here on Long Island.

I was hoping that we as a parish family can make this our diocesan project each year. If everyone participated and supported this appeal, we would not only meet our goal, but far exceed it. In addition, if we meet our goal, 20 percent of the funds raised will come directly back to us. Last year we received a rebate in the amount of $24,000 because of the generosity of so many.

I am hoping that you will join me, if you have not done so already, in supporting this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal. I know each time I support this appeal, I always feel happy that I was able to help so many worthy causes. For me, it is a win-win knowing the good this appeal does for so many.

There is no gift too small. Every gift matters and helps someone. My hope is that every family participates, within its own means, knowing the good and the value and the importance of this annual appeal.

Please take a brochure located at all the exits of the church. Please fill out and return to the rectory, or mail directly to the CMA Headquarters in the self-addressed envelope with the brochure. This weekend we are also showing a video highlighting the different ways in which these funds are distributed!

It would be wonderful if we could meet our parish goal together. Once we reach 100 percent of our goal, 20 percent of the total raised is our parish rebate. In addition, every amount received over 100 percent provides an 80 percent rebate to the parish. For many years, we as a parish have benefited from this generous rebate, which has gone to support our Parish Outreach, Street Ministry and parish projects. This year we have used the 2022 rebate towards a new oil burner for the convent building and for the complete restoration of the back chimney on the rectory.

Thank you again for your consideration in supporting this annual appeal and for all the love and generous support you give to our parish throughout the year. Hope you are having a great Autumn and God's blessings upon you and your families!

2 MONTHS TO GO!

100% of every dollar raised is restricted to fund the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

*The Catholic Ministries Appeal is conducted on a calendar-year basis. Amounts received under the Appeal are time-restricted for the next fiscal year.

- Catholic Charities and Parish Outreach programs provided 1.2 million face-to-face services to 36,331 neighbors.
- On Saturday, June 18, 2022 the Most Reverend John O. Barres ordained three men to the priesthood for the Diocese of Rockville Centre.
- Our Office of Human Life, Family and Bioethics (Respect Life), began a monthly Rosary for Life in addition to maintaining their ongoing Respect Life initiatives that build a civilization of love and life which upholds the dignity and inviolability of all innocent human life.
- Holy Hours for Vocations are being celebrated throughout the year. Young people of the diocese, and those who desire to draw near to Our Lord in the Eucharist come together to pray, give praise and honor in Adoration. They pray for the intention of opening hearts to hear the call of Our Lord to consider vocations to the holy priesthood of Jesus Christ and religious life.
- Camp Quo Vadis celebrated its 6th year. Campers at Quo Vadis experience faith in an uplifting atmosphere that instills tools for them to become disciples in the Catholic Church. Young women, religious, young priests, seminarians and campers experience a culture of encounter and are challenged to holiness and mission.

Altar bread and wine for the month of November has been donated:

In Memory of Daniel Filippone

SJE offers a number of ways to remember loved ones, or honor someone living.

Mass Intentions

Remembering one who has passed away at Mass is a most noble practice calling us to pray for one who has died at the most powerful prayer we know—the celebration of the Eucharist.

Altar Bread and Wine

Names will be listed in each bulletin during the course of that month.

For the month an offering of $150 is requested

Votive Candles/Altar Candles

A number of votive candles enlighten the beautiful statues in our church. You may have a particular devotion to one of these saints. These candles are next to the statues of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They bring a certain light to the statues and, hopefully, inspire some deeper times of prayer and reflection.

Altar Candles - $25.00 per week. To make an offering, visit or contact the Parish Office at 631.878.0009 or email to rectory@sjecm.org

Month of Remembrance

Special All Souls Parish Mass of Remembrance

7:00 p.m. Mass ~ Thursday, November 2nd

We will celebrate a special All Souls Parish Mass of Remembrance on All Souls Day, Thursday, November 2 at 7:00 p.m. At this Mass we will pray by name for all who have died in our parish community over the past year. All families who have celebrated a funeral Mass at SJE in the past year (October 2022 ~ September 2023). are being specially invited, and all parishioners, whether or not they have experienced a loss, are invited to come and join in prayer. Following the Mass, all are welcome for hospitality. Please consider participating in this Mass to join together in prayerful solidarity with our brothers and sisters who have lost a loved one in the past year (October 2022 ~ September 2023).

Altar of Remembrance

During the month of November, we remember in a special way our loved ones who have died. This year, we will be preparing a special Altar of Remembrance in the Seton Chapel. Beginning November 1st, you are invited to place a picture on the altar so that we may remember your loved ones and pray for each other. Please limit the size of your photo (perhaps no larger than 4 x 6) so that there is room for everyone who wishes to participate. You may place the picture in a small frame. Please remember to write your name and phone number on the back of the picture. Pictures may be dropped off at the rectory or at the sacristy. We ask that you pick up your picture no later than Wednesday, November 29th.

All Souls Day Novena

All Souls Day Novena envelopes are now available. These envelopes are a meaningful way for you to have your deceased loved ones prayed for in the Novena of Masses for All Souls Day. Take an envelope, fill out the name of the deceased, and return the envelope with your donation. Envelopes may be returned either in the collection basket or at the rectory. Special Masses will be offered for nine (9) days throughout the month of November for these intentions for the deceased.

Book of the Names of the Dead

Beginning November 1st, a special book will be placed inside Our Lady's Chapel for members of our parish community to write down the names of loved ones who have died.

The names in this book will be remembered at our Masses throughout the month of November.

Last Sunday at the 10:00 Mass, we welcomed in a special way, the Level 2 students in our Family of Faith Program, and their families. It was wonderful to have so many of the children join us for the Children's Liturgy of the Word. All of the children were AMAZING! They were attentive, participated in our interactive homily and offered wonderful insight into the scriptures. They say a picture is worth 1000 words so take a look!

And a special thanks to our awesome lector, Mr. George!

Children in grades K-6 are invited to participate in the Children's Liturgy of the Word program every Sunday at the 10:00 Mass. Adults and high school students are invited to join our CLTW team! Email Clapham@sjecm for information.

Butterfly Visit

Our Kindergarten students had an unexpected visitor to their class last month! They had a chance to watch a caterpillar grow into a Monarch Butterfly during the first weeks of school.

Creative Writing

Our fifth graders were hard at work recently, writing the final copy of their entertainment/Halloween inspired stories as part of their creative writing project in October.

Bible Blessing

At the noon Mass at SJE, Fr. Patrick blessed the youth Bibles for our 6th graders in “The Mission.” Students will be using these Bibles in their Theology class.

Hands-On Learning

Our second graders have been using their engineering skills and knowledge of the design process to come up with their own solutions to problems! Students undertook two projects. The class designed different ways to construct a tower to balance a marshmallow. They also designed a fence to contain the “creepy carrots” (based on the book).

New York Times best-selling author and international speaker, Immaculée Ilibagiza, is a survivor of the 1994 Rwandan genocide that took the lives of nearly one million Tutsis. Men, women and children, including her entire family except for one of her brothers, were massacred at the hands of Hutu marauders.

Immaculée found shelter at a pastor's home, where she and seven other women hid from the deadly rebel mob in a 3-by-4-foot bathroom for 91 days. During those 91 days of unimaginable suffering, Immaculée found her faith, taught herself English, and most incredibly, committed herself to a life of peace, hope and forgiveness, even for those who had murdered her family. Immaculée has gone on to work at the United Nations, receive five honorary doctoral degrees, write seven books about her faith and her life journey, and is the recipient of the Mahatma Gandhi International Award for Reconciliation and Peace.

We'll continue reading Fr. Timothy Gallagher's book on Discernment of Spirits, An Ignatian Guide for Everyday Living. In Matthew's gospel about Jesus walking on the water what always stands out to me is that Peter was actually using discernment. "Lord, IF it's You," Peter questioned it because Jesus was coming to him in a different way. If Peter who was Jesus' disciple, needed to discern if it was Jesus, so do we.

Ignatius gives us the 14 rules of discernment to help us be more aware & understand the consolations & desolations we feel within us which will deepen, strengthen & enrich our spiritual life.

Meetings are open, come when you can, all you need is desire. Is Jesus calling you?

Facilitators: Carol Ketcham and Anita Luccari.

The dates we'll meet are:

10-23, 11-6, 11-20, 12-4, 12-18, 1-8, 1-22, 2-5, 3-4, 3-18, 4-15, 4-29, 5-13, 6-10, 6-24 Last meeting. For additional information please call the rectory office 631-878-0009

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Please take some time look through the back pages of the bulletin! It features many local businesses (and often the work of parishioners) and the good work they do in our community. We have parishioners who do everything from car detailing to car mechanics to lacrosse training to taking care of pets. Take a look and learn more!

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? Not only that, our parish receives a part of the advertising commission.

So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

Also, if your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist—most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area—receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of families in the area with information about your business.

For more information on how to advertise in our bulletin, call The Church Bulletin Company at 631-249-4994
