A Message from Fr. Francis Lasrado...

The theme of the weekend Scripture readings is the necessity of bearing fruit in the Christian life. We are also warned of the consequences of spiritual sterility, ingratitude, and wickedness.

In today's first reading, called Isaiah's Song of the Vineyard, the prophet describes God's care of, and expectations for, his Chosen People. They failed to bear fruit, in spite of the blessings lavished upon them by a loving and forgiving God. Further, they were poor tenants in the Lord's vineyard. Hence, God laments: "I expected my vineyard to yield good grapes. Why did it yield sour ones instead?"

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells an allegorical parable in which the landowner is God, the vineyard is Israel as God's special people, and the tenants are the political and religious leaders of Israel. The story emphasizes the failure of the tenants, the Chosen People of God and their leaders, to produce fruits of righteousness, justice, and mercy. Giving a theological explanation of Israel's history of gross ingratitude through the parable, Jesus reminds us Christians that, since we are the "new" Israel, enriched with additional blessings and provisions available in the Church, we are expected to show our gratitude to God by bearing fruits of the kingdom, fruits of the Holy Spirit, in our lives, giving him the Glory.

The message for us first and foremost is to recognize what God has done for us. "What more was there to do for my vineyard that I had not done?" What more could God have done to show the immensity of his love for us than to send his own Beloved Son among us for our salvation?

Secondly, to scrutinize our lives and see if we are showing gratitude in return for God's love. Maybe we do show our gratitude by leading a good and virtuous life, maintaining a good and loving relationship with God and others.

Thirdly, are we good fruit-producers in the vineyard of the Church? Jesus is not expecting us to produce fruit without giving us the necessary tools. Here are some of the means he has given the Church:

1. The Bible to know the will of God
2. The Sacrament of Reconciliation for the remission of sins
3. The Holy Eucharist as our spiritual food
4. The Sacrament of Confirmation for a dynamic life of faith
5. The Sacrament of Matrimony for the sharing of love in families, the fundamental unit of the Church
6. The Sacrament of Anointing to restore and strengthen spiritual life and bring mental, emotional, and physical healing as well
7. The Sacrament of Holy Orders to consecrate bishops, priests, and deacons to lead the people in God's ways
8. Role models in numerous saints.

Every Christian is called to bear fruit, but we are not called to produce the same fruit. Imagine if all in the Church produced apples! Other than the means given to the Church, each person is also given unique talents which help them bring forth fruit for the well-being of the community as a whole.

What fruits do we bear as a community here at St. John's?

So many parishioners have not only recognized their talents, but also are making use of them by selflessly volunteering in various ministries, e.g. Religious Education, Parish Social Ministry, and Street Ministry, to name just a few.

Our Scripture readings encourage us to name our God-given gifts, make the best use of them, and produce good fruits like the sweet, juicy grapes that the Prophet Isaiah expected of his people.

This weekend we are celebrating the 800th death anniversary of one of the most beloved saints, Francis of Assisi. A true follower of Christ or a saint, is one who has experienced the love of God to such an extent that their whole life is a song of love. That was indeed the life of St. Francis of Assisi. His life was a magnificent example of acknowledging God's love and reciprocating that love by a life marked by love of fellow human beings and everything in God's creation. He was able to see the loving presence of God not only in his own person but also in everyone and everything in creation. Through his remarkable life he showed us that true joy does not come from possessions, popularity, or comfort, but from belonging completely to Jesus which is a result of knowing deep down in one's being the immensity of God's love.

Francis' conversion began when he stood before the crucified Christ in the church of San Damiano. He let Jesus look upon him, forgive him, and make him a new creation. Because he loved Christ, he embraced poverty, humility, and simplicity. He learned to trust God rather than material things, and his life became a living reflection of the Gospel.

Francis also loved the Eucharist deeply. He understood that the Lord of the universe humbles himself and becomes present for our salvation under the appearance of bread. From that love flowed his care for the poor, his respect for every person, his reverence for creation, and in particular, his concern for animals.

We may not be called to live exactly as Francis lived, but we are all called to follow his example: to look upon Christ, to simplify our lives, to serve the needy, and to become instruments of peace.

The great lesson Francis teaches us is that holiness is not sadness or burden, but closeness to God and therefore true joy. Amen.

Heavenly Father,

We come before You with grateful hearts, thanking You for the many blessings You have bestowed upon our nation. Guide our country in the ways of truth, justice, freedom, and peace.

We entrust to Your loving care all who serve in our Armed Forces. Protect them, strengthen them in times of challenge, and grant them courage, wisdom, and perseverance. Keep them safe wherever they serve and bring them home to their loved ones.

We remember with gratitude those who have given their lives in service to our country. Welcome them into Your eternal Kingdom, and comfort their families with the hope of the Resurrection and the assurance of Your un-failing love.

Help us to be faithful stewards of the freedoms we enjoy. Inspire us to live with integrity, serve one another with charity, uphold the dignity of every human person, and always seek the common good.

Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of Peace and Patroness of the United States, bless our nation with unity, wisdom, justice, and lasting peace. Guide our leaders, strengthen our communities, and help us always to place our trust in You.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Prayer and Remembrance

At SJE, we offer parishioners many ways to remember loved ones or honor someone living through the offering of votive and altar candles, as well as altar bread and wine. These offerings create a visible sign of prayer and devotion while supporting the life of our parish.

Votive candles illuminate the beautiful statues throughout our church, including the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella, and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. As these candles burn, they bring light to our sacred space and invite quiet reflection, inspiring deeper moments of prayer and trust in God.

Both votive candles and altar candles may be offered for $25 per week. Altar bread and wine may be offered for $250 per month. The names of those remembered or honored through these offerings will be listed in the parish bulletin during the month.

To make an offering, please visit or contact the Parish Office at 631.878.0009 or email rectory@sjecm.org. May these candles be a sign of hope, remembrance, and prayer for all who gather in our church.

A Message from Monsignor Walden...

Am I part of the Kingdom of God? The first reading for Mass today (Isaias 5:1-7) and the Gospel for today's Mass (Matthew 21:33-43) both use the imagery of a vineyard to help us look at how much we are part of God's life and how much He is part of our lives. What does it mean to be part of the Kingdom of God? Do I see my life as a gift and share who I am and what I have with those I live with and those I encounter everyday? Do I look first to what others can do for me or what I can do for them and with them in the best way possible? The more we recognize God's love for us, the more we can share in His life and the lives of one another in truly good and enriching ways.

The key is not to focus on what we can do for Jesus but what He has done and can do for us, through us, and with us. What does He expect from us and hope from us? The answer is so simple and uncomplicated: He simply wants us to let Him love us and immerse us in His sacrificial love, guide us with His life giving Holy Spirit, unleashing the power of the sacrificial love in our hearts and the life-giving power of our forgiveness, humility, generosity, and joy. The vines on the East End of Long Island are bursting with rich, ripe grapes. Comparatively, am I ready to share the fruit of my love, kindness, and mercy willingly and joyfully day in and day out? We do not find peace and make a positive difference in the lives of others and the world we live in when our main thought is how events and people are affecting me for better or worse. Jesus continuously walked into the challenging situations of everyday life without fear of what others thought about Him or did to Him. His only hope was that those He encountered would let Him love them, renew them, and raise them far beyond fear, guilt, and sin. While he had to endure ignorance, anger, and injustice, He always stayed focused on being a paragon of hope, truth, love, mercy, and life. As much as the world needed Him 2000 years ago, we need Him. He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. The more we come to see Him for who He truly is, the more we see how He so seeks to open our hearts to His love and goodness and to be part of His life forever in Heaven. We sorely need Him and the light of His peace, love, mercy, and wisdom. No matter how clever and inventive we have been in the course of human history, we need to recognize that we, like all those who have gone before us and will come after us, are human beings created in the image and likeness of God and longed for by Him now and forever in the Kingdom of Heaven. Now is our time to be the fruit of God's presence, truly created in His very image and likeness.

I offer the second reading from Mass today (Philippians 4:6-9) for your prayerful reflection.

Brothers and sisters:

Have no anxiety at all, but in everything,
by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving,
make your requests known to God.

Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters,
whatever is true, whatever is honorable,
whatever is just, whatever is pure,
whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious,
if there is any excellence
and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.

Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me.
Then the God of peace will be with you.

Celebración de una Quinceañera en San Juan Evangelista

San Juan Evangelista da la bienvenida a las familias que desean celebrar una Quinceañera, una hermosa tradición católica en la que se da gracias a Dios al cumplir una joven sus 15 años. Aunque la Quinceañera no es un sacramento, incluye una bendición especial para la joven al comenzar una nueva etapa de su vida y asumir las responsabilidades de vivir su fe católica.

Las familias que deseen programar una Quinceañera deben estar registradas como feligreses de San Juan Evangelista o residir dentro de los límites de la parroquia. La celebración debe programarse con al menos cuatro meses de anticipación, y la joven debe haber recibido los Sacramentos del Bautismo, la Primera Comunión y la Confirmación. Si aún no ha recibido la Confirmación, deberá estar inscrita en el programa de Formación en la Fe de la parroquia.

Antes de hacer arreglos para la recepción u otros preparativos, las familias deben reunirse primero con un sacerdote o un miembro del Equipo Pastoral para conversar sobre la preparación y reservar una fecha con la Iglesia.

Para obtener más información o comenzar el proceso, comuníquese con la Oficina Parroquial al 631-878-0009 o por correo electrónico a rectory@sjecm.org.

Bereavement Support...

Grieving is a natural process each of us goes through after the death of a loved one. While no one can take away our sadness, others can help by listening and caring. Sharing our feelings with others who have experienced the death of a loved one help many people begin the healing process.

*Grief never ends but it changes.
It is a passage, not a place to stay.
It is not a sign of weakness,
nor a lack of faith.
Grief is the price of love.*

Starts October 17th
