FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Father Bill...Joe...

A Sunday of Sadness and Surrender

Dear Parish Family:

Before the 10:30 a.m. Mass last Sunday, I received a message from Bishop Brennan that Msgr. William Jablonski died. Father Bill, as he was known, was the Pastor of my home parish of Our Lady of Lourdes in West Islip since as long as I can remember. He trained me to be an altar server and hired me to be a sacristan at OLL. When I first started meeting with one of the Vocation Directors some 20 years ago, I stopped by his parish, at the time, in East Rockaway to let him know. He was the first person I told. Years later, even though impacted by the effects of a stroke, Fr. Bill was one of the priests who vested me at Ordination on December 3, 2011.

I think, for most priests, there are a cadre of role models we give credit to for helping us to discern God's call. I have been impacted by many. You've met a few of them here at St. John's. In a time when we are so aware of the frailty that exists in the humanity of the priesthood, these men remind me why I ever thought God might be calling me to this life. It undoubtedly started, though, with Father Bill. I remember my fellow fourth graders and I as students at Our Lady of Lourdes School—he was passionate about Catholic schools too—being trained about the ins and outs of altar serving. I remember he led the effort to renovate the church building of Our Lady of Lourdes— we celebrated Mass in the Gym for over a year there too. I remember him telling me it was time to move up and become a sacristan and actually earn some money. I remember his support of me as a new campus minister and someone working with young people. I remember him agreeing to vest me and allowing me to use his chalice at my first Mass as a priest in 2011.

Fr. Bill was never cool (I don't mean that disrespectfully). He wasn't cutting edge. He wasn't part of the latest movement in the church and maybe wouldn't be the poster model for vocations. He was just a good, dedicated and humble priest who did what needed to be done wherever it needed to be done. Quietly serving. Gently (and sometimes not so gently) guiding others. And instigating others too.

That sounds like an interesting word, no? I mean it in the best sense though. Fr. Bill could "push buttons". He could tease with a smile, and a point behind it. He could challenge you in a way you needed to be challenged. You knew, ultimately, he only wanted the best for you. As I write this letter, I'm also working on a homily. He asked if I would be one of the homilists for his Mass of Transferral and Funeral Mass. His priesthood was probably the best homily anyone could give.

Last Sunday was a tough day—and not because of the long homily I gave at all of the Masses! - and not only because of the news about Father Bill. At 2 a.m. early Sunday morning, I was contacted by a family in my last parish. (I feel asleep in my chair with the phone on my chest.) They were one of those families who weren't overly involved but always present to the parish. Their son was involved in some of our service work there. Their dad—a man in his mid to late 40s—was dying. He was diagnosed with cancer in 2016 and had his ups and downs until a few weeks ago. They didn't ask me to come. They didn't have to ask.

I had the chance to pray with Joe, his wife, son and family and to celebrate the Anointing of the Sick with them at their home that early morning. It was a powerful moment for me. It brought me back to moments of my own dad's passing. A reminder about the need to surrender. Joe died about a half hour after I left. I will have celebrated his funeral on Saturday.

It was a tough night and then a tough day. The week since has had its weight for sure. I had some time to think about a good and holy priest and the example he set. I had the privilege to be present to one so close to returning home to the place prepared for him. One who showed me what it is to be a priest. Another who gave me the privilege of serving him as one.

Say a prayer for Fr. Bill and his family and say a prayer for Joe and his family.

If you can, please say a prayer for me.

Featherston

WHAT'S HAPPENING @ SJE

Family Life Ministry

Family Life Ministry Veteran's Day Event Was a Success!

Thank you to all that contributed. Volunteers helped make cards for our veterans and active military, as well as helped package over 20 boxes of donations to be shipped to active military by the Blue Star Moms of America Long Island Chapter. In addition, we welcomed and thanked our parish veterans.

Upcoming Mercy Sunday Events:

December 9th: Collecting items for Stony Brook Pediatric Hospital.

**coloring books, crayons, sketch pads, adult coloring books, colored pencils, regular playing cards, gaming cards (Goldfish, Old Maid, Crazy 8s, etc)*

Help us create "goodie bags" for the children in the Stony Brook Pediatric Dept. this holiday season. If you can't make it December 9th, you may leave donations in the Parish Office, clearly labeled, FAMILY LIFE MINISTRY.

In addition, we are seeking help for a wine and stitch night! Help us create costumes for the children to wear during the Children's Service. More info to follow in upcoming Bulletins.

Senior Ministry

We need people who can occasionally drive someone to the doctor (not too far) or to give a ride to the store. If you know of someone who needs any services that we can provide, PLEASE, LET ME KNOW.

Mark your calendar! December 4th beginning at 10:00 a.m. we will have a Morning of Prayer and reflection in preparation for Advent until after the noon Mass. A light lunch will follow. We need a number who plan to attend or who need transportation.

The gentle movement class of T'ai Chi Chah will continue on Tuesday mornings at 11:00 in the IHM room of the Convent. Also, because the third Thursday of November is Thanksgiving Sophia's Circle will not meet. In December, we will meet on the 1st and 3rd, Thursdays. Movies continue in the IHM room on the 7th and 21st at 1:15 P.m.

The Bereavement Support Group will conclude on November 28th. An evening Bereavement Group will begin in January, weather permitting! If a day group is requested, another can begin in January also. There should be a minimum of 4-5 people to a group to be able to provide the adequate support needed. We had 13 in the first group; and 7 in the second. Both seemed to be very helpful. Please consider joining us if you have lost a loved one and are experiencing even just a little need. It is a very safe group

MONTH OF REMEMBRANCE

ALTAR OF REMEMBRANCE

During the month of November, we remember in a special way our loved ones who have died. This year, we will be preparing a special Altar of Remembrance in the Seton Chapel. Beginning November 1st, you are invited to place a picture on the altar so that we may remember your loved ones and pray for each other. Please limit the size of your photo (perhaps no larger than 4 x 6) so that there is room for everyone who wishes to participate. You may place the picture in a small frame. Please remember to write your name and phone number on the back of the picture. Pictures may be dropped off at the rectory or at the sacristy. We ask that you pick up your picture no later than Friday, November 30.

BOOK OF THE NAMES OF THE DEAD

As of November 1st, a special book was placed inside Our Lady's Chapel for members of our parish community to write down the names of loved ones who have died. The names in this book will be remembered at our Masses throughout the month of November.

QUEREMOS BAUTIZAR A SU HIJO ... ¡¡Hoy !!!

Como católicos, creemos firmemente en la importancia y la necesidad del hermoso sacramento del Bautismo. Es realmente el fundamento de nuestra vida como cristianos. Debido a la gran importancia de este sacramento, nosotros como cristianos católicos estamos llamados a hacer todo lo que esté a nuestro alcance para asegurarnos de que a nuestros hijos no se les prive de los beneficios del Bautismo por más tiempo del que es absolutamente necesario. Hay una mentalidad entre algunos católicos de que el bautismo puede demorarse durante muchos meses o incluso años. Los motivos de esta línea de pensamiento son variados, pero todos pierden el punto fundamental de que un niño debe ser bautizado tan pronto como sea razonablemente posible. En realidad, retrasar el bautismo de un hijo durante meses o años puede ser una negligencia pecaminosa.

La Introducción al Rito del Bautismo de los Niños declara:

"En cuanto al momento del bautismo, la primera consideración es el bienestar del niño, que no puede ser privado del beneficio de el sacramento". "También dice:" Un bebé debe ser bautizado dentro de las primeras semanas después del Nacimiento."

Un cambio que debe notarse que es efectivo de inmediato en nuestra parroquia es que los niños que son traídos para el Bautismo que están por encima de la edad de la razón (7 años de edad), deberán inscribirse en el programa de dos años de educación religiosa siguiendo las pautas del Rito de iniciación cristiana (RCIA #256).

Por favor llame a la Rectoría y hable con el Padre Michael o el Padre Juan a 631.878.0009 o por correo electrónico a mplona@sjecm.org o jusreau@sjecm.org o podemos ayudarlo a tener todo listo para una maravillosa celebración del bautismo de su hijo.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Reading I: Daniel 7:13-14

Vision of the son receiving kingship, dominion and glory.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 93:1, 1-2, 5

Second Reading: Revelation 1:5-8

The Lord is the Alpha and the Omega.

Gospel: John 18:33B-37

Pilate questions Jesus about his identity.

Discussion Questions

1. What things hold power over you in your life? Are they good things or would you like to see them lose some of their hold?
2. Does the universe that Christ consecrates to God include areas of your life or world that previously you might have considered outside the realm of "holy"? Discuss.
3. Can we understand truth differently at different times? Was there a time when we accepted slavery, and do we now question the death penalty? Should the Church mature in judgment as we grow in understanding the truth?

Stewardship

How can I repay the LORD for all the great good done for me?

- Psalm 116:2

Sunday 11/11/18: $16,700.11
