A Message from Deacon Michael Hoonhout...

How fitting that November, the last month of the liturgical year, is a time when our focus centers on the “last things” of our faith—what comes after this life on earth revealed to us by God and known in faith: divine judgment, Christ’s second coming, Heaven, Purgatory, Hell. The month begins with today’s most solemn feast, All Saints, the countless blessed souls already experiencing the intense and unfathomable joys of heaven. On the last Sunday of the liturgical year we celebrate the most solemn feast of Christ the King who reigns over all creation, separates the righteous from the wicked in the final judgment, and fills His Kingdom with those who accepted God’s invitation to the heavenly wedding feast of his Son and His Bride the Church. Tomorrow we commemorate the souls of the dead, praying and offering Masses for the holy souls in Purgatory, who depend upon our prayers, even as we too will soon need the prayers of the living when after our death and judgment we (likely) undergo our purgation there. And both the daily and Sunday Scripture readings of this month constantly warn us to be ready and vigilant for the coming of the Lord, lest we be caught unprepared and suffer damnation for our lack of charity and mistreatment of others, and are banished forever to the darkness where the worm dies not and the wailing and grinding of teeth never ceases.

Yes, the stakes are that high! We need to remember that in addition to the temporal consequences that result from our actions—e.g., somebody is helped or somebody is hurt—there are eternal consequences which result from our choices and actions, for every single human being will have to render an account of his or her life before God, who will reward or punish every person in accord with the good they have done or failed to do, and the evil from which they repented or did not repent. We need to fear displeasing God—revere Him enough to live in recognition of the judgment we will face before Him. And yet much more than this trembling awe and reverence of the One who is Truth and sees everything we do and knows every one of our thoughts, we are called, invited, commanded, to have faith and trust, hope and joy, and most of all to love.

Today’s feast honors all those in heaven—not just the likes of St. Francis and St. Teresa of Calcutta but all of our deceased relatives, friends and acquaintances who have heard Jesus say to them personally, “Well done, good and faithful servant.... Come and share your Master’s joy” (Matt 25:21). To be in heaven is to be a saint, which is to say, to be the holy version of the person God intended each of us to be, and whose grace made it happen. All the saints in heaven are a great sign of hope for us, for they are a testament that it is very possible to get to heaven. Even though Jesus says the road to heaven is narrow and constricted, and few find it (Matt 7:14), still in a vision of the saints St. John saw “a great multitude which no one could count, from every nation, tribes, peoples and tongues” (Rev 7:14). We should not be naïve and think any of us can just ‘coast’ into heaven without repentance and ongoing conversion, doing good for others, receiving the sacraments worthily, and perseverance through trials. Yet we should also remember that God created us to be saints, is calling us to be saints, has done everything for us through His Son so that we can be saints, and has given us the Holy Spirit as the inexhaustible wellspring of grace indwelling in our souls to make us saints. What our sanctification requires is our daily cooperation with that grace, to truly allow the love of God to fill us, purify us, inspire us, motivate us, move us and enrapture us. The saints in heaven—again including your deceased relatives and friends—are interceding for us to give our hearts in trust and love of God so that we may embrace His will in all things.

Doing the will of God is the sine qua non of holiness—the one thing absolutely necessary and indispensable. As a good and holy priest once said, heaven is full of all those who have lived saying to God, “thy will be done;” and hell is full of those who have lived saying, “my will be done.” Since God is love, to do God’s will is to love—but to love in the manner that Jesus loves: loving all, even our enemies; forgiving all, including the undeserving; praying for and blessing our ‘persecutors’; sacrificing ourselves for the good of others. How and who we are to love depends on the state and circumstances of our lives, varying by the calling we have received from God and the needs of our time and those around us. In this way the holiness of all the saints is both always the same and always unique, for every saint has by grace done the will of God and loved in a Christ-like way, and each particular saint did so in the unique set of circumstances and challenges of his or her own one-of-a-kind life. Heaven has a special place for the unique saint God has destined you to become; only you can fill it, so don’t miss out. Let us together recommit ourselves to living holy lives and helping one another get to heaven so all of us can join all the saints in God’s glorious Kingdom.

Month of Remembrance...

Special All Souls Parish Mass of Remembrance 7:00 PM Mass~Monday, November 2nd

We will celebrate a special All Souls Parish Mass of Remembrance on All Souls Day, Monday, November 2 at 7:00 PM. At this Mass we will pray by name for all who have died in our parish community over the past year. All families who have celebrated a funeral Mass at SJE in the past year are being specially invited, and all parishioners, whether or not they have experienced a loss, are invited to come and join in prayer. Following the Mass, all are welcome for hospitality. Please consider participating in this Mass to join together in prayerful solidarity with our brothers and sisters who have lost a loved one in the past year.

Altar of Remembrance

During the month of November, we remember in a special way our loved ones who have died. This year, we will be preparing a special Altar of Remembrance in the Seton Chapel. Beginning November 1st, you are invited to place a picture on the altar so that we may remember your loved ones and pray for each other. Please limit the size of your photo (perhaps no larger than 4 x 6) so that there is room for everyone who wishes to participate. You may place the picture in a small frame. Please remember to write your name and phone number on the back of the picture. Pictures may be dropped off at the rectory or at the sacristy.

We ask that you pick up your picture no later than Wednesday, November 25th.

Book of the Names of the Dead

Beginning November 1st, a special book will be placed inside Our Lady's Chapel for members of our parish community to write down the names of loved ones who have died. The names in this book will be remembered at our Masses throughout the month of November.

All Souls Day Novena envelopes are now available. These envelopes are a meaningful way for you to have your deceased loved ones prayed for in the Novena of Masses for All Souls Day. Please take an envelope, fill out the name of the deceased, and return the envelope with your donation. Envelopes should be returned by Friday, October 30th, either in the collection basket or at the rectory. Special Masses will be offered for nine (9) days throughout the month of November for these intentions for the deceased.

Prayer and Remembrance

At SJE, we offer parishioners many ways to remember loved ones or honor someone living through the offering of votive and altar candles, as well as altar bread and wine. These offerings create a visible sign of prayer and devotion while supporting the life of our parish.

Votive candles illuminate the beautiful statues throughout our church, including the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella, and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. As these candles burn, they bring light to our sacred space and invite quiet reflection, inspiring deeper moments of prayer and trust in God. Both votive candles and altar candles may be offered for $25 per week. Altar bread and wine may be offered for $250 per month. The names of those remembered or honored through these offerings will be listed in the parish bulletin during the month.

To make an offering, please visit or contact the Parish Office at 631.878.0009 or email rectory@sjecm.org. May these candles be a sign of hope, remembrance, and prayer for all who gather in our church.

Come join the Totus Tuus Men's Prayer Group on Saturday mornings at 9 AM in the Convent. Join as us as we learn to follow the example of St. Joseph and grow in our faith, reflect on the Gospel and have coffee. For more information, please call the rectory office at 631-878-0009.

Bereavement Support...

Grieving is a natural process each of us goes through after the death of a loved one. While no one can take away our sadness, others can help by listening and caring. Sharing our feelings with others who have experienced the death of a loved one help many people begin the healing process.

*Grief never ends but it changes.
It is a passage, not a place to stay.
It is not a sign of weakness,
nor a lack of faith.
Grief is the price of love.*

10:30 AM to 12 noon

Women's Group...

Our Women's Group meets every other Monday from 10:00-11:30 AM, September through June, in the Convent on Ocean Avenue.

Newcomers are always welcome at any time. All that is needed is a desire to grow in our faith and enjoy fellowship with one another.

Our books for this year are:

- Beautiful Holiness by Kathleen Beckmann
- Back to Virtue by Peter Kreeft

These books complement each other, helping us recognize the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives and the importance of praying for virtue.

A suggested offering of $25 is appreciated to help offset the cost of the books. However, no one should ever feel unable to participate because of the offering. Sharing is always optional—we're simply happy you've chosen to be with us.

A Message from Monsignor Walden...

Today we celebrate the feast of All Saints. We believe that they are fully in the presence of God in the kingdom of heaven. They see Him face to face and fully experience His goodness, love, and joy. Many of us have seen a saint in our lifetime in Pope John Paul II. This truly holy and insightful man embraced the gift of ordination to do many wonderful things for the Church and our world. He lived and spoke the truth of who we are and all we are capable of doing as human beings created in the image and likeness of God. I seek his intercession in my prayers every day.

One of the most obscure saints that we do not think of much at all is St. Dismas, the Good Thief. He was one of the two criminals crucified alongside of Jesus. Here is the passage about him from Luke 23:39-43: "Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, 'Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us.'" The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise." Those are very simple, profound words of a man who recognized what a failure he had been in life and was justly paying for his acts. But his admission of guilt led him to find what we all seek in life - the mercy and love of God.

Every time we pray the Our Father we say, "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." These are easy words to speak but very hard to live at times. Yet on the cross Jesus not only answered the prayer of St. Dismas, He also prayed for those who had absolutely no intention of seeing their need for forgiveness for unjustly accusing Him of blasphemy, making Himself equal to God. That is one of the greatest examples of human ignorance fueled by anger and stupidity. But ever consistent in His desire to save and bring us into the fullness of life with Him and each other Jesus prayed: "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do." They divided his garments by casting lots." (Luke 23:34)

Our world is a very violent place at times. All over the world there is fighting, killing, and destruction of each other and our planet. Is it naive to think that the "Good Thief" was lucky, an exception, and in the right place at the right time? Any time we spend time in sincere prayer we are in the right place at the right time. Any time we encounter Jesus in the sacraments we are in the right place at the right time. Any time we seek to rise above anger and vengeful thoughts we are in the right place at the right time. Any time we apologize for the hurtful and sinful things we have done to others we are in the right place at the right time.

Each priest offers the healing words we hear every time we encounter Jesus in the Sacrament of Penance, the same Jesus who blessed St. Dismas with His mercy.

"God, the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of his son has reconciled the world to himself and poured out the Holy Spirit for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the church may God grant you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, (+) and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

We offer these healing words of Jesus after every weekday mass, Saturdays from 4:00-5:00 PM, and Sundays at 5:30 PM. You may also call the rectory to set up a time for this Sacrament of God's healing love.

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Please take some time look through the backpages of the bulletin! It features many local businesses (and often the work of parishioners) and the good work they do in our community. We have parishioners who do everything from car detailing to car mechanics to lacrosse training to taking care of pets. Take a look and learn more! Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

Also, if your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist - most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area - receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of families in the area with information about your business.
