FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Sister Nancy Campkin, CSJ

ALL I REALLY NEEDED TO KNOW I LEARNED IN KINDERGARTEN

Dear Parish Family:

One of the most intimidating moments of my life as a school principal is our incredible Early Childhood Program. Give me a room of high school and middle school students and I can handle it in a few minutes. Give me a group of three and four and five year olds and I'm not sure what to do.

It all goes back to Kindergarten, I guess. I've been thinking about those days a lot lately. I wrote last week about the passing of my childhood pastor—Msgr. William Jablonski. I had the chance to return to West Islip again last weekend for a wonderful event—the 50th Jubilee of Sister Nancy Campkin as a Sister of St. Joseph. What a privilege to return “home”! (She's pictured in the center here at motherhouse of the Sisters of St. Joseph in Brentwood.)

Sister Nancy is a pretty amazing woman of faith. She spoke here at St. John's during Summer Evening Prayer a few years ago. She has taught in Brooklyn, Queens and Suffolk. She has coordinated a huge faith formation program for many years and has always found a way to pull others into the work and ministry in the life of the Church – including and especially me. Without her presence and influence, I'm not sure I would have recognized God's call for me. Today, more than just my Kindergarten teacher and mentor and role model, I am proud to call her a friend.

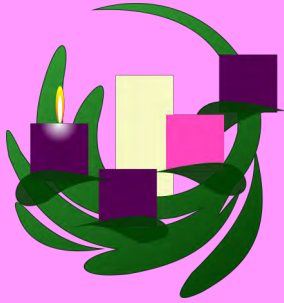

Sister Nancy also has many great words of wisdom, words that I have repeated many times. There also words that strike me as worth considering as we come to the end of the liturgical year and prepare for Advent. Here are a few:

- Always have a Plan B. I have heard Sister Nancy use those words many times in my lives. This is good advice for parish and life and ministry. It's also good advice for us in the spiritual life. We're about to move into the time of preparing. We often have things set in our own minds how we want things to go and are not always so ready for the twists and turns. Maybe as we approach Advent, we should think about some Plan B's in different areas of our own lives. Is God moving us in a direction we may not want? Check out your plans...they may not be God's.
- Anticipate. Sister Nancy would often tell me about the need to anticipate. If you do this, what can happen with that? If you make this decision, how will it impact this or that? It's true in our own lives, too. Are we looking at the impact certain decisions can have on our spiritual well being? What will happen if I don't make this sacrifice or give up this time or move in this direction?
- One more thing. One of the gifts given to Sister Nancy on Sunday was hours of service. She's famous for getting people to work. (I might have picked up a thing or two :)). The young person who spoke said “we will do all of these hours moving tables, chairs, and the like and all of the ‘one more thing’s’ Sister Nancy asks us to do.” We often want to be done. I'll deal with this issue or that situation or this crisis and I'm done. We're never done. The beginning of the liturgical year is a reminder that there is always one more thing. We begin another liturgical cycle this year. One more thing. This “one more thing” doesn't need to be a bad thing. It's an opportunity for us to begin anew, to start again.
- The Journey Continues. One of Sister Nancy's most famous lines is that “The Journey Continues”. There is always more to come. It's not that there is just only “one more thing”. It is that we need to be open to the journey the Lord calls us to be on. It may require that we have a Plan B, that we need to anticipate and be open to doing “one more thing”.

The last few weeks have seen me return to my home parish for good times and some tough ones. It reminds me of how important the life of the parish is in our lives. I have been humbled, honored, and made more holy by the people of Our Lady of Lourdes. I have seen it here in this parish over the past few years with the great love and affection offered to and received from Msgr. McDonald whenever he would return and now in the days since he passed.

Let's pray that our parish will continue to be a place that prepares others well for this journey of life and life of the world to come. Please pray for me.

ADVENT 2018

Blessing of the Advent Wreath

Saturday, December 1, 2018

4:30 p.m.

(Before 5 p.m. Mass)

As part of our church restoration, we have a beautiful new Advent wreath that will draw our sights – and we pray our hearts, minds and souls – to heaven.

Come and pray with us.

PLEASE NOTE:

Confessions will be from 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, December 1st.

ADVENT AND THE NEW LITURGICAL YEAR

Our new liturgical year begins next Sunday, the first Sunday of Advent. Let's review the following:

- We have available editions of Sunday's Word 2019. You can pick them up and take them with you. A free will offering of $5.00 is requested but not required. You can place your offering in one of the Poor Boxes. These books contain all of the Sunday readings as well as the psalm and antiphons for Daily Mass. They can be picked up in the Vestry or in the Parish Office.

- We will use a new music setting for Advent and Christmas. The Mass of Christ our Savior is familiar to us from our time in the Auditorium last year.

- During the season of Advent, the Gloria is not said or sung. It creates a sense of anticipation. Store up your fervor for the Vigil of Christmas or Christmas Day.
- Save the Date: Wednesday, December 5, 2018—Advent Lessons and Carols led by our Music Ministry—7 p.m.—Church.
- Advent Day of Reconciliation: Monday, December 17, 2018 –3 p.m.— 9 p.m. (Confessions every day after Daily Mass.)

"Life in a prison cell may well be compared to Advent; one waits, hopes, and does this, that, or the other- things that are of no real consequence- the door is shut, and can be opened only from the outside."

— Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Letters from Prison - November 21, 1943

Senior Ministry

We need people who can occasionally drive someone to the doctor (not too far) or to give a ride to the store. If you know of someone who needs any services that we can provide, PLEASE, LET ME KNOW.

Mark you calendar! December 4th beginning at 10:00 a.m. we will have a Morning of Prayer and reflection in preparation for Advent until after the noon Mass. A light lunch will follow. We need a number who plan to attend or who need transportation.

The gentle movement class of T'ai Chi Chah will continue on Tuesday mornings at 11:00 in the IHM room of the Convent. In December, Sophia's Circle will meet on the 1st and 3rd, Thursdays. Movies continue in the IHM room on the 7th and 21st at 1:15. P.m.

The Bereavement Support Group will conclude on November 28th. An evening Bereavement Group will begin in January, weather permitting! If a day group is requested, another can begin in January also. There should be a minimum of 4-5 people to a group to be able to provide the adequate support needed. We had 13 in the first group; and 7 in the second. Both seemed to be very helpful. Please consider joining us if you have lost a loved one and are experiencing even just a little need. It is a very safe group.
