

St. John the Evangelist

Roman Catholic Church

A religious painting depicting the Nativity scene. Mary, in a blue robe and white veil, kneels on the right, holding the infant Jesus who lies in a manger of straw. Joseph, in a brown robe, kneels on the left, looking down at the child. A bright, multi-pointed star shines from above, casting a warm, golden light over the scene. The background is dark and textured, suggesting a cave or stable.

A Reflection from our Music Ministry Director, Angela Werner...

A Reflection on the Gospel: Matthew (2:13-15,19-23)

"Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you. Herod is going to search for the child to destroy him."

The one present that I knew wouldn't arrive in time for Christmas was (of course) the one that I was counting on to make Christmas extra special for a friend. Can anyone relate? As I started to feel that wave of disappointment, a little voice inside me offered the wisdom I needed at exactly that moment: Leave room for the wonder and awe. I soon began to realize that what Amazon (or Santa) couldn't deliver, God already did. One delivery, sent straight from Heaven, truly changed the course of history!

Sometimes wonder and awe can easily get lost amid the hustle and bustle, financial concerns, and stressful preparations that come with the Christmas season. The same can be true for life in general. How often do we forget to live in the moment? How often do we find ourselves immersed in hectic scheduling and anxiety about the future, without noticing the possibilities that God has in store for us when we trust in His plan?

Earlier in Matthew's Gospel, we were given a glimpse of the Holy Family's trials, shared from Joseph's perspective. When Mary was found with child, Joseph "decided to divorce her quietly" for "he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame." Despite his anxiety, however, Joseph was able to leave room in his heart for God's plan. In a dream, the angel of the Lord revealed a new possibility, instructing Joseph not to be afraid, but instead to have faith that the child Mary was carrying was indeed the One who would "save his people from their sins." Perhaps most remarkable about this passage is Joseph's response. Upon waking, he did not question or dismiss the possibilities suggested in the dream. No, Matthew tells us, "When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home." In Luke's Gospel, we learn that it didn't matter that there was no room at the inn, because both Mary and Joseph left room in their hearts for all that God could do and, as a result, brought our Savior into the world.

In reflecting on today's gospel, we realize that anything is possible with God. We are also reminded that the Holy Family's life was a lot more stressful than ours. A missing present is nothing compared to the struggles they faced. We tend to idealize the Nativity scene with Mary and Joseph in the stable, basking in the light of Baby Jesus, surrounded by angels, shepherds, and the Magi, while this gospel reading reminds us that not everyone was giving glory to God in the highest on that Holy Night. Herod, out of selfish fear and ignorance, was determined to find the newborn King and destroy Him. Herod's fear later became so great that "He ordered the massacre of all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity two years old and under." Jesus' life was in jeopardy, and it was Joseph's responsibility to keep Him safe. Thankfully, Jesus' earthly father remained open to God's possibilities and continued to respond to the heavenly directions given to him in dreams. When the angel told Joseph, "Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you," Joseph did just that. He "rose and took the child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt." He didn't scoff, or complain; he trusted in God's plan. In the years ahead, Joseph continued to protect and care for his family, following the angelic instructions that ultimately guided them to Nazareth, "so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, 'He shall be called a Nazorean.'" Joseph never wavered in his faith, and God never failed him. Faith involves trusting God's guidance, even when circumstances are uncertain. God can turn a negative situation into a greater positive one, when we do as He commands. Nothing is impossible with God!

Matthew presents the flight to and from Egypt as a fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy, quoting Hosea 11:1, "Out of Egypt I called my son." The flight to Egypt is interpreted as a new exodus, with God faithfully protecting His Son from a wicked king, just as He protected Moses from a wicked Pharaoh. By going to Egypt and then being called back, the Holy Family retraces Israel's steps, showing how Jesus, God's own Son, embodies and completes that redemptive narrative. The life of the Holy Family was filled with danger and vulnerability as Jesus was in need of protection, especially from the malice of human powers. Their journey serves as a model for Christian families, emphasizing guardianship, unity, shared responsibility, mutual respect, and a willingness to trust and follow God's will, even in the face of adversity. Their story is a testament to a life of holiness lived in love, even during hardship. Mary and Joseph raised Jesus, teaching Him about God, love, and the importance of their faith through prayer and temple visits. Joseph served God as Jesus' earthly father, a role guided by his devotion to Mary, and his duty as the Custodian of the Redeemer.

How different would our lives be if we consistently surrendered to God's will? Joseph must have been terribly afraid, but he didn't allow that fear to overpower him. Instead, he embraced his responsibility as a father, while always remembering to leave room in his heart for God. He never let his fear crowd out the space that was meant for God. His example of wisdom, courage, and obedience serves as an inspiration for both parents and church leaders to follow. May our hearts be more like Mary's and Joseph's, ever open to God's amazing love as we make room for the wonder and awe of Christmas, and the miracle of the Incarnation.

When my children were little, it became a tradition on Christmas morning that before any presents were opened, they would rush straight to the manger in the creche (which was empty during the Advent Season) to find Baby Jesus lying there. That became the moment Christmas arrived. Nothing compares to the wonder and awe that is seen in the eyes of a child on Christmas morning. This is why Jesus said that we must "turn and become like children" in order to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. God wants us to relearn what already comes naturally to them. The Holy Family helps us to realize that Christmas isn't about our presents, but His presence. May every family strive to be a holy family.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Christmas 2025

To the People of God of the Diocese of Rockville Centre:

Merry Christmas!

Throughout this year, we have marked many significant milestones in the life of the Church leading us to the Lord's Nativity and this holy season of Christmas, most especially the passing of Pope Francis at Easter and the election of Pope Leo XIV in May.

What a gift it has been to walk these months with our new Holy Father, to learn from his teaching, and witness his example.

On October 4th, the Memorial of Saint Francis of Assisi, Pope Leo released his first Apostolic Exhortation, Di/exit Te - I Have Loved You. It is a profound meditation on love for the poor and speaks powerfully to the mystery of the Lord's Birth and the grace of this season.

The Holy Father reminds us: "The Gospel shows us that poverty marked every aspect of Jesus' life. From the moment he entered the world, Jesus knew the bitter experience of rejection. The Evangelist Luke tells how Joseph and Mary, who was about to give birth, arrived in Bethlehem, and then adds, poignantly, that 'there was no place for them in the inn' (Lk 2:7). Jesus was born in humble surroundings and laid in a manger; then, to save him from being killed, they fled to Egypt (cf. Mt 2:13-15). At the dawn of his public ministry, after announcing in the synagogue of Nazareth that the year of grace which would bring joy to the poor was fulfilled in him, he was driven out of town (cf. Lk 4:14-30). He died as an outcast, led out of Jerusalem to be crucified (cf. Mk 15:22). Indeed, that is how Jesus' poverty is best described: he experienced the same exclusion that is the lot of the poor, the outcast of society. Jesus is a manifestation of this privilegium pauperum. He presented himself to the world not only as a poor Messiah, but also as the Messiah of and for the poor." (n. 19)

Before these words of Pope Leo, we recall the wonderful truth: Christ became poor so that we who are poor might become rich (cf. 2 Cor. 8:9). This is the good news of Christmas. We are not alone. We are not left to ourselves. A Savior has come - Christ the Lord.

As we celebrate the Christmas season, we remember with Pope Leo that "Christian holiness often flourishes in the most forgotten and wounded places of humanity." (n. 76)

How beautifully the followers of Christ have responded to the cry of the poor and looked with love upon the most vulnerable among us. As we rejoice in Christ's Birth, we renew our commitment to love others as he has loved us.

On Sunday, December 28th at the Cathedral of Saint Agnes, on the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, we will conclude our Jubilee Year of Hope.

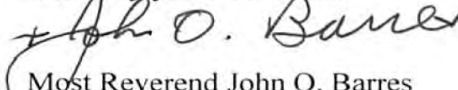

We thank both Pope Francis and Pope Leo XIV for igniting hope within our families, the global mission of the Church, and the human family, and we contemplate the light and grace that radiates from the refugee Holy Family (73) and that radiates to every family.

Our Catholic biblical and sacramental worship, especially at the Catholic Mass, focuses and ignites both our global mission to the poor (n. 42) and our humble openness to being evangelized by the poor (n. 102), the treasures of our Church (n.38).

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you and your families!

May the Light and love of the Christ Child animate and guide our global Catholic missionary spirit this Christmas and throughout the New Year.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

Bereavement Support...

Grieving is a natural process each of us goes through after the death of a loved one. While no one can take away our sadness, others can help by listening and caring. Sharing our feelings with others who have experienced the death of a loved one help many people begin the healing process.

*Grief never ends but it changes.
It is a passage, not a place to stay.
It is not a sign of weakness,
nor a lack of faith.
Grief is the price of love.*

A Message from Monsignor Walden...

This is the time of the year when we focus on gifts and gatherings. It is always good to give and receive gifts with joy. When I speak with children this time of year I ask them, "Are you going to get gifts for your family?" When they joyfully respond yes, I ask a second question, "What is the best gift?" They usually smile and start to think. Then I point my finger at them and say, "You are the gift!" Then their faces light up and a smile comes on their faces. Yes, we are a gift to one another and whatever we give materially as a gift is a reflection of the joy we bring to each other as family and friends.

I am always delighted to reflect on the first reading for Mass today (Sirach 3:2-7, 12-14) and these words in particular: "My son, take care of your father when he is old; grieve him not as long as he lives. Even if his mind fail, be considerate of him; revile him not all the days of his life; kindness to a father will not be forgotten, firmly planted against the debt of your sins—a house raised in justice to you." As children, we see our parents in their prime and find peace, security, and love through, with, and in them. As we grow into adulthood and leave home, the relationship changes. Now, many of us assume the role of parenthood and come to see and live what they received as children. As our parents age, they find peace, security and love in our concern for them, just the simple gift of our presence brings joy. I experienced this with both of my parents, but especially with my father while he was on hospice the last months of his life. It was my joy and privilege to help him get dressed, cut his toenails, and take him out for rides in the car - something he and my mother did for us on Sunday afternoon at times in the 1950s. It was so simple, yet joyful just being together as family.

As we are still in the Christmas season, we are encouraged to look at the trials, joys, and faith of the Holy Family, Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, and come to see the faith, hope, and love they had as THE HOLY Family. Their life was not easy. There was no room in the inn for Jesus to be born, only a stable was available. They fled to Egypt to escape the horrible quest of King Herod to kill him. That did not stop God from coming into our world to save us from life without Him and enrich us with Himself as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We are an intimate and cherished part of who the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are as well as the gift of the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Joseph. It is this union of perfect love and wisdom that we cherish in our own families and hope to experience and contribute to as the Church, the Family of God.

I close with the beautiful words of hope, love, and inspiration from St. Paul's first letter to the Corinthians (13:1-13).

"If I speak in human and angelic tongues but do not have love, I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge; if I have all faith so as to move mountains but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away everything I own, and if I hand my body over so that I may boast but do not have love, I gain nothing. Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, [love] is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails. If there are prophecies, they will be brought to nothing; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will be brought to nothing.*

For we know partially and we prophesy partially, but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. When I was a child, I used to talk as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I put aside childish things. At present we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face. At present I know partially; then I shall know fully, as I am fully known. So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love."

Women's Group...

Our Women's Group will begin again on Monday, September 22, 2025, at 10 AM to 11:30 AM. We welcome newcomers anytime to join our group. All meetings are open, come when you can. There are no rules, just desire for growth in Jesus and fellowship.

We're still reading The Sanctifier by Archbishop Luis M. Martinez. Part I is about True Devotion to the Holy Spirit. Part II: The Gifts of the Holy Spirit. Part III: The Fruit of the Spirit. Part IV: The Beatitudes.

As we read, we come to understand through our sharing, that the Holy Spirit is working in our daily lives & we're right where we're supposed to be on our journey. We're growing a little at a time. We all have the same feelings, doubts, fears, lack of knowledge, we're imperfect & we come to accept that. We're sisters in Jesus cheering each other on. If you're uncomfortable to share, you don't have to. We're just happy that you choose to be with us.

There is no charge for the books, all meetings are on Mondays, 10-11:30 AM, which gives you time to attend 12:00 mass if you wish. We're in the white house meeting room (convent), between the school & the rectory (blue house).

God Bless you, Carol & Anita (Moderators)

Reduce your 2025 Taxes with a Charitable IRA Rollover!

Are you 70 1/2 or older with an IRA? Consider a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) of up to $108,000 in 2025 to your parish or other ministry.

Satisfy your Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) and keep more of your hard-earned retirement savings out of your taxable income.

A QCD allows an IRA owner (and an IRA beneficiary) aged 70.5 or older to make charitable donations directly through their IRAs. IRA funds are transferred directly from the IRA to a qualified charitable organization. Most importantly, the funds withdrawn and transferred from the traditional IRA are not taxable. Normally, when a withdrawal is made from a traditional IRA, the withdrawal is considered a taxable event.

The best way for you to start is with your IRA custodian. Tell them you want to make a "qualified charitable distribution". In most cases you will only have to fill out a simple form.

VERY IMPORTANT!! Your gift must go directly from your IRA to the Charity. If you receive the money first, then you'll be taxed on it like any other distribution. Beyond annual giving, an IRA Charitable Rollover can be a powerful tool for estate planning. Consider naming our organization as a beneficiary of your IRA, leaving a legacy of support that aligns with your values and lessening the tax burden on your heirs. For more information on Qualified Charitable Distributions, please call Barbara Kilarjian at 516-678-5800 ext. 257

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Please take some time look through the back pages of the bulletin! It features many local businesses (and often the work of parishioners) and the good work they do in our community. We have parishioners who do everything from car detailing to car mechanics to lacrosse training to taking care of pets. Take a look and learn more!

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

Also, if your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist - most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area - receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of families in the area with information about your business.
