A Message from the Coordinator of Family Ministry...

It's not just a question for lepers!

Although the readings today revolve around leprosy and how it was dealt with thousands of years ago, when we go deeper, we see that these scriptures target key spiritual truths that can beautifully usher us into a humble acceptance of the Lenten journey.

Our first reading comes from the book of Leviticus. This book delineates the required priestly responses to ordinary matters. The purpose of these regulations was to ensure that the people of Israel would live a life centered on God. It was the responsibility of the priest to examine a person and determine whether or not the person had a diagnosis of “leprosy”. If leprosy was confirmed, the person afflicted was required to live in public disgrace and exclusion, until such time that the condition was resolved, and the person was reexamined by the priest and determined “clean”. Leprosy was considered a punishment from God. A few years ago, I learned a little bit more about leprosy during the times when the scriptures were written. I was quite surprised. The Hebrew word “saraat”, often translated as leprosy, does not refer to the same disease that we know today as leprosy or Hansen’s disease. It was more of a general term that encompassed a variety of visible skin conditions including things like ringworm, smallpox, measles, etc. Imagine...being banished because of ringworm? Hold that thought!

In the second reading, St. Paul presents a simple, but challenging, premise which should govern our words and actions. “Will what I am about to do bring glory to God? Will what I say offend God or His people in any way? Will my words and actions be beneficial for others? In a nutshell, “Am I imitating Christ?” St. Paul’s main concern is our salvation, and he provides a very clear guide to decision-making. Nothing confusing about that... but it requires humility, prayer, discipline, and surrender. Keep this idea in mind as we look at the gospel.

Today’s gospel reading comes from the gospel of Mark and recalls for us the familiar story of Jesus healing the leper. It is a short, powerful reminder of the compassionate mercy of Christ. The leper who comes to Jesus has much to teach us. He comes to Jesus and says, “If you will, you can make me clean.” He acknowledges that his healing rests in the hands of Christ. He surrenders himself to the will of God. He asks Jesus to “make him clean”. Those words are carefully chosen. Being made clean... is different than being healed. Being healed would rid him of his disease, but being made clean would allow him to return to his family and to his community, to regain his life. And we know what happens... in his mercy, Jesus does just what the leper asks of him.

Jesus’ response brings restoration to that leper and reassurance to all of us. Jesus reached out to the leper who was deemed an outcast... sinful... unworthy... unclean. Ever feel like that? I know I have. But that loving hand of Christ is extended to every one of us. We only need to... humbly acknowledge that our healing rests in Him; expose our “sores” with complete truth; and allow Him to touch us... without pulling back, turning away, or avoiding His mercy.

So, as we begin our Lenten journey let us ask ourselves, “Am I clean or unclean?” I think we all know the truth. We may not have leprosy or Hansen’s disease, but each of us has our own “spiritual leprosy” that keeps us from experiencing the fullness of life with God. Lent sends us a beautiful invitation to kneel before the Lord and beg Him to, “Make me clean!” Perhaps we can use today’s readings as an examination of conscience.

From Leviticus: Am I living a God-centered life according to the commandments?

Have I judged others based upon what I see (or what I think I see) or based on what I hear (or I think I hear)?

Have I overexaggerated something that resulted in hurting someone else (misdiagnosing ringworm as leprosy!).

Have I banished others spiritually, physically, or emotionally?

From Corinthians: What are the deciding factors that govern the words and actions of my life? Glory to God? Benefit of others?

From the gospel: Do I truly acknowledge that everything is in God’s hands? Or am I in control?

Will I make myself vulnerable before the Lord and expose my oozing, recurring, embarrassing, disgraceful “sores”?

Will I kneel before the Lord and beg for healing?

Will I allow the loving hand of Christ to touch me? Will I reach out to take hold of mercy and forgiveness?

This is just one way to “Repent and believe in the gospel.” Whatever we choose to do during the days and weeks ahead, let’s support each other. Let’s pray each other through Lent. Let’s allow ourselves to be cleansed of our spiritual leprosy.

And by Easter Sunday... let’s pray that we’re all squeaky clean!

With hope,

Carolyn Lapham, Coordinator of Family Ministry

ABSTINENCE & FASTING

All Catholics who have reached their fourteenth (14th) year are bound to abstain entirely from meat on all the Fridays of Lent.

All Catholics between the ages of eighteen (18) and fifty-nine (59) inclusive are also bound to observe the law of fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This means limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Two other light meals, which together do not equal a full meal, may be taken during the day. Those whose work or health would be impaired are excused from fast and abstinence. Individual conscience should decide proper cause for excuse. A more serious reason is required to excuse oneself from the Ash Wednesday and Good Friday fast and abstinence.

Remembering Our Loved Ones

Altar Bread & Wine for the month of February has been donated:

In Memory of the Deceased of the Parish

This week, the Sacred Heart Candle will be lit:

In Memory of Marie Joyce

SJE offers a number of ways to remember loved ones, or honor someone living.

To make an offering, visit or contact the Parish Office at 631.878.0009 or email to rectory@sjecm.org

Mass Intentions

Remembering one who has passed away at Mass is a most noble practice calling us to pray for one who has died at the most powerful prayer we know - the celebration of the Eucharist.

Altar Bread and Wine

Names will be listed in each bulletin during the course of that month.
For the month, an offering of $150 is requested.

Votive Candles/Altar Candles

A number of votive candles enlighten the beautiful statues in our church. You may have a particular devotion to one of these saints. These candles are next to the statues of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They bring a certain light to the statues and, hopefully, inspire some deeper times of prayer and reflection.

Altar Candles - $25.00 per week.

Don't Forget Your Baby Bottle!

On the weekend of February 10th & 11th, once again St. John the Evangelist Parish will be hosting a Baby Bottle Fundraiser to benefit the Life Center of Long Island. Last year our parish raised over $12,000 through the Baby Bottle Fundraiser.

The Life Center is a pregnancy care center that consults with women and men who are experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. Did you know that they provide?

Free pregnancy test kits + Free sonogram + Maternity housing w/eligibility requirements referrals

Medical care referrals + Male advocates available to speak with fathers

Material aid including car seats, cribs, clothing, diapers, and many other needed baby items

We are asking that you pick up a baby bottle and fill it with your donation.

(Please make checks payable to the Life Center of L.I.)

PLEASE RETURN THE BOTTLES ON FEBRUARY 24TH & 25TH

Most importantly, we are asking you to recite the prayer attached to the baby bottle. Prayers bring about something very powerful at the Life Center... a change of a mother's heart! We believe these prayers lead abortion-minded women to reach out to the Life Center in the beginning of their pregnancy.

Prayers also spiritually equip our consultants at the Life Center to say just the right words a mother or father may need to hear with hope of choosing the gift of life for their baby.

Let us pray for the conversion of a mother's heart to give the gift of life to her preborn baby!

A Message from Msgr. Walden...

As all of America knows today is Super Bowl Sunday. Sports certainly gets a lot of hype and attention in our society. This coming Wednesday is Ash Wednesday, a day noted for people coming to have ashes placed on our foreheads as the words “Repent and believe” in the Gospel are spoken over us. Ash Wednesday is the beginning of our forty day journey to the ultimate Sunday of the year, Easter Sunday. As Ash Wednesday begins it is good to think about where we are in our life with God as individuals and as the Church.

We live in a world and a nation with much dissension and division. How can we break down barriers, talk with one another, and be reconciled? The only true source of hope and way to peace comes from the author of life and His Son Jesus Christ. There is no other Way, Truth, or Life. No one and nothing has what only our God can give us. A few weeks ago in a spiritual book, “St. Paul Speaks to Priests” by John Gilchrist, I am reading and using to pray at morning prayer I read this passage over and over again: “St. Paul spent his entire Christian life in conflict. Yet, he asks us to strive for peace, while at the same time admonishing us to “see to it” that no one falls away from grace. People who are being tempted by evil are in a situation of stress. An alcoholic does not want to hear about abstinence. A man in an adulterous relationship does not want to be told about morality. The sad plight of today’s society has come from its abandonment of God. The poison of secularism leads men and women with a worthless value system. The sickness infects all of their hopes and dreams. Their value system is worthless because it begins with the world and ends with the world. Our peace comes from a pure heart that sees all things as God’s and all people as creatures of God.”

The forty days of Lent is our God given time to refocus on who and what is important in our lives. Yes, it is about where we allow God to fit into our lives. But first and foremost is about being reawakened and renewed by how God allows us to fit into His life. As common sense points out and as we know all too well relationships only grow and give life when we put our minds, hearts, and souls into them. We think about what we are going to give up as a penance during Lent. But what do we really have to give up to spend more time in sincere prayer, reception of Jesus in Holy Communion, and being uplifted by His words of forgiveness in the Sacrament of Penance? Would that we would spend 10% of the time we spend with our electronic devices every day praying sincerely and prayerfully reflecting on the Scriptures. A very “holy” thing we can do on our phone, iPad or computer is go on the site USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops). It quickly makes available the readings for Mass each day and all the books of the Bible. I use it frequently, especially when I am writing a column such as this. Even google is so helpful. I type in “where in the Bible does Jesus say...” and in a second or two the passage comes up.

Lent is a good time to be part of 40 Days for Life in Patchogue through prayer and/or our presence with those praying by the abortion facility on Waverly Avenue. (See page 9)

I close with this passage from Isaiah 26:1-4, 7-9, 12:

A strong city have we;
he sets up walls and ramparts to protect us.
Open up the gates to let in a nation that is just,
one that keeps faith.

A nation of firm purpose you keep in peace;
in peace, for its trust in you.

Trust in the Lord forever!
For the Lord is an eternal Rock.

The way of the just is smooth;
the path of the just you make level.
Yes, for your way and your judgments, O Lord,
we look to you;
Your name and your title
are the desire of our souls.

My soul yearns for you in the night,
yes, my spirit within me keeps vigil for you;
When your judgment dawns upon the earth,
the world's inhabitants learn justice.

O Lord, you mete out peace to us, for it is you who have accomplished all we have done.

¿Estás buscando una gran oferta? St. John's Thrift Shop es el lugar para usted y su familia. ¡Todos son bienvenidos!

Cuando visite nuestra tienda, verá mucha ropa, carteras, zapatos, joyas, artículos para el hogar y muchos juguetes fantásticos nuevos y en buen estado, todo a excelentes precios. Las ganancias de las ventas semanales en la tienda se devuelven a nuestros programas de Alcance Parroquial y se utilizan para ayudar a nuestros vecinos necesitados en nuestra parroquia y la comunidad local.

El éxito de nuestra tienda de segunda mano depende de las generosas donaciones de nuestra comunidad que se dejan en los contenedores verdes del estacionamiento de la escuela. Si está buscando una excelente manera de retribuir a nuestra comunidad parroquial, considere donar su ropa nueva o en buen estado, o aquellos juguetes que a sus hijos les hayan quedado pequeños.

Women's Group...

Fr. Timothy Gallagher's book on The Discernment of Spirits, lists St. Ignatius' 14 rules for discernment, then goes through each rule a chapter at a time, describing how to apply it in our lives. In the ups & downs, consolations and desolations of our spiritual life, we go through times of pure joy to "Where are You Jesus?"

St. Ignatius (1491-1556), recuperating from war wounds was given reading material on the life of Christ & the saints. As he thought about what he read, he became aware of his thought patterns, how the thoughts affected his feelings, and how the good feelings remained with him. When he had worldly thoughts, although he felt good while thinking them, he noticed that afterward the feelings left him empty. He continued reading spiritual books, growing in wisdom. God was leading him, fulfilling His Plan for him to be a great saint & to teach us. God's plan for us is the same, the process is slow.

As women who love Jesus, we need & want to learn to recognize Jesus' voice & grow closer to Him. At times we feel inadequate, wondering is this Jesus speaking, me or the enemy? In our group we begin to see we're all equal, with the same problems, emotions, weaknesses, confusion, strengths, desires, fears, doing the best we can, we don't have to be perfect. Jesus consoles us through our love for each other. If you feel desire to come but are fearful, we understand because we've been there & at times still are, so just come as you are, no rules or requirements, you don't have to read or share. We respect the privacy of others, sharing is anonymous!

We meet every other Monday from 10:00 - 11:30 AM in the IHM room, white house (convent) between school & rectory.

Dates: February 26*,
March 4, 18, April 8*, 15, 29,
May 13, 20*, June 24 (summer break).

*Dates with * are makeup dates.*

Facilitators: Carol Ketcham, Anita Luccari.

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Please take some time look through the back pages of the bulletin! It features many local businesses (and often the work of parishioners) and the good work they do in our community. We have parishioners who do everything from car detailing to car mechanics to lacrosse training to taking care of pets. Take a look and learn more!

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? Not only that, our parish receives a part of the advertising commission. So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

Also, if your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist - most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area - receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of families in the area with information about your business.

For more information on how to advertise in our bulletin, call The Church Bulletin Company at 631-249-4994
