

St. John the Evangelist

Roman Catholic Church

Inspired by our Patron, St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church in Center Moriches seeks to bring the light of Christ to a world in need, so that as Christ has done, we may also do. From the celebration of the Eucharist, we are sent forth to serve God and neighbor through ministries of formation, education and outreach.

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 6, 2022

DIocese of Rockville Centre
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

February 2, 2022
Feast of the Presentation

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

During this week, from Sunday, January 30, 2022 through February 5, 2022, our 35 Catholic elementary schools in the Diocese of Rockville Centre are participating in Catholic Schools Week, the annual national celebration of Catholic education.

The theme for National Catholic Schools Week 2022 is “Catholic Schools: Faith, Excellence, Service.” Schools typically observe the week with Masses, open houses and other activities for students, families, parishioners and community members. Through these events, schools focus on the importance, value and contributions of Catholic education to our young people, our Church, our communities and the world at large.

As we celebrate Catholic education this year, I am most appreciative of those who make it possible: the administrators, faculties, and staffs of our Catholic elementary schools. Their Good Samaritan charity, dedication and perseverance radiate Christ, form our students and make our schools thrive. Indeed, from maintaining the continuity of instruction during periods of remote learning due to the COVID pandemic, to providing safe school environments for on-site learning, they have ensured that our school communities have continued to address the academic, social and spiritual needs of our students.

Notwithstanding this pandemic, we continue to make significant progress transforming our schools through our on-going Morning Star Initiative (“MSI”). Many elements of the MSI are already in place, such as key improvements in mathematics, reading and religious studies, which are helping students reach new potential. I am so very grateful for the tireless dedication of our MSI team.

Please join with me in asking Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, the patron saint of Catholic schools, and Mary, Star of Evangelization, to intercede for our Morning Star and Department of Education teams, for our principals, teachers and staff, and especially for our students.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

AFTERCARE POSITION

We have an opening for an aftercare position. The hours would be from 2:30-5 two to three afternoons a week. It would consist of homework help, giving the kids a snack, and supervision and playtime with them. Students in grades pre-K-8 (mostly younger grades attend). For more information, contact Mrs. Dawn Waller at 631.878.1033 or e-mail to dwaller@sjecm.org.

R.E.A.C.H. Project

For a student to graduate from OLQA, he or she must complete the two-year REACH (Research + Excellence + Academics + Catholicism + Hope) project that requires students to conduct significant academic research and then carry out an action research project. This year's seventh graders have now successfully presented their proposals before their peers and a panel of experts who provided feedback and direction. 2023 REACH Topics include: The Impact of Social Anxiety, The Reputation of Sharks, ADHD and the Saints, Climate Change, Prevention of Ankle Injuries, Equine Therapy and more. Below are some pictures of their research presentations. Students in the Class of 2022 have completed their methodology sections and will begin their own action research projects in February and March.

The REACH project requires good mentors, those with experience in the fields of study for each student. If you might be interested in serving as a mentor to an incredible seventh graders, please contact Fr. John at 631.878.1033 or email to jsureau@olqany.org

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASSES BEGINNING SOON!

Are you an adult interested in receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation? If you are a baptized Catholic, but have not been fully initiated, we offer a process for those who desire to receive the sacrament of Confirmation. Meeting will begin taking place at the start of Lent and continue through Pentecost.

If you would like to sign up for more information, contact the Rectory at 631.878.0009 or email to rectory@sjecm.org or fill out this form: <https://forms.gle/hSzTfgZdMtF1Qh398>

For teenagers and their families who desire ore information, contact the Faith Formation Office at 631- 878-0009 ext. 5 or email to faithformation@sjecm.org.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

FEELING LOST WITH LUKE PART II

THURSDAYS

February 10

February 17

February 24

4 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.

OR

7 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Sometimes called the Gospel of Mercy, Luke allows us to come to know the Jesus of compassion in some beautiful ways.

Led by Fr. John - and perhaps a friend or two - join us for afternoons or evenings of prayer, learning and discussion about parts of the Gospel of Luke. In Part II, we will look at the public ministry of Jesus as presented in Luke's Gospel. This is a great opportunity to prepare for Lent.

Having participated in Part I in November and December is NOT a requirement or prerequisite for this course.

Email rectory@sjecm.org or call the rectory at 631-878-0009 to sign up. A $20.00 free will offering is requested but not required for this program.

LITURGY AND LIFE

Bringing up the Gifts

At each Mass at St. John the Evangelist we bring forward the gifts of bread and wine and offerings for those who are poor and in need. This procession of gifts is symbolic of the gifts we bring to the table of the Lord and the gifts the Lord has given us—fruit of the earth, fruit of the vine—to become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.

If you would like to bring forward the gifts of bread and wine at Sunday Mass, please see a member of the Cana Care Crew.

If you would like to bring forward the gifts of bread and wine at daily Mass, please sit in the back of the center sections of the Church near the offertory table.

At this time, all who are part of the procession with gifts must wear a mask.

Preparing for Ash Wednesday

Lent is less than a month away! As has been our tradition at SJE, we will collect palm from previous years to burn for ashes to be distributed on Ash Wednesday. Baskets will be placed at the Fellowship Area doors and in lobby of Seton Chapel for you to place your palm. Palms will be burned before Ash Wednesday and used at this year's services.

HOLY WATER BOTTLES

Holy water bottles are available in Our Lady's Chapel in the Church and in the vestibule of Seton Chapel. Wanting to take every precaution in these days, we will not have holy water at the doors of the church for the foreseeable future. The bottles can be taken and kept.

If you need more holy water, you may fill them up from the silver holy water containers. When it has run out, please let the sacristan know (if it a week-end or a weekday morning) or call the Rectory so we can fill up the containers.

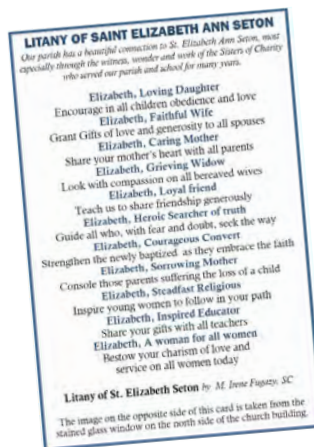

There is no fee for the holy water bottles. If you wish, consider leaving an offering in the Poor Box as you leave church.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Pray for us!

We have new prayer cards available in the Church seeking the intercession of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. Founder of the Sisters of Charity and the first American born saint, she is close to our parish. The Sisters of Charity were key to establishing our parish school and many of our parish's ministries. The prayer cards are located by the Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton window in the Church.

Please feel free to take an extra card or to share one with someone else.

LITURGICAL PRACTICES, GOOD HEALTH AND COMMON SENSE

As we come to celebrate Mass together each week during these winter days, it's a good time to review some common-sense liturgical practices and issues, to help everyone stay healthy and to care for one another.

- MASKS ARE STILL REQUIRED IN ALL BUILDINGS, INCLUDING THE CHURCH.

Thank you for wearing a mask at Sunday Mass and at other parish liturgies and events.

- Not feeling great, STAY HOME! Please do not take any chances for your sake or anyone else's! Join us via social media or watch Mass on the Catholic Faith Network. The risks are too great for you and for others in these days. There is no obligation to attend Mass if you are not well; it is not a sin to miss Mass for this reason. (Also, there is no need to go to Confession if you miss Mass because you are sick.)

- Entering the Church: You must enter through the main fellowship doors with your mask on. Please sanitize your hands, take a worship aid and enter the church. Remember, you may leave your gifts for the offertory as you enter and as you leave.

- Holy Communion: Priests, deacons and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion wash and sanitize their hands before Mass begins and immediately before distribution of Holy Communion. When Extraordinary Ministers go to their station, they place the vessel on the small table near that station and sanitize their hands before distributing Holy Communion.

- Communion from the Chalice: The distribution of the Precious Blood remains suspended at this time.

- Greeting of Peace: The greeting of peace has been reinstituted. You do NOT need to shake hands to ex-

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament Monday - Friday 3PM - 7PM @ Seton Chapel

- Consider offering one hour per week before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. If you can be present for a specific hour, fill out this form:

<https://forms.gle/qrC4P6nyDRrJ4xpu5>, email Fr. John at jsureau@sjecm.org or call the Parish Office at 631.878.0009.

- We are once again need of parishioners to commit to Friday afternoons and evenings—most especially from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m.
- Parishioners are always welcome to come and pray before the Blessed Sacrament even if they cannot make the regular hour commitment.

"The work of adoration is little understood even by those who claim to be My adorers. There is no need to fill up the time of adoration with thoughts and words, as if all depended on your doing something. It is sufficient to speak to Me as the Holy Spirit gives you to speak, to listen to Me with the ear of your heart, and to abide in the light of My face for those who languish in the darkness of sin and in the refusal of My love, My truth and My life"

(In Sinu Jesu, Sept. 5, 2011, Imprimatur).

PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY AND OUTREACH

COATS NEEDED!

Our Street Ministry is in desperate need of coats for our regular Thursday evening distribution. As we minister to many each Thursday night, many come looking for a jacket or coat—some each week. You may ask why do they need one every week. For some, a week in one jacket facing the elements outside all day and night produce much wear and tear that requires a new jacket or coat.

PLEASE HELP!

You may leave jackets and coats in the big box in the Fellowship Area, the Parish Office, or in the green bins.

THANK YOU!!

REACH OUT

In addition to seeking to serve those who come to us, SJE Parish Social Ministry also attempt to “REACH OUT” to local organizations and charities that seek to care for those who may not be able to come to us. We are only able to do this because of YOU and your generosity and support.

Here is one note we received from a local men’s shelter....THANK YOU!!!

“...I can't thank you along with all of your helpers and everyone that donated to our shelter. The gentleman are so very thankful for all that you do for us. You all are so very amazing and I am thankful for all of your hard work and dedication to help as many people as possible. You are always there for us all. You are the best along with your helpers and everyone that donates the world needs more people like all of you.”

“For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.” Matthew 25:35-36

Prison Families Anonymous welcomes anyone who now has, or ever had, a loved one involved in the juvenile or criminal justice system. At meetings, we share our experience, strength and hope. Here we offer information and assistance in navigating the criminal justice system. We encourage members to exchange phone numbers and when possible to carpool to upstate prisons.

CONFIRMATION PREP (GRADES 7, 8 & UP)

During our last Level 8 session, we tackled the challenging topic of suffering in light of our faith. We welcomed back Joe Conklin, who served as a social worker at OLQA and SJE, and now serves at Sachem High School. Joe shared his own powerful witness and encouraged students to seek God in suffering, and to remember "where comfort ends, growth begins." Our small group leaders helped students break open the topic in light of John 16. Students considered and wrote down issues of suffering that seemed overwhelming to them, and then brainstormed some ways to see someone through those situations. Their writings were placed at the altar in the Church, where

Fr. John closed in prayer with a Litany of Healing.

Level 8—Tuesday, February 8 @ 7:15PM, Church

WOMENS PRAYER GROUP —PLEASE NOTE

Our Women's Group will not have in person meetings because of the cold and covid. Instead we'll keep our schedule by using conference call. We'll resume in person meetings again in March. We're still studying the book by Fr Timothy Gallagher on Discernment. We welcome new members.

The conference call phone number is 701-802-5410. When prompted put in the Access Code number 1309766# then announce yourself. For more information, contact the Parish Office.

SUPPORT OUR BULLETIN!

Please take some time look through the back pages of the bulletin! It features many local businesses (and often the work of parishioners) and the good work they do in our community. We have parishioners who do everything from car detailing to car mechanics to lacrosse training to taking care of pets. Take a look and learn more!

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? Not only that, our parish receives a part of the advertising commission. So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

Also, if your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist—most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area—receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of area families with information about your business.

THE WORD OF GOD

On the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Sunday of the Word of God, Pope Francis called us to a deeper appreciation of the Word of God—the Scriptures—in our daily lives. Each year, we try to incorporate a new emphasis on the Word of God. We have blessed our readers, instituted the Book of the Gospels and more. In 2022, we will begin an expanded bulletin page that will help us to focus on the Scriptures, particularly how they relate to our Sunday and daily worship. Please make use of the resources on this page each week.

The Second Vatican Council gave great impulse to the rediscovery of the word of God, thanks to its Dogmatic Constitution Dei Verbum, a document that deserves to be read and appropriated ever anew. The Constitution clearly expounds the nature of sacred Scripture, its transmission from generation to generation (Chapter II), its divine inspiration (Chapter III) embracing the Old and New Testaments (Chapters IV and V), and the importance of Scripture for the life of the Church (Chapter VI). To advance this teaching, Pope Benedict XVI convoked an Assembly of the Synod of Bishops in 2008 on “The Word of God in the Life and Mission of the Church”, and then issued the Apostolic Exhortation Verbum Domini, whose teaching remains fundamental for our communities. [\[1\]](#) That document emphasizes in particular the performative character of the Word of God, especially in the context of the liturgy, in which its distinctively sacramental character comes to the fore. Readings for Next Sunday— 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

*Please look over these readings and consider these reflection questions before coming to Mass next Sunday.

First Reading + Jeremiah 17:5-8

1. Compare and contrast the tree planted beside the water with the barren bush. Do you identify completely with the tree or do you have some of the barren bush in you? Where does choice come into this picture?

2. Are there any areas of your life in which you place your trust in human beings? Why? In which areas of your life do you place your trust in God?

Second Reading + 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20

1. “Resurrection” was a new idea for the early Christians and hard for some to believe. How do you handle new ideas? Is it an automatic rejection, automatic acceptance or do you collect information and study the ideas carefully?

2. Do you think every truth was present at the foundation of the Church or do you think some truths evolve with time and circumstances? How does the idea of resurrection impact your life now? What would your life be like now if you had no hope of resurrection?

Gospel + Luke 6:17, 20-26

1. Although it is inevitable that disciples suffer, these directives don’t require you to be constantly poor or hungry, but that you realize your need for God, whatever your situation. They demand a choice. Is this a choice you can make once or do you have to make it repeatedly?

SYNOD: Walking Together

Synod
2021
2023
For a synodal Church
(communion + participation + mission)

Pope Francis is calling the Church to a time of synod—of discerning the Spirit in the Church in our times. This is an exciting time for the Church and one that we will each called to be part of in the months and years ahead. To prepare our hearts and minds for this, we will be printing information about what a synod is, the vision of a synod as well as information from our diocesan efforts when this becomes available. Let us pray that we may each be open to the Holy Spirit!

Prayer for the Synod on Synodality

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.
With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
how we are to pursue it.
We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.
Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.
All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

I like to see the beginning of ecclesial synodality in the early Church when the apostles gathered to wrestle with a question that divided them: Should non-Jewish people be bound by Jewish laws and customs such as circumcision when they become Christian? After discussion and prayer and some bitter disagreement, they pondered the way that God had worked signs and wonders among them through the Gentiles, for God is recognized in the experience of real life. They declared that “it has seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us” (Acts 15:28) not to impose on non-Jewish Christians the regulations of Jewish law.

-Pope Francis, Let Us Dream: A Time to Choose, p. 82.

The Local Church....WALKING TOGETHER

The Sisters of St. Dominic of Amityville Celebrate Irish Night

Last year continued to test us all in so many ways - our patience, our resolve, our resilience. Yet, what proved constant and true was the strength of our Sisters, our Dominican family, and the need for flexibility and connectedness. This year we will again host our Irish Night virtually and hope that you will join us in celebrating this time honored tradition. For some of you this may be your first time while others join us once again. No matter, we are thrilled that you chose to celebrate with us!

For almost 50 years, Irish Night has raised crucial funds needed to care for our senior Sisters living at our Motherhouse in Amityville. These dedicated women religious have spent their lives being signs of joy and hope while serving the people of God. We are honored to care for them as they come home to live their next stage of life.

This year's celebration will take place virtually on Saturday, March 5, 2022. We are so happy to be joined once again by our program Emcee, CBS news anchor, Dick Brennan. Dick will guide us through the event which will feature traditional songs, dance, and plenty of Irish spirit!

Please consider supporting our efforts by purchasing one or more of the following:

- An event ticket for $40, which includes 1 entry into our door prize raffle, and an entry into the Irish Sweepstakes.
- A ticket for our Irish Sweepstakes Raffle. You could win one of three cash prizes: $2,500, $1,000 or $500! Tickets are $10 each, or 6 for $50. Extra tickets are available on our website or by contacting the Advancement Office at 631-842-6000 ext. 246.

As always, thank you for your continued support of the Sisters. We hope you will join us on March 5th!
