A Message from Deacon Michael...

It is now four weeks since we celebrated the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead on Easter Sunday, with three weeks more until Pentecost. Fittingly, the Easter Season is the longest liturgical season in the Church's calendar because Christ's victory over death is the greatest and most important event in our Christian faith. The one characteristic that marks the Easter Season more than any other is: JOY. The joy of the season is expressed in numerous ways. The Gospel of the Second Sunday of Easter contains the line, "The disciples rejoiced when they saw the risen Lord." The Gospel for the Third Sunday of Easter describes the apostles as "still incredulous for joy." The Marian hymn for the Easter Season, Regina Caeli, sings, "Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, Alleluia! For the Lord has truly risen, Alleluia!" And every Easter Preface in the Mass dares to say that "every people" in "every land" is "overcome with paschal joy"!

A month later into the season, are you still rejoicing? You should be! Christians are called to be a joyful people precisely because of our Easter faith. Jesus Christ rose triumphant from the dead, and His Resurrection changes everything. The Resurrection should change us, as it changed the apostles from cowering behind locked doors to boldly proclaiming the Resurrection and "rejoicing because they had been counted worthy" for being flogged by the Sanhedrin for proclaiming it (Acts 5:41). The Resurrection changed "the great and terrible day of the Lord" (Joel 2:31) when Jesus died into Good Friday, and the cross into the Tree of Life. The Resurrection changed human death from a permanent demise into the way that leads to eternal life and glory.

In order to be able to rejoice in the Resurrection continually throughout the long Easter season, it is crucial to realize that spiritual joy is not a human emotion. St. Paul tells us to: "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice!" (Philippians 4:4; 1 Thes 5:16). No one can feel happy all the time. The apostles were not happy in being flogged, but they rejoiced in the beatitude and reward of being persecuted on account of Christ (Matt 5:12). Christian joy can be sustained because it is not so much feeling or a certain gaudiness, but more like the dawning realization of the awesome magnitude of what God has done and will do for us. Christian joy is rejoicing in the great truths of salvation: Jesus lives! The very "Son of God loved me and gave himself up for me" (Gal 2:20). "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day" (John 6:54). If you really think about it, these truths, these facts of our faith, are really too good to be true, and yet they are true. Amazement and wonder leads to thankful joy and praise.

Whatever you are feeling now, do not let it be an excuse not to rejoice in the Resurrection of our Lord from the dead. If, for good reason, you are feeling sad, you can still rejoice, because who Jesus is and what he has done for us is still true and will be forever true. If you are happy because things are going well right now, do not think that that contentment is equivalent to Christian joy, for the good feelings will pass, but there is no reason our Christian joy must fade. Unless we let it fade by losing focus, by being forgetful. We can let things like fear, ingratitude, a sense of entitlement, and distractions prevent us from standing upon and rejoicing in the Rock who is the risen Lord Jesus Christ, "the stone rejected by the builders that has become the cornerstone" (Psalm 118:22). We lose our joy in the Lord when we lose our center in Christ, when we fail to remember that what He has done triumphs over everything else that has or could happen to us. Instead, turn to your risen Lord, open your heart to the Love that has conquered death for you, and rejoice!

Remembering one who has passed away at Mass is a most noble practice calling us to pray for one who has died at the most powerful prayer we know - the celebration of the Eucharist.

Altar Bread and Wine

Names will be listed in each bulletin during the course of that month.
For the month, an offering of $150 is requested.

Votive Candles/Altar Candles

A number of votive candles enlighten the beautiful statues in our church. You may have a particular devotion to one of these saints. These candles are next to the statues of the Blessed Mother, St.
Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They bring a certain light to the statues and, hopefully, inspire some deeper times of prayer and reflection.

FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“Where do they get their energy!” Maybe you’ve said that about your children as they run around the yard while you’re trying to wrangle them inside for bedtime. Jokes about how sugar and caffeine are what keep most adults going, but we know it’s proper nutrition, exercise, and rest that enable us to do well whatever it is we do. That is all relevant to us physically. What about spiritually? Bishop Barron, writing on the Gospel, says, “Jesus declares that he is the vine and we are the branches. He is the power and energy source in which we live.” (Word on Fire Bible, 548) Just as we see the effects of sugar and caffeine on people, we see the supernatural effects of Jesus’ love on, and in, people. As he nurtures us with his perfect love, and that flows into us who are grafted onto him, it changes us. It transforms us and converts us away from sin and toward God. We fill up on that spiritual fuel in the sacramental life of the Church and become a witness to it in how we go about our days – loving one another.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

“Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth.” These words from John in our second reading provide the perfect bridge between the ministry of Paul, about whom we heard in the first reading, and Christ’s message in the Gospel. With Jesus as “the power and energy source in which we live,” we not only can profess the truth, but live it. We not only give our own account of Christ working in us, as Paul did, who came to them speaking out “boldly in the name of the Lord,” but we stand beside one another, as Barnabas did, vouching for Paul to the Apostles. We are united in baptism, in love, in profession of faith, and in communion with one another. When we consistently act in a Christian manner toward others and keep God’s commandments, John says, we “remain in him, and he in [us], and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit he gave us.” In other words, those who remain in Christ “will bear much fruit” – a tangible sign that easily answers the question, “where does he/she get her energy?”

PRAY

Is there anything in your life that is an obstacle to Jesus being the power and energy source in which you live? Are your days fueled more by anger, frustration, or ambition than his love? Pray this week in thanksgiving to God for where he has given you conversion of heart, and ask him for the grace to see where improvement is needed and the will to make it happen.

A Prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life

St. Joseph, defender of life,
pray for us!

Dearest St. Joseph,
at the word of an angel,
you lovingly took Mary into your home.
As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son
in the shelter of a manger,
and fled far from your homeland
for the safety of both Mother and Child.

We praise God that as their faithful protector,
you never hesitated to sacrifice
for those entrusted to you.
May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard
God's most precious gift of life.

Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life – especially where it is vulnerable or threatened.
Obtain for us the grace
to do the will of God in all things.
Amen.

A Message from Msgr. Walden...

Back in 1990 I had the joy of taking two of my nephews who were eight and ten years old to Disney World. It amazed me to see their excitement, wonder, and joy. At the end of the day we would go back to the hotel and found a restaurant with an all you can eat buffet. They were absolutely mesmerized by the selections and quantity, especially the ice cream machine. That experience comes to mind as I have recently read comments by Cardinal Gregory in Washington, D.C. about cafeteria Catholics. Cafeteria Catholics are those who pick and choose what commandments and teachings they accept and disregard those they don't want to follow or deal with.

Sadly in our nation there are moral issues that are put up for public approval and acceptance - abortion and sex change operations for children and adults are constantly in the news. What do we do when we find ourselves wanting to dismiss church teaching by supporting those who promote abortion and sex change operations for children. Does political "loyalty" take precedence over Catholic teaching, morals, and values? Our ability to make choices is a gift we have because we have free will. We are virtuous or sinful through the choices we make. Sinful choices first and foremost separate us from God and one another. In the Gospel for today's Mass (John 15:1-8) Jesus says, "Remain in me, as I remain in you.

Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

When a moral issue such as abortion is put forth as a legal choice we have crossed the line. To dismiss the Fifth Commandment, Thou shall not kill, for political purposes is to separate us from God. Jesus is very clear about that in the above Gospel passage. The line from the movie Shawshank Redemption comes to mind where the prisoner Andy Dufresne hears from a fellow prisoner that he knows Andy did not kill his wife and knows who did. When Andy approaches the Warden Norton with this information he is dismissed and says to the Warden, "How can you be so obtuse?" How can we be so obtuse with the abortion issue? Until it is seen for what it is, the killing of children in the womb, it will continue to divide and separate us from one another and, even more, God! The choice to abort a child and the support of that "right" will continue to cause separation, hatred, and tension. A cafeteria Catholic is not an option for peace in our hearts, our nation, and a heavenly assurance when we die. Jesus will always forgive our sins, all we have to do is confess them, receive absolution, and have a firm purpose of amendment to not commit them again. This is a moral issue, not a political issue. A state separates and its citizens separate themselves from God and one another when that happens.

I offer these verses from Psalm 22 for your prayerful reflection and also invite you to prayerful read the whole Psalm.

You who fear the Lord give him praise;
all sons of Jacob, give him glory.
Revere him, Israel's sons.

For he has never despised
nor scorned the poverty of the poor.
From him he has not hidden his face,
but he heard the poor man when he cried."

You are my praise in the great assembly.
My vows I will pay before those who fear him.
The poor shall eat and shall have their fill.
They shall praise the Lord, those who seek him.
May their hearts live for ever and ever!

All the earth shall remember and return to the Lord,
all families of the nations worship before him;
for the kingdom is the Lord's, he is ruler of the nations.
They shall worship him, all the mighty of the earth;
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust.

And my soul shall live for him, my children serve him.
They shall tell of the Lord to generations yet to come,
declare his faithfulness to peoples yet unborn:
These things the Lord has done. Glory...

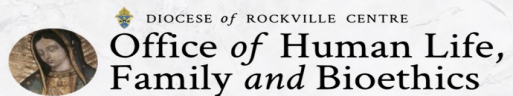

Psalm Prayer: Father, when your Son was handed over to torture and seemed abandoned by you, he cried out to you from the cross and death was destroyed, life was restored. By his death and resurrection, may we see the day when the poor man is saved, the downtrodden is lifted up and the chains that bind peoples are broken. United to the thanks that Christ gives you, your Church will sing your praises.

“For as the bread, which is produced from the earth, when it receives the invocation of God, is no longer common bread, but the Eucharist, consisting of two realities, earthly and heavenly. so also our bodies, when they receive the Eucharist, are no longer corruptible, having the hope of the resurrection to eternity.”

Women's Group...

Fr. Timothy Gallagher's book on The Discernment of Spirits, lists St. Ignatius' 14 rules for discernment, then goes through each rule a chapter at a time, describing how to apply it in our lives. In the ups & downs, consolations and desolations of our spiritual life, we go through times of pure joy to "Where are You Jesus?"

St. Ignatius (1491-1556), recuperating from war wounds was given reading material on the life of Christ & the saints. As he thought about what he read, he became aware of his thought patterns, how the thoughts affected his feelings, and how the good feelings remained with him. When he had worldly thoughts, although he felt good while thinking them, he noticed that afterward the feelings left him empty. He continued reading spiritual books, growing in wisdom. God was leading him, fulfilling His Plan for him to be a great saint & to teach us. God's plan for us is the same, the process is slow.

As women who love Jesus, we need & want to learn to recognize Jesus' voice & grow closer to Him. At times we feel inadequate, wondering is this Jesus speaking, me or the enemy? In our group we begin to see we're all equal, with the same problems, emotions, weaknesses, confusion, strengths, desires, fears, doing the best we can, we don't have to be perfect. Jesus consoles us through our love for each other. If you feel desire to come but are fearful, we understand because we've been there & at times still are, so just come as you are, no rules or requirements, you don't have to read or share. We respect the privacy of others, sharing is anonymous!

We meet every other Monday from 10:00 - 11:30 AM in the IHM room, white house (convent) between school & rectory.

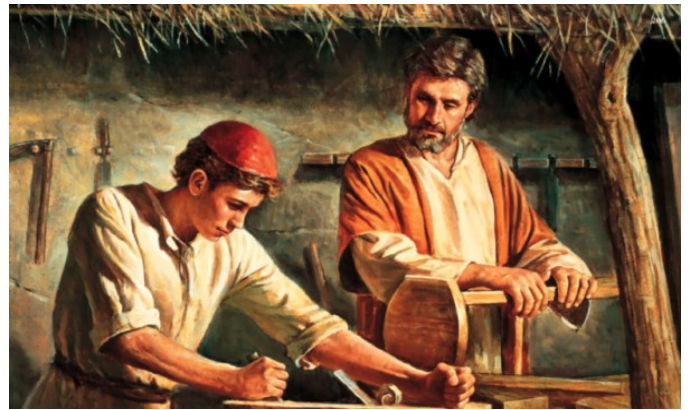

Dates: April 15, 29, May 13, 20*, June 10, 24 (summer break).

Dates with * are makeup dates.

Facilitators: Carol Ketcham, Anita Luccari.

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Please take some time look through the back pages of the bulletin! It features many local businesses (and often the work of parishioners) and the good work they do in our community. We have parishioners who do everything from car detailing to car mechanics to lacrosse training to taking care of pets. Take a look and learn more!

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? Not only that, our parish receives a part of the advertising commission. So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

Also, if your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist - most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area - receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of families in the area with information about your business.

For more information on how to advertise in our bulletin, call The Church Bulletin Company at 631-249-4994
