Roman Catholic Church

Inspired by our Patron, St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church in Center Moriches seeks to bring the light of Christ to a world in need, so that as Christ has done, we may also do. From the celebration of the Eucharist, we are sent forth to serve God and neighbor through ministries of formation, education and outreach.

The Way, The Truth, The Life

WHERE ARE WE GOING?

Dear Parish Family:

The first line in today's Gospel, at various times, causes me to look up to the heavens with an eye roll. "Do not let your hearts be troubled." Seriously? Do you not see what is happening here?

It is a Gospel reading that is chosen frequently for funerals. I often feel the same in some of those moments. In this time of grief, "do not let your hearts be troubled" can seem like some simple, trite line of comfort.

Thomas feels it too, no? Jesus gives us this beautiful reflection and assurance. Don't worry. I am the way and truth and the life. Thomas isn't totally buying in yet. My paraphrase: "What do you mean? We have no idea where you're going. How can we know the way?"

I feel a lot like Thomas these days. My prayer, and even at times my work, is often sharing some of those feelings. Where are we going Lord? What is going to come from all of this? What do you want of me?

How will we be as a country and world? Will we lose our focus on the gift of life for the sake of material security? How many more will be in need because of illness, unemployment, abandonment, marginalization? Will we ever see a time when unity might really happen in our world and our country as people start to take their sides in one debate or another?

How about our Church? Even now, some of the same old divisions are creeping in. How are we going to come together? How different will our celebration of the Eucharist be in the months ahead and when? When will be able to offer the sacrament of reconciliation regularly again? How are we going to keep our focus on mission—of coming to know Christ more deeply so we can bring his Light to the world? How can we care for those who cannot get here now and those who will not be able to be here in the future because of this pandemic? What about the increasing need among us while the resources are a little more limited than they used to be?

I pray the worries my worries about young people. Virtual learning is working but there are vital components missing in the teaching relationship. There is a powerful strain on families and teachers and students (and principals :)! How do Catholic schools—who are doing an exceptional job in these days—come through this? What will September look like?

I see the struggle in myself and in others. I see the longing for people to no longer be distant and feel it in myself. I see the risks of isolation for people young and old. I hear the strain these times put on families and friendships and relationships. I have encountered the agony caused by pain and violence and abuse in these days. I hear regularly of the anxiety and financial strain on so many. I see the pain of a complicated grief that can't be ministered to in our regular ways.

Indeed, the Lord and I are having a good go around in these days.

Perhaps, like you, sometimes I just want to avoid the conversation. Yet, I find myself drawn to it. Sometimes it's when I go to lock the Church at night or just sitting quietly in Seton Chapel when going from one building to another or sitting early in the morning in my room in the Rectory or walking alone in the community.

I don't get answers. Neither did Thomas.

There was no plan, no working group, no commission to discern the way. It's pretty simple, "Follow me. You'll be OK. I'm all you need."

Start there and together we can figure out the rest.

Then, I'm a little better able to see. A family reaches out and says "Come to our 'Social Distance Around the Fire' gathering tonight, Fr. John. The phone rings and there is time to talk to someone. The third grade in the school donates tons of meat so we can serve the poor this week (picture to the left). A friend reaches out at just the right time. A silence brings peace.

No answers to the questions. They are signs of consolation that the Lord is walking with us showing us the way, the truth, and the life. Let's keep prayingpray for each other in these days.

GUIDED IN RIGHT PATHS

Thanks to all who came to pray with us last Sunday. It was a morning of true grace and blessing in the life of our parish as we encountered the Blessed Sacrament and one another. Indeed, the Lord is our Shepherd, there is nothing we shall want! (Thank you, too, for your incredible generosity towards Ernie's Place, our Food Pantry ministry.)

On Friday, we had a bittersweet day! We learned that we will not return to our school building for the remainder of the year. Then we all gathered together for our student and family caravan as they were greeted by each of their teachers. Students and families also brought food for Ernie's Place. ## Nurses Day

OLQA celebrated Nurses' Day on Wednesday, May 6, 2020. We congratulated Mrs. Gerri Plechner, OLQA's School Nurse for being honored as the Suffolk County School Nurse Association's Zone 2 winner of the Excellence in School Nursing Award. Mrs. Plechner (pictured to the right) is an incredible gift to our school and parish community. (She's also a regular volunteer in the Street Ministry!) In addition, we welcomed Mrs. Carol Gordon (pictured to the left), a nurse from Good Samaritan Hospital in West Islip, to tell us about the mission of nursing in a Catholic hospital. God bless our nurses and who bring healing to those in need!

Financial donations or gift cards to places such as the Dollar Store or Walmart are most welcome too. Checks may be made payable to St. John the Evangelist and donations can be left in the Parish Office.

Make a Scrub Cap!

Check out the following video for a step-by-step explanation: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mb9SnhhdcFM>

*Loving God, as a mother gives life
and nourishment to her children,
so you watch over your Church.
Bless these women,
that they may be strengthened as
Christian mothers.
Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.
Grant that we,
their sons and daughters,
may honor them always
with a spirit of profound respect.
Through Christ our Lord.
R. Amen.*

9 a.m. - Prayer for those infected with the virus and all who are ill

Lord, place your healing hand on those who suffer illness. Bring them to full health and ease their anxious hearts. May our prayer and the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary encourage them that they are not alone. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN

12 p.m. - Prayer for health care workers and those attending to the sick

Lord, we are ennobled by those who put their lives at risk in caring for the sick. Keep them safe and embolden them when they are weary. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN

3 p.m. - Prayer for first responders and essential workers

Lord, we pray for those who run to danger to keep us safe and those who serve the common good. Embrace them with your mantle of protection and comfort the fears of their families. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN

6 p.m. - Prayer for people of every nation and their leaders

Lord, the pandemic opens our eyes to see each other as brothers and sisters in one human family. We pray for people of every nation and their leaders, asking that they be inspired to seek the good of all and quell the voices of division. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN

9 p.m. - Prayer for those who have died today

Lord, we grieve the passing of our sisters and brothers who have died this day. We commend them to your tender mercy, confident that nothing, not even death, will separate us from your love. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN.
