

St. John the Evangelist

Roman Catholic Church

Inspired by our Patron, St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church in Center Moriches seeks to bring the light of Christ to a world in need, so that as Christ has done, we may also do. From the celebration of the Eucharist, we are sent forth to serve God and neighbor through ministries of formation, education and outreach.

REASONS FOR HOPE!

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope. 1 Peter 3:15

REASON FOR HOPE!

The Art and Environment ministry invites all SJE parishioners to partake in a special project called

ANCHORS of HOPE

"We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure."

- Hebrews 6:19

As we pray with the second reading from Mass this weekend and reflect on the journey of our parish since 2017, we are inviting everyone to share with us their REASONS FOR HOPE! During these days we all are holding on to words of hope and encouragement. We now have the chance to share our hopeful messages with one another. There are THREE ways for parishioners to share their message of HOPE:

1)E-mail your message of HOPE to hope@sjecm.org.

If you wish, share a longer reflection on hope so we can share it on SJE Social Media. (No names will be used!)

OR

2)Fill out the attached sheet and drop off in the drop box in the fellowship area marked "Anchors of Hope."

OR

3)Paper anchors will be available in the church fellowship area and Seton Chapel during the scheduled times for private prayer. (check bulletin for times) We invite you to visit and write your message of HOPE on the anchors and place it in the drop box.

Our words of HOPE will be united and presented once again in a very special way on Pentecost Sunday (May 31). JESUS IS OUR HOPE!

If you cannot email your reason for hope to hope@sjecm.org, please fill out the form below. You can mail it to the Parish Office or drop it off in the Fellowship Area or in the lobby of Seton Chapel.

My reasons for HOPE are:

SIGNS OF EASTER HOPE!

Reason for Hope

HOPE@SJECM.ORG

Dear Parish Family:

In Rhode Island. Preparing to preside at a wedding. Phone calls and text messages back and forth. The call from my mom, "Where are you?" Presiding at the wedding. Rushing to a ferry to only wish it could go faster. Driving quickly (one could say) to return here. Entering a darkened and soot filled church destroyed by mental illness and violence.

This upcoming Tuesday will make three years since the tragedy that shook our parish community. It happened on a Friday and the readings we pray with today are the readings the Church called us to pray with three years ago. The line from today's second reading sort of became our motto— reason for hope!

Maybe we need that line from Scripture even more in these days.

Life as we know it has changed and probably will not return to what it once was prior to these days of pandemic. This is not only impacting our parish but our community, our country and our world. We are grieving and mourning. At times, we are fearful and anxious. We find ourselves exhausted yet we are not "doing" all that much. We seek routine yet it seems elusive. We want this to be over yet we are realistic about the impact on the gift of life. We can so easily fall into darkness and despair.

So what is the reason for our hope? Simply, it is the Paschal Mystery. It is the dying and rising of Jesus Christ. It is the outpouring of his love and mercy that is our reason for hope, the hope that never disappoints (Romans 5:5).

Do you remember those early days after May 19, 2017? I do. I remember a community coming together. I remember Mass in the Auditorium ready to go within hours. I remember an outpouring of care and concern for the person who carried out the acts that destroyed the church building. I remember so many signs of hope in what was so seemingly dark. We gave witness to those many reasons for that hope by our prayer, our presence, our response.

We have great reason to hope in these days too! Do you see the signs? Can you give some reasons? We cannot lose sight of those! Do you see it in the desire for the Eucharist spoken of by so many even by some who may have taken it for granted? Do you see it in the outpouring of generosity and support for the poor and the vulnerable? Do you see it in the commitment of teachers and catechists forming young people in these days? Do you see it in the response to opportunities to prayer and learning offered on SJE Social Media in these days? Yes, there are many reasons for hope. There are many reasons not to lose hope! (Take a look at the front cover of the bulletin.)

As we enter in these final days of Easter and long for the feast day of Pentecost, take a look around and see the many reasons for hope. Can we ask you a favor? Can you read over page 2 and share with our parish some of your reasons for hope? They may be reasons for hope in these days or your reasons overall in your own life? Send them to hope@sjecm.org or return them in the ways noted on page 2.

So it's been quite the road since May 19, 2017. There were many reasons for our hope in those days. May our walking through the dying and rising then continue to inspire us in the days and weeks ahead. Please say a prayer for me!

Featherman

P.S. Beginning today (Sunday), we will offer a third Mass via Facebook Live each Sunday night at 5:30 p.m. We will also celebrate this additional Mass on the Solemnity of the Ascension this Thursday.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

Signs of the Spirit Weekend

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Sunday, May 31, 2020 + 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Prayer and Eucharistic Blessing

On the weekend of May 31, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Pentecost, the conclusion of the season of Easter. As we seek reason for our hope, we seek God's blessing in the Blessed Sacrament and the presence of the community of faith gathered. More details next weekend!

We extend a SPECIAL INVITATION to our First Holy Communion and Confirmation candidates and their families to come and pray with us on this very special feast day.

This Week...

Novena to the Holy Spirit on SJE SOCIAL MEDIA!!!

The Novena to the Holy Spirit is the oldest of all the novenas as it was first made at the direction of Our Lord when He sent His apostles back to Jerusalem to await the coming of the Holy Spirit on the first Pentecost. It is still the only novena officially prescribed by the Church. We will be offering reflections via SJE Social Media. Novena to the Holy Spirit books will be available at the back of the Church and in Seton Chapel.

We continue to pray for the coming of the Holy Spirit in the week ahead.

Solemnity of the Ascension

Masses celebrated via Live Stream

- Wednesday evening 5 p.m.*
- Thursday morning – 8 a.m.*

Mass Book 2020

Many of you have reached out about Mass intentions. I want to let you know a few things:

1) We offer two Masses a day here as a parish.

- a) The first Mass is offered at 8 a.m. via Livestream.
- b) The second Mass, at the present time, is offered by one of the priests privately.
- c) In general, priests celebrate Mass each day. If not, they usually concelebrate at a Mass.

2) We are going to add a Sunday evening Mass beginning this weekend. So our Weekend Mass schedule will be Saturday evening 5 p.m., Sunday morning 8 a.m. and Sunday evening at 5:30 p.m.

- a) Existing Mass intentions will be assigned between the Saturday evening, Sunday morning and Sunday evening Masses.
- b) If you have requested an intention to be prayed for at Mass, you have been or will be contacted.
- c) The Church will be locked at 4 p.m. on Sundays beginning this Sunday.

3) We will now "Open the Mass Book" for the rest of 2020.

- a) Sunday Mass Intentions: After July 1st, intentions will be taken for six Sunday (including Saturday evening) Masses. (2 on Saturday evening; 3 on Sunday morning; 1 on Sunday evening)
 - i. PLEASE NOTE: We will NOT be able to give exact times for the Sunday morning Masses at this time. Again, because of precautions related to distance, cleaning, etc. it is likely we will need to have more time in between Masses. It is just not clear at this time how that will look.
 - ii. We will also need to account for baptisms as well as some weddings.
- b) Daily Mass Intentions will continue to be offered Monday – Friday and on Saturday mornings. For now, the first Mass will be at 8 a.m. and the second one privately. Once we are able to celebrate Daily Mass publicly, those times will be announced.

To arrange for a Mass intention, contact Maria Sikora at 631.878.0009 or e-mail to rectory@sjecm.org.

Self Help Support Groups

Please refer to NA and AA literature to determine the status of meetings here at St. John the Evangelist and elsewhere in these days.

SJE STREET MINISTRY

As of today, April 29, 2020, the Street Ministry will attempt to serve those in need. We are consistently in need of donations. These donations can be left in the lobby of Seton Chapel and the Main Entrance of the Church.

The Street Ministry is continuously serving 60-90 individuals and families every Thursday night, many of whom are homeless. We are tremendously grateful for all of the donations that continue to allow us to do this work. We are in need of the following:

Jelly + Blankets + Disposable razors + Women's underwear/socks Quart zip lock bags + Toilet paper + (Dollar store) feminine hygiene pads

Financial donations or gift cards to places such as the Dollar Store or Walmart are most welcome too. Checks may be made payable to St. John the Evangelist and donations can be left in the Parish Office.

Thank you for your support of Parish Social Ministry, especially in these days.

PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY

THRIFT SHOP CLOSED!

Just a friendly reminder that we are unable to accept any clothing donations at this time, as the thrift shop is closed and there is no one to go through the bins. Thank you for understanding. Please spread the word!

SJE SHOPPING SERVICE

In an effort to better serve the members of our parish who are uncertain or unable to go out to shopping for basic essentials (food, pharmacy, etc.), SJE Parish Social Ministry has a crew of volunteers ready to assist with shopping.

All you need to do is go to our website... Or use this link:

<https://forms.gle/bVsfiuAyjEaR6ZyQ7> if you are viewing the bulletin online.

If you're not able to fill out the form online, call our PSM office by dialing 631.878.0009 and press 4.

Parishioners and friends who are customers at Ernie's Place and those who are not are eligible for this service.

If you are able to help by shopping for others, please email Alex Finta at afinta@sjecm.org.

CHICKEN MINISTRY

As of this time, egg crates are no longer needed! As the need arises again, we will publish that in the bulletin.

Ernie's Place Update

At present, Ernie's Place is stocked beyond capacity! Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! While we do have storage, we are always concerned by "Sell by" dates, etc. Please pay attention in the weeks ahead as we anticipate welcoming more guests and will need to re-stock our shelves.

For now, if you wish to support our work, please consider making a financial donation that will be directed to Parish Social Ministry that will be to good use in the weeks ahead.

PRAYING AT HOME...With the Church!

PRAYING FOR ONE ANOTHER IN THESE DAYS

Each day we ring the church bells at certain hours. They are a call to prayer for different groups of people impacted by the pandemic. Whether you can hear the bells or not, please consider taking a minute to stop and pray each day.

9 a.m. - Prayer for those infected with the virus and all who are ill

Lord, place your healing hand on those who suffer illness. Bring them to full health and ease their anxious hearts. May our prayer and the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary encourage them that they are not alone. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN

12 p.m. - Prayer for health care workers and those attending to the sick

Lord, we are ennobled by those who put their lives at risk in caring for the sick. Keep them safe and embolden them when they are weary. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN

3 p.m. - Prayer for first responders and essential workers

Lord, we pray for those who run to danger to keep us safe and those who serve the common good. Embrace them with your mantle of protection and comfort the fears of their families. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN

6 p.m. - Prayer for people of every nation and their leaders

Lord, the pandemic opens our eyes to see each other as brothers and sisters in one human family. We pray for people of every nation and their leaders, asking that they be inspired to seek the good of all and quell the voices of division. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN

9 p.m. - Prayer for those who have died today

Lord, we grieve the passing of our sisters and brothers who have died this day. We commend them to your tender mercy, confident that nothing, not even death, will separate us from your love. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN.

(Videos remain on Facebook after the live broadcast.)

While we will not have a Sunday collection, we rely on your generosity in these days. Please visit www.sjecm.org and click "Give Online" or mail your envelopes to the office. Thank you to those who are already doing this so we can continue to pray and serve in these days.

You may also text SJECM to 555-888 to make your offering.

All parishioners are asked to make an Act of Spiritual Communion each day they cannot attend the Mass, even when watching online.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,

Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you.

Amen.

Come and know God's healing of the sick!

Please contact the Rectory (631.878.0009) for a priest to celebrate the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick with the seriously ill or those preparing for surgery. If this is a serious medical emergency, please dial 631.878.0009 and press 9 or dial 516.220.0987. Your priests are here to serve you, most especially in these times.

May 17, 2020

Come and know God's mercy!

As per the directives of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, the Sacrament of Reconciliation is not to be celebrated in any scheduled or communal way out of concern for your health and safety. Those in need of the sacrament should contact the Parish Office. If there is a case of emergency and necessity for the sacrament of Confession, please reach out to the parish – 631.878.0009 and one of our priests will return your call as quickly as we can. YOU DO NOT NEED TO LEAVE YOUR NAME. Simply leave a phone # and a priest will return your call. The priest on duty will set a time to meet you in the church building to hear your confession (face to face or behind the screen). There are not and will not be any scheduled times for confessions in the near future.

Come to the quiet!

The church building and Seton Chapel (located in the white convent building) are open from Monday—Thursday: 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Friday: 9 a.m. to 2:30 and 4:30 to 7 p.m.

* NOTE CHANGE Saturday and Sunday: 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

for private prayer. No devotions or communal prayers are scheduled or are to take place during these times.

All who visit must wash their hands in the bathroom before entering the worship space and keep a safe social distance from others.

No more than ten people may be in either space at any time. As this situation develops, this may change. Please follow SJE Social Media for the latest updates.

Come and spend some time with the Lord!

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament is postponed until further notice.

Come pray the Liturgy of the Hours!

The communal celebration of the Liturgy of the Hours is postponed until further notice. Those who wish to pray may visit univiersalis.com or you can click here for Ibreviary or scan the QR code to the left.

You may also download the app for your iphone or android device. Those wish to pray may pick up a Christian Prayer book from the lobby of Seton Chapel to keep in these days.

Come to know Mary, Our Lady Queen of Apostles

The communal praying of the Rosary is postponed until further. Each person who reads this is asked to pray the Rosary daily. Extra Rosary beads are available at the doors of the Church and Seton Chapel. (Please clean them before use though they are new.)
