MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH and MAY CROWNING

This Monday,
May 21, 2018

5:00 p.m. + Seton Chapel

This past March, Pope Francis announced that the Mary "Mother of the Church" feast would be celebrated on the Monday following Pentecost. This year, it falls tomorrow, May 21, 2018. In the decree announcing this new feast, Pope Francis desires a devotion to encourage the growth of the maternal sense of the Church in the pastors, religious and faithful, as well as a growth of genuine Marian piety."

On the first year of this feast, we will gather for a special liturgy in Seton Chapel followed by the annual May Crowning. Hospitality will follow on the Convent deck.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Fruits + Funded Feet and Formed

More Signs of the Spirit

Dear Parish Family:

Today, we celebrate Pentecost. With this feast, the season of Easter draws to a close and, I hope like the disciples in the locked room, we start to move out even further to bring the power of the Spirit to all we meet. One of the reading options for today's liturgy is St. Paul's Letter to the Galatians. If you need a little checklist to see how "Holy Spirit filled" you might be in these days, see what St. Paul says:

"In contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Galatians 5:22-23).

The truth? As I pray with this week's readings, I'm not as a spirit filled as I know the Lord is calling. I could be more fruitful in my presence and practice, in my mission and ministry. From the Acts of the Apostles, we know the early disciples weren't perfect when they left on that first Pentecost. Same for me. Maybe the same for you. Consider those signs that St. Paul gives us to consider. Maybe it's all too much to take on. Perhaps one stands out that is most in need of work. It might be one way to see the graces and blessings of Easter all year long.

Another way to continue these graces and blessings is to make use of FORMED. This past April, the priests of the diocese were invited by Bishop Barres to consider using FORMED in our parishes. For the first year, a grant has been provided to absorb a large part of the cost of the program. Even before this meeting some parishioners had spoken of FORMED and last Fall, Fr. Michael also brought it up as something to consider. I hope you will consider using FORMED. A multitude of Catholic resources is now at your fingertips and mine! Maybe there is an area of theology or ministry you wanted to learn about but never had the time? Perhaps you're not sure what the Church is teaching on this issue or that one? This would be a good place to turn. Let's give it a shot as a parish and see if one sign of the fruit of the Spirit might be you and I getting FORMED in the year ahead. (Look on page 2 of this week's bulletin and for more information in the weeks ahead!)

One sign of the many graces and blessings of the Spirit at work at St. John's has been the generosity of so many over the past year through the 2017 Summer Appeal, the Catholic Ministries Appeal and most especially through the Fund a Foot Campaign. We would be in pretty dire straights with the church building if it had not been because of your generosity and faithfulness to the Fund a Foot campaign. Because of all the funded feet we have been able to improve our lighting system, add stained glass marking this time and beautify our church building, install a new state of the art sound system, repair our piano, increase lighting outside of the church building, make some needed parking lot repairs, repair the damage to the cupola from recent storms, examine ways to increase the number of security cameras and more (and more to come!). Without your generosity, this would never have been possible. We would likely have to deplete our savings and would find ourselves in a perilous situation with the reconstruction work of the church building.

I can find myself so often filled with fear related to many aspects of this building project — when will this get done or this product arrive or this person respond, etc. Fortunately, because of your generosity with those funded feet, that lack of fear has allowed good fruit to prosper. If I'm honest, like the early disciples, the fear related to certain aspects of ministry can leave me pretty frozen and not just when it comes to finances. Your generosity and gentleness, your kindness and love make a great difference in so many ways. Great signs of the Spirit at work. Thank you!

Please pray for me.

FROM THE SEMINARIAN'S DESK

About a month ago, I received the wonderful news that I would be going to St John the Evangelist, Center Moriches, for a pastoral year. I found this information both shocking and exciting as I have heard so many wonderful things about our parish over the past few years. The first time that the parish really stuck in my heart and mind was last summer when the tragedy occurred. Since then, this community has been in my prayers, especially since hearing the news of my assignment. As is often the case with priests and seminarians, I wanted to learn more about the assignment I had been given. The first text I received after getting the news was from Paul, who told me how blessed I was to be assigned to St John's. He has graciously told me about how wonderful of a community St John the Evangelist is, and I look forward to experiencing and learning from everyone throughout this year.

I was raised in Hicksville at Holy Family Parish, attending the elementary school and later Holy Trinity High School. Throughout my high school years, I was involved with various basketball teams, the Boy Scouts, theater, student government, and campus ministry. As it became time to select what college I would attend, I felt in my heart a call to the priesthood. Once I graduated, I entered Cathedral College Seminary while taking classes at St John's University. Upon graduation, I entered St Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers. In these years, I have taught religious education at various parishes, served in several apostolates, and most recently was assigned to serve in Infant Jesus, Port Jefferson last summer. I have now completed my second year of theology and look forward to serving and learning here in Center Moriches.

A beautiful thing about our Catholic faith is that we firmly believe that God acts in history. He did not divorce himself from the creation that He made. In other words, the Holy Spirit guides us, especially through the ministry of the Church by virtue of our baptism. As we celebrate this Pentecost Sunday, please pray that the Holy Spirit may inspire and form me in my ministry to you in this coming year; and I will pray for each of you that the Holy Spirit may guide you in your daily lives.

God Bless you and I look forward to meeting you.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS The Most Holy Trinity

Reading I: Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40

Moses tells the people of the one true God.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 33:4-5, 6, 9, 18-19, 20, 22

Second Reading: Romans 8:14-17

We are heirs with the Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

Jesus sends forth the Apostles with the promise to be with them always.

Discussion Questions

1. Moses heard the voice of God from a burning bush. Where do you hear the voice of God? In friends ... the poor ... newspapers ... Pope Francis ... nature ... novels ... music? In your heart?

2. The Holy Spirit was put in our hearts that "we might understand the things freely given by God" (1 Cor. 2:12). Is the Trinity one of those things? But how can this be since the Trinity is a mystery?
