A Community Remembers and Responds

Dear Parish Family:

Last Friday, many of us came together for a powerful evening of prayer as we marked one year since the tragedies in the church building. The celebration of the Eucharist brings us to the encounter with the Paschal Mystery. I am so grateful for the presence of local agencies that support the mentally ill and their families who prayed with us and offered resources.

Fr. Michael brought us great hope and reassurance in his preaching last Friday (see box below). Speaking of his visit with Pope Francis, I am mindful of his words in most recent Apostolic Exhortation, "Rejoice and Be Glad". He writes:

Growth in holiness is a journey in community, side by side with others. We see this in some holy communities. From time to time, the Church has canonized entire communities that lived the Gospel heroically or offered to God the lives of all their members...living or working alongside others is surely a path of spiritual growth." "You are living with others in order to be fashioned and tried". (114)

I hope and pray that the days ahead will continue to see us walking side by side with one another and with Jesus. In that walking, may we continue to grow well on the path of spiritual growth.

Featherman

Follow up from Fr. Michael's homily last Friday at the Mass of Remembrance

About a month ago, I had one of the most incredible experiences of my life. I was able to go with Msgr. Vlaun and a small group from Telecare to Rome. While we were over there, we wound up having a private audience with Pope Francis, which lasted about 5 minutes. During this meeting I was able to speak one-on-one with the pope. I told Pope Francis about what happened in our parish about a month before my arrival, how a tormented man set our church on fire and took his life. I told him that we are reconstructing our church and then I asked him for a favor.

It is a custom for the pope to trade his white zucchetto (skull cap) with those who bring their own to him. I asked the pope if he would trade his zucchetto with me so that we could put one that he physically wore into our renovated church. As I was speaking with the Holy Father, he looked me in the eyes, his expression grew serious and I began to get emotional. He prayerfully took the zucchetto I had brought with me, placed it on his head, spent a moment of prayer with his eyes closed, and handed it back to me.

I am happy to announce that we will be putting this zucchetto into our newly renovated church building as a tangible sign of the pope's spiritual closeness to our parish. In the midst of this past year, filled with great pain and frustration, we have been given as a parish family so many reasons to hope. It is my prayer that this sign of hope, given to us by the pope himself, may serve as a reminder of that personal renovation and renewal we are always called to in our own journey with the Lord.

REBUILD + REPAIR + RESTORE

Your people shall rebuild the ancient ruins; the foundations from ages past you shall raise up; "Repairer of the breach," they shall call you, "Restorer of ruined dwellings."

A New Organ For St. John's!

Following the fire that occurred about a year ago, our 1998 Rodgers Organ was thoroughly damaged from smoke, and soot immersion. The organ was assessed and deemed a total loss due to lack of new parts, and a cost greater than it's worth.

In November 2017 the Allen Organ Company of Macungie, PA was awarded the contract to build a brand new four manual organ for St John's. This new organ is state of the art, incorporating all current technologies available, with room for expansion in the future. Following modifications to the west wall of the nave above the doors, the main channels were installed last week following the extensive reworking of that structure. The new console is a custom work-of-art with hardwood construction superior to even the finest pipe organ manufacturers. Case color will compliment the new sanctuary colors as well as the wood tone of the Chapel and the pews. Within the church, the new instrument features over forty speakers assuring clarity and detail is achieved to produce a beautiful, immersive pipe organ sound. A movable platform will allow the console to be moved about the church to facilitate different needs for liturgies, concerts, and the like.

Spring Concert

Last Thursday we were delighted to hear our Nursery through 5th grade students sing such wonderful songs under the direction of Ms. Free, our Music Teacher. Our band performed under the direction of Mrs. Statlander, from Paul Effman Music. Parents and family members were also able to view all the great art projects our students have been working on over the past few months with Mrs. Doyle, our Art teacher.

Gardening Day

This past Wednesday, Nursery and Pre-K students worked together to plant flowers. They were thrilled to dig in dirt, find some worms and plant flowers while learning how to make a garden grow.

Get ready for THE MISSION!

Altar bread and wine for the month of May has been donated: In loving memory of Helen R. Langone

The St. Genesius Guild

St. Genesius of Aries is the patron saint of secretaries. He mastered the art of shorthand, transcribing court cases for the archives of the Roman Empire.

We are looking for members of this new guild who will help us out in our parish offices from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Thursday, on Saturday morning and at other times throughout the year.

Interested? Want to learn more? Contact Lisa LoBosco at lisa1962@optonline.net or call at 631-599-8623.

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Many have commented positively about some of the new features of our parish bulletin.

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? Not only that, our parish receives a part of the advertising commission. So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

If your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist—most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area—receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of area families with information about your business.

For more information on how to advertise in our bulletin, call The Church Bulletin Company at 631-249-4994.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Reading I: Exodus 24:3-8

Covenant between God and the Israelites is sealed in blood.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 116:12-13, 15-16, 17-18

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15

We are heirs with the Christ.

Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

Jesus sends forth the Apostles with the promise to be with them always.

Discussion Questions

1. Have you ever made solemn agreements (covenants)? What do they tell you about God's covenant with the Israelites?
2. In John 17:24 Jesus says "I wish that where I am they also may be with me. ..." In today's reading Jesus "entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption." Did he bring us (redeemed now though his love) along into the sanctuary with him?
3. Surely the disciples hadn't understood what Jesus was doing at the Last Supper, but they trusted him absolutely. Where do you go when you need help with trust? Friends? A Priest? Books? To the Holy Spirit?

Stewardship

How can I repay the LORD for all the great good done for me?

- Psalm 116:2

Sunday 5/20/18: $15,657
(2017: $15,466)

Catholic Education: $1,177
(2017: $1,882)

Each week, we provide envelopes for specific areas of parish life. This allows us to focus our stewardship in certain areas. Ideally, we would love to have a strong regular collection which would make these envelopes unnecessary. Next week, please make use of the Parish Improvement envelope and/or place your offering in the regular collection.
