REASONS FOR HOPE

The Light in the Darkness

Last Friday, our community was rocked by the tragic events that took place in the Church. It required us to embrace the reality and to search hard for the light in the midst of the darkness. Our Paschal Candle was a help in allowing us to find that light.

On Saturday, the work of rebuilding and renewal began. Cleaning crews were here early on Saturday morning and have been working ever since. See some of the progress they have made already.

Our next steps will take place after the cleaning has been completed.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

FATHER McDONALD

Dear Parish Family:

“What did I just go through?”

This question was asked by a young adult client of mine who had visited me in my last parish of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. Knowing that a funeral was about to end and so was our session, we walked over to the Sacristy to visit the guest celebrant. I knew what was about to happen to this young man. In a span of about five minutes, he was asked why he was not a priest, told he should consider ending the relationship with the girlfriend (“we can take care of ending that”), told to shave and informed that the person who was speaking to him had celebrated Mass just about every day of his adult life. What did that young man just go through? He had just met Msgr. James M. McDonald.

On Wednesday, I received an encouraging e-mail from Msgr. McDonald about our Mass for Healing on Tuesday. He offered his support and expressed his great love for St. John's. He wrote me, “You will find, however, that there are no people like those of St. John. Even more our Blessed Mother will help you as she did me.” Is anyone surprised that he would write this to me?

Today, at his present parish of St. Aidan's in Williston Park, Msgr. McDonald will celebrate his 50th anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood. Whenever I think of him it is always with great awe and admiration. Our paths have crossed in different ways over the years. He interviewed me before I entered the seminary. We both served at Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Lindenhurst. When I learned of my assignment here, he was one of the first people I called. (Are you surprised that he had already heard about the assignment?)

Whenever we meet each other, there are often jokes back and forth about different things. I have been told that I am a “delayed vocation” and am “renewed” (not sure that's a compliment). Any of you who attended the funerals of Ernie Vigliotta and Ben Pirraglia this past November know what I am speaking about. I often have a few quips back too! But he always, always, always ends with words of admiration, love and support and comments, “You're not that different than me” (I think that's a compliment).

One of the first people I thought of when I learned of last Friday's events was Msgr. McDonald. I know of his love for Center Moriches and all of you at St. John's. I also know how instrumental he was in getting our present building established and, yes, I know it was a challenging time for him and for the parish. My heart broke for him as I realized what was happening to the church building.

My heart broke because I don't think I know a more dedicated and committed priest or human being than Msgr. McDonald. He is often the first to write a note or send an e-mail. If you're sick or in the hospital, he's there regardless of where you might be ailing. Calling others to the sacraments like no other. Supporting people through the annulment process. Celebrating weddings, funerals and baptisms wherever needed. Committed to celebrating the Eucharist like no other. Encouraging vocations anywhere and everywhere. Before he even knew me personally, he saw me a few times as a student and campus minister and asked, “Why aren't you a priest?” While I did not know him well then, he certainly made an impression.

I think of him during these difficult days at St. John's. These days that are, at times, pretty overwhelming. I recall his amazing devotion. I remember his commitment to the people. I even smile at some of his classic lines and phrases. His presence helped to transform this parish through some pretty difficult times. His presence here on Tuesday was a good reminder that, indeed, we're going to be OK!

In Jesus and Mary, let us pray in thanksgiving for the priestly presence of Msgr. McDonald. May today's celebration be a source of joy and celebration for him as it is for the Church.

MORE REASONS FOR HOPE

Starting School Off Right!

We turned, as we do so often, to prayer. After praying in the Auditorium at all of the Masses, we celebrated the Eucharist on Monday with the OLQA School Community. Fr. John presided and Fr. Suglia, and Fr. Frank Pizzarelli, Executive Director of Hope House Ministries, concelebrated the Mass. Following the liturgy, breakfast was provided for all and our students were assisted by our school social worker, Alex Finta, and mental health counselors and caring individuals from Catholic Charities, the Center Moriches School District and Hope House Ministries. Thanks to all who helped to make it a good day for our community.

Bishop Barres Prays with SJE!

Our community came together to take another step on the journey of healing and renewal. Bishop Barres presided at a Mass for Healing at St. John's Tuesday night. The day involved many hands and hearts from moving chairs, preparing music and sound, serving at liturgy, and arranging time for fellowship and support. We have many reasons to be grateful.

WHAT'S HAPPENING @ SJE!

More Reasons for Hope!

Community Meal

Our Community Meal was cancelled due to last Friday's events in the Church. However, two of our guests did not get the word. No problem here! Alex Finta, our Associate Director of Parish Social Ministry, grabbed some pizzas and spent the afternoon with our guests. More reason for our hope!

Novena to the Holy Spirit

The Novena to the Holy Spirit is the oldest of all the novenas as it was first made at the direction of Our Lord when He sent His apostles back to Jerusalem to await the coming of the Holy Spirit on the first Pentecost. It is still the only novena officially prescribed by the Church. Join our parish seminarian, Paul Clores, as he leads us in the Novena to the Holy Spirit.

All are welcome to join us in the convent for one or all sessions.

Novena booklets will be provided.

Join the Catholic Action Network

The Catholic Action Network, the official voice of the Catholic Church in our state, was formed by the Catholic Bishops of New York. The Catholic Action Network website is a powerful tool that is designed to educate and inform us on issues concerning important topics such as Religious Freedom, Respect Life issues, Marriage and Family, Human Services, Criminal Services and Healthcare.

All parishioners should visit this website and sign up to receive important alerts and reminders about writing letters and sending information to local legislative leaders. It is very simple.

1. Go to www.nyscatholic.org.
2. Click on the "take action" tab at the top.

3. Then, click on "Join the Catholic Action Network" and follow the prompts from there.

PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY

MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION

This ministry reaches out in a variety of ways to those who have recently faced the death of someone they love. The wonderful women and men who offer their time in this ministry—as well as our office staff—do a wonderful job in ministering to those in need.

We are in need of more help as we seek to grow the Ministry of Consolation. We are in need of parishioners to come forward as:

Liturgical Ministers (Greeters, Servers, Extraordinary Ministers and Readers)

Cakebakers (willing to make a small dessert for a family who has suffered a loss),

Worship Aid Makers (able to update our Mass program for each funeral, involves light computer and possibly copier use),

Organizers (able to assign tasks to those who have offered their time), and Companions (meeting with a family who has suffered a loss to assist with choosing readings, hymns, etc. and being present on the day of the funeral).

If you're able to help or want to find out more information, contact Fr. John at jsureau@sjecm.org.

Prison Families Anonymous

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me."

Matthew 25:35-36

Prison Families Anonymous welcomes anyone who now has, or ever had, a loved one involved in the juvenile or criminal justice system. At meetings, we share our experience, strength and hope. Here we offer information and assistance in navigating the criminal justice system. We encourage members to exchange phone numbers and when possible to carpool to upstate prisons.

Prison Families Anonymous (PFA)

Life becomes more difficult and stressful for family and friends when a loved one becomes incarcerated. Relationships and responsibilities can become strained and the dynamics within the family often change dramatically. The PFA Support Group provides a safe, non-judgmental place where those in similar situations can connect with each other. It provides compassion, support and information to family members during their very difficult times.

Do you want to meet some new families in our parish?

Do you want to reach out to other families who may not be so involved?

Do you like to do good things for other people?

Catholic families need to come together to not only support one another but to form our young people and bring the Gospel to the world. Would you consider joining SJE's new Family Life Ministry? This ministry will work to create activities and experiences for families of all shapes and sizes, but especially those with younger children. This is a great ministry for active moms and dads but also one that needs the wisdom of awesome grandparents too! All are welcome.

Our next meeting will take place on TUESDAY, June 6, 2017 @ 7 p.m. +

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS Pentecost Sunday

Reading I: Acts 2:1-11

The Spirit comes to the Apostles as tongues of fire.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3B-7, 12-13

We are one body with different gifts.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

Jesus breathes the Holy Spirit into the Apostles.

Discussion Questions

1. Every nation was confused and amazed, because everyone understood in his or her language what the apostles were saying. If you were completely open to the Holy Spirit, would you have a deeper understanding of all that you hear? Was the miracle in the speaking or the hearing? How does the Holy Spirit use the miracle of hearing with you?

2. "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." Were Vivaldi and Michelangelo given gifts solely for their own pleasure? For whose benefit were they given? What are your gifts and for what benefit were they given to you and those around you?

3. Jesus "breathed" on them. How does this relate to Genesis 2:7, "God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life?" What is the significance for you? How important is the Holy Spirit to you?

Low Gluten Host Available

Low Gluten Hosts (less than .01% gluten content) are available for those with Celiac Disease who cannot receive Holy Communion using the usual bread. If you need to receive Holy Communion using a low-gluten host, please stop in the sacristy before Mass to discuss this with the priest and see if this will be acceptable for you and/or your child. If you cannot receive the low-gluten host, we can offer a separate chalice for you. We will be happy to accommodate you if we can. Please let us know.

OUTSIDE Art and Environment

What can I do here?

Many have commented on the beauty of the Church for the Easter season. How blessed are we with a wonderful Art and Environment (A & E) Ministry to make our worship space so beautiful. Now, we want to take work on some of the outside grounds of the Church. We have a local landscaper/gardener who is willing to assist us but would need dedicated people—like you! - to help maintain and manage plants and bushes, etc.

So do you have a green thumb (or are willing to work with someone who does)? Then Outside A & E might be the ministry for you. Please contact Fr. John (631.878.0009/jsureau@sjecm.org) so we can form the group and get going on this project for the good of our parish. This is a great project for families and friends to work on together!
