SIGNS OF EASTER HOPE!

Bridging to Mary, Mother of the Church

MARIAN IMAGES AND LINKS

Dear Parish Family:

On Friday, the Church in the United States and in Canada renewed its consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary under the title of Mary, Mother of the Church.

It has brought forth a lot of images in preparation for Friday (I'm finishing this on Wednesday.)

This past summer I joined with many of you in the Preparation for the Total Consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary. I found it enlightening, challenging, overwhelming, demanding, and inspiring all at the same time.

I thought of that experience this week as we celebrated the feast of St. Louis de Montfort. In the morning prayer with the school, we prayed together with Fr. Frank Pizzarelli, SMM, the Founder and Executive Director of Hope House Ministries. He spoke about what drew him to be a Montfort Missionary and about St. Louis de Montfort's passion about calling others to Marian devotion.

I think about the image of Pope Francis praying at the Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome before he leaves and after he returns to Rome.

I see the dedication of those committed praying the Miraculous Medal Novena.

I think of the incredible devotion of the women and men who pray every Thursday afternoon as part of the Legion of Mary and then go forth to carry out many, many good works.

I am challenged whenever I see that statue of Our Lady of Lourdes in the IHM Meeting Room in the convent building. It is a reminder of my home parish that formed me. Hidden away but a constant challenge to try to heal.

I am in awe of the living saints so committed to praying the Rosary after Daily Mass here at SJE.

I empathize with those who come to light a candle by the Blessed Mother statue in the Church. They ask the help of a Mother who understands.

I am comforted by the statue of Mary that hangs unassumingly in Seton Chapel, quietly looking down on those who look toward it.

I think of a priest - a little more outwardly radical than most—who encouraged me in a difficult times, "You're going to be surprised hearing this from me but ask Mary for some help. Trust me."

I am grateful to know a young person in the school who was struggling with a lot of fear and worry. On a tough day, I gave him the Rosary beads from the Holy Land that I use that were in my pocket. (I had a duplicate set in my room.) He would be sure to show me whenever he walked by, usually with a smile and some peace. I miss that.

These images come to mind as we enter the season of May—the month of Mary. It is not a month for us to focus on a devotion to Mary. Rather, like all devotions it leads us not to her, but to her Son.

Our prayer seeking Mary's help is not limited to time or space or places or statues or locations. Like our relationship with Jesus, it is not prevented from growth, devotion, friendship or dialogue by the limitations of this present moment. I sort of think it was similar for Mary, at times, too. How often was Mary not with Jesus on his journeys? Yet, did she fail to pray for him or long for him or desire for him to be closer to her? I don't think so. As we long for Jesus in the celebration of the Mass and in our physical presence of one another, let us unite that longing with Mary and the images of our own hearts.

In a particular way, I ask you to make an effort to pray the Rosary every day in this month of May in a special way seeking God's help for the strength and courage we need in these days of pandemic. (You can pray every day with us on Zoom. See page 4.) Pope Francis has asked us to pray two additional prayers at the end of the Rosary in May. They are found on page 9).

Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us!

Please, if you can, say a prayer for me.

SEEDS OF EASTER HOPE!

HOLY GROUND GARDEN PROJECT

As we move into the Easter season, we want your help in beautifying our parish grounds, particularly in these days. This way, when we are ready to be open and in full operation, our grounds will look even more beautiful than they do already!

Here's how you and your family or group of friends or ministry can help! We are asking each family, ministry, individual or group of friends to begin taking care of a part of our parish's grounds by planting and maintaining that area for our parish and school!

It's as easy as 1...2...3...4...5...

1. Talk to your family or group of friends!
2. Decide where you would ideally like to have a piece of the land (Church, School, The Barn, Rectory, Convent). This year, we want to add spaces by the Thrift Shop and the Stations of the Cross (behind the school). Please understand we may not be able to meet everyone's request for a space!
3. Consider if there is someone you would like to plant in honor of—perhaps a member of your family or a parishioner or member of the school community—living or deceased.
4. Turn in this form or email (even better) your response to Sarah Dern at sdern11@gmail.com no later than May 3, 2020.
5. Look for directions and a specific spot assignment in the weeks ahead. With precautions in place for safety and security, we are uncertain of the exact date families will be able to come on the grounds. For now, we want to get as many set up as possible. Once we receive an all clear or permission for limited planting to happen, we will contact you via phone or email.

Yes! We are looking to plant some seeds (and plants and flowers) of hope) in the Easter season!

MORNING PRAYER AND GUESTS!

Each day, students at OLQA gather for Prayer and Morning Announcements with Fr. John. This helps our students get up and also links us more closely as a community. Each day, we welcome a special guest to be part of the prayer. On Tuesday, April 28th, we welcomed Fr. Francis Pizzarelli, Founder and Executive Director of Hope House Ministries. Fr. Frank talked about St. Louis, and his work at the many parts of Hope House. He offered the students in the Mission advice about preparing for life ahead, including reaching out when things are hard and called on our young people in Grades Pre-K - 5 to try to be patient with all the people they live with!

This week we also welcomed Sister Laura Arvin, OP, Director of the Mount Saint Mary House of Prayer on the feast of St. Catherine of Siena, Laura Cassell, CEO of Catholic Charities of Long Island on Thursday, and Sister Kathy Schleuter, CSJ, Principal of Our Lady of the Hamptons Regional Catholic School for the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker on Friday, May 1, 2020.

For more information about registering at OLQA for the 2020-21 school year, contact us at 631.878.1033 or e-mail to Grace Halversen, Administrative Assistant, at ghalversen@olqany.org.

OLQA SIGNS!

If it's a beautiful day and you're going for a walk, look for our new OLQA signs!

Would you be willing to put a sign advertising OLQA on your lawn? If so, please e-mail Fr. John at jsureau@olqany.org.

Thank you for your help in letting everyone know about the "family of families" at OLQA!

Mary, Mother of the Church, Pray for us!

Pope Francis wrote two new prayers this past week, which can be said following the Rosary. Please hold on to this page!

First Prayer

O Mary, You shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who, at the foot of the cross, were united with Jesus' suffering, and persevered in your faith. "Protectress of the Roman people", you know our needs, and we know that you will provide, so that, as at Cana in Galilee, joy and celebration may return after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the will of the Father and to do what Jesus tells us. For he took upon himself our suffering, and burdened himself with our sorrows to bring us, through the cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We fly to your protection, O Holy Mother of God; Do not despise our petitions in our necessities, but deliver us always from every danger, O Glorious and Blessed Virgin.

Second Prayer

"We fly to your protection, O Holy Mother of God".

In the present tragic situation, when the whole world is prey to suffering and anxiety, we fly to you, Mother of God and our Mother, and seek refuge under your protection.

Virgin Mary, turn your merciful eyes towards us amid this coronavirus pandemic. Comfort those who are distraught and mourn their loved ones who have died, and at times are buried in a way that grieves them deeply. Be close to those who are concerned for their loved ones who are sick and who, in order to prevent the spread of the disease, cannot be close to them. Fill with hope those who are troubled by the uncertainty of the future and the consequences for the economy and employment.

Mother of God and our Mother, pray for us to God, the Father of mercies, that this great suffering may end and that hope and peace may dawn anew. Plead with your divine Son, as you did at Cana, so that the families of the sick and the victims be comforted, and their hearts be opened to confidence and trust.

Protect those doctors, nurses, health workers and volunteers who are on the frontline of this emergency, and are risking their lives to save others. Support their heroic effort and grant them strength, generosity and continued health. Be close to those who assist the sick night and day, and to priests who, in their pastoral concern and fidelity to the Gospel, are trying to help and support everyone.

Blessed Virgin, illumine the minds of men and women engaged in scientific research, that they may find effective solutions to overcome this virus.

Support national leaders, that with wisdom, solicitude and generosity they may come to the aid of those lacking the basic necessities of life and may devise social and economic solutions inspired by farsightedness and solidarity. Mary Most Holy, stir our consciences, so that the enormous funds invested in developing and stockpiling arms will instead be spent on promoting effective research on how to prevent similar tragedies from occurring in the future.

Beloved Mother, help us realize that we are all members of one great family and to recognize the bond that unites us, so that, in a spirit of fraternity and solidarity, we can help to alleviate countless situations of poverty and need. Make us strong in faith, persevering in service, constant in prayer.

Mary, Consolation of the afflicted, embrace all your children in distress and pray that God will stretch out his all-powerful hand and free us from this terrible pandemic, so that life can serenely resume its normal course.

To you, who shine on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope, do we entrust ourselves, O Clement, O Loving, O Sweet Virgin Mary. Amen.

PRAYING AT HOME...With the Church!

PRAYING FOR ONE ANOTHER IN THESE DAYS

Each day we ring the church bells at certain hours. They are a call to prayer for different groups of people impacted by the pandemic. Whether you can hear the bells or not, please consider taking a minute to stop and pray each day.

9 a.m. - Prayer for those infected with the virus and all who are ill

Lord, place your healing hand on those who suffer illness. Bring them to full health and ease their anxious hearts. May our prayer and the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary encourage them that they are not alone. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN

12 p.m. - Prayer for health care workers and those attending to the sick

Lord, we are ennobled by those who put their lives at risk in caring for the sick. Keep them safe and embolden them when they are weary. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN

3 p.m. - Prayer for first responders and essential workers

Lord, we pray for those who run to danger to keep us safe and those who serve the common good. Embrace them with your mantle of protection and comfort the fears of their families. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN

6 p.m. - Prayer for people of every nation and their leaders

Lord, the pandemic opens our eyes to see each other as brothers and sisters in one human family. We pray for people of every nation and their leaders, asking that they be inspired to seek the good of all and quell the voices of division. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN

9 p.m. - Prayer for those who have died today

Lord, we grieve the passing of our sisters and brothers who have died this day. We commend them to your tender mercy, confident that nothing, not even death, will separate us from your love. We ask this in Jesus' Name. AMEN.
