

St. John the Evangelist

Roman Catholic Church

Inspired by our Patron, St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church in Center Moriches seeks to bring the light of Christ to a world in need, so that as Christ has done, we may also do. From the celebration of the Eucharist, we are sent forth to serve God and neighbor through ministries of formation, education and outreach.

—Mission Statement

A Mother's Day Blessing

Loving God, as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you give life and care for your Church.

Bless these women, as we celebrate this day in their honor.

May they be strengthened as Christian mothers.

Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.

Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor and appreciate them with a spirit of profound respect.

May the example of Mary, mother of Jesus, inspire them to live their vocation as Christian mothers and call their children to faith. Guide and protect them in challenging times and help them to continue to trust in you all the days of their life.

Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Family Life Ministry

Family Life Ministry-"Sandwich Sundays" - 3rd Sunday of every Month

Next One: May 16, 2021

Drop-Off Times: 9am-11am & 5pm-6pm @ School Auditorium (Main Entrance)

Quick instructional video: <https://youtu.be/6bn7qsQW8Nw> If you need supplies, we will be leaving baggies and gloves with the Parish Office (Rectory - blue house) starting the Monday before Sandwich Sunday. Please try to make sandwiches as close to Sunday as possible, as they will be delivered to Light House Mission in Bellport on Monday morning. We will also be accepting supply donations, such as, peanut butter, jelly, or bread.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"...He loved us."

MAKING THE FIRST MOVE

Dear Parish Family:

I find myself reading a great deal about prayer these days. I pray every day but for some reason more than one book has come my way (or through my Amazon cart!). Most of them have been from writers about spirituality and read more about the "how-to" both practically and spiritually in prayer. While I would not describe any of the book as hard reads, they are spiritually hard. They remind me, again and again, how much I have to learn.

Maybe when it comes to prayer you can get caught up in what needs to be done. As a priest I pray the Divine Office to begin with and have other things I read, recite, and return to again and again. I make the prayer about what I need to do. If I sit here, if begin with this prayer, if end each day listening to this, and so on. These things are worthy of consideration. However, they easily become attractions and distractions.

I know what I need to do and every book on prayer—those I'm reading now and those that I have ever read—reminds me of the same thing. Create the space for God to work in you. Wow—am I terrible at this! I have much to get done. I need to make sure I get through this or finish this novena or that devotion or light that candle and so on and so on. The problem becomes that prayer is more about what I am doing and trying to make happen.

The readings this weekend and last (particularly the second reading today) remind us of our need simply to be (to remain) in the presence of God. We do not need to do anything to get God's attention. St. John tells us that God loved us first! It is not about what we need to do. God has already made the first move. You (and I) are the Beloved of God.

I am leery to write the next few sentences. Know that I only offer them as considerations and in no way as a "you should be doing this". The first consideration is the need for silence. When you go to pray, be quiet at first. Yes there are things to pray, to read, to consider. Please do these things. Before you do, though, be quiet. It is part of the reason we try to call everyone to silence before Mass. Take some deep breaths, pray a mantra (something like "O God come to my assistance" or "Be still and know that I am God" or even just the word "Peace"). Allow your mind to be cleared of the worries and fears, distractions and darkness. You will create the room God needs to enter, to make the first move. Then your prayer is simply a response.

Second, consider this from The Spiritual Exercises. As you begin your prayer time, kneel or sit down or stand or look at the cross or some image—whatever you need to do. Before you say, read, pray a word, stop and imagine how happy God is that you are taking time with Him. Yes, you! See the joy in the Father's face (or in Jesus or in the Spirit) that you have made it easy for them to make their move. Then, begin your prayer. Again, our prayer becomes a response to God's love for us.

We gather in the midst of two times that can help us respond to this move of God. First, we turn to Mary, our Mother, particularly on this Mother's Day. She accompanies like any good mom. Recently, Pope Francis said, "She listens as Mother. Just like, and more than, every good mother, Mary protects us from danger, she is concerned about us even when we are focused on our own matters and lose a sense of the way, and endanger not only our health, but also our salvation. Mary is there, praying for us, praying for those who do not pray. Praying with us. Why? Because she is our Mother." Let us turn to Mary, particularly in this month of May, particularly in this time of pandemic and seek her intercession that we might ever more see the signs of God's love for each one of us.

Second, we move closer to the Feast of Pentecost praying for the Spirit to touch and transform each of our lives. We will begin the Novena to the Holy Spirit and prepare our selves and our Church for the day of Pentecost.

Come Holy Spirit! Our Lady Queen of Apostles, pray for us!

Holy Ground Gardening Project

Thank you to those who have begun work on our Holy Ground Gardening Project. A special word of thanks to the Queen of All Hearts Knights of Columbus for agreeing to sponsor, beautify and maintain the Peace Garden on the east side of the school. Already we can see the fruits of their labor!

For more information about sponsoring a part of the land at SJE, please contact Sarah Dern at 631.878.0009 or e-mail to rectory@sjecm.org.

This Week...

Novena to the Holy Spirit

The Novena to the Holy Spirit is the oldest of all the novenas as it was first made at the direction of Our Lord when He sent His apostles back to Jerusalem to await the coming of the Holy Spirit on the first Pentecost. It is still the only novena officially prescribed by the Church. We will be offering reflections via SJE Social Media. Novena to the Holy Spirit books will be available at the back of the Church and in Seton Chapel.

Please pray for the gifts of the Spirit in this special time.

We continue to pray for the coming of the Holy Spirit in the week ahead.

COME
HOLY SPIRIT

STATIONS OF LIGHT Prayer Service

Fridays – May 14 and 21 @ 1:00 p.m. + Church
Led by Sister Ann

The Stations of the Light is a spiritual journey with Christ that takes one through fourteen of the most inspiring events of His post-Resurrection life on earth. In the early Church this practice was known as the Via Lucis, or Way of the Resurrection. It invites participants to walk along a path of transforming joy by following in the footsteps of the Risen Christ and his friends. Although known and cherished since the first century, the Stations of the Light were never gathered into a precise devotion until recent years.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

May Crowning

On Saturday, May 1, the Legion of Mary organized our May Crowning of Mary after the 8 a.m. Mass. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops reminds us, “Both in the East and in the West the practice of depicting the Blessed Virgin Mary wearing a regal crown came into use in the era of the Council of Ephesus (AD 431)...It is especially from the end of the 16th century that in the West the practice became widespread for the faithful, both religious and laity, to crown images of the Blessed Virgin” and so we are humbled to continue this venerable tradition.

SOLEMN EVENING PRAYER

Mary, Mother of the Church
Monday, May 24, 2021
5:00 p.m. + Church

This feast, instituted by Pope Francis, takes place each year after the Feast of Pentecost. The placement of this feast itself reminds us of the essential role of Mary in the life of the Church and the life of the faithful. Let us come together in solemn prayer turning to Mary, Mother of the Church.

The Legion of Mary will host hospitality after the prayer service. Please come and pray with us.

PASCHAL CANDLE

“Accept this candle, a solemn offering, the work of bees and your servants’ hands, an evening sacrifice of praise, this gift from your most holy Church.”

-Exsultet, proclaimed at the Easter Vigil

The Paschal Candle in the Church has been offered in loving memory of:

- Those who died without family present and those health care workers who filled in the gap so selflessly
- Christopher Bowman
- Geraldine Bledsom
- Marguerite Minotty
- Tullio & Anna Gaudio & John Barbagallo
- Elsa J. Scotti
- Lubomir Kochnskyj
- Vincent Fiore
- Margaret M. Peters
- Alexis Schieferstein
- Thomas Blomberg

The Paschal Candle in Seton Chapel has been offered in loving memory of:

- John and Doris Walsh.

Weekly Scripture Reflection

In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us, "This is my commandment:

love one another as I have loved you... You are my friends if you do what I command you."

By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you fulfill this commandment.

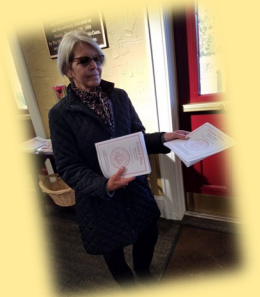

To arrange for a large furniture pick up, click here: <https://www.svdpli.org/get-involved/donate/schedule-pickup/schedule-a-pick-up-suffolk-county/>. SJE DOES NOT ACCEPT FURNITURE ON CAMPUS.

SJE is proud to have a St. Vincent de Paul Conference. We are always looking for new members. For more information, call 631.878.0009 or e-mail to rectory@sjecm.org and your information will be shared with the leaders of the conference.

THE MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION NEEDS YOU!

The Ministry of Consolation currently has no members who speak Spanish. We are severely hampered in our efforts to assist the Hispanic community in planning the funerals for their loved ones. Families appreciate our assistance and we strive to offer EVERYONE our best service with understanding and compassion. In this ministry, you would work with our companions as a translator and/or assist as a companion yourself. There's plenty of support and a real team player is needed! (It's also possible to not join the ministry full time but just assist on an as-needed basis!)

If you are bilingual and are willing to consider joining us, please contact the Rectory at rectory@sjecm.org or 631.878.0009. We would love to have you.

"FAMILY OF FAITH": PROFESSING OUR FAITH

Thank you to all who came out for our "Family of Faith" outdoor closing prayer service this month! Seminarian Louis Cona gave a reflection on the Creed—which our families studied this year—and how to live it out in daily life. Each family received a card with the Apostles Creed to take home and everyone was invited to enjoy Italian Ices following the service. Special thanks to our staff, volunteers, musicians and cantors, and Fr. John, who presided at the prayer services.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS — Seventh Sunday of Easter

Reading I: Acts 1:15-17, 20a, 20c-26

Matthias replaces Judas as the twelfth apostle.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 102:1-2, 11-12, 19-20

Second Reading: 1 John 4:11-16

God is love.

Gospel: John 17:11b-19

Jesus prays to the Father for his disciples.

Discussion Questions

1. Do you listen to the Holy Spirit on a regular basis, or just now and then? How does the Spirit speak to you? Are there some areas that are off limits or do you invite the Holy Spirit into every part of your life?
2. How was “the love of God revealed to us?” If Jesus had not come into the world, what would you know about God?
3. The one thing Jesus asks of us is that we love our neighbor. How would you rate this assignment on a “difficulty” scale from 1-10? Explain. What gift does God give you to help with this assignment

EL MINISTERIO DE CONSOLACIÓN TE NECESITA

El Ministerio de Consolación actualmente no tiene miembros que hablen español. Nos vemos seriamente obstaculizados en nuestros esfuerzos por ayudar a la comunidad hispana a planificar los funerales de sus seres queridos. Las familias aprecian nuestra ayuda y nos esforzamos por ofrecer a TODOS nuestro mejor servicio con comprensión y compasión. En este ministerio, trabajaría con nuestros compañeros como traductor y / o ayudaría usted mismo como acompañante. Se necesita mucho apoyo y un verdadero jugador de equipo! (También no es necesario unirse al ministerio a tiempo completo, sino ayudar según sea necesario!)

Si es bilingüe y está dispuesto a considerar unirse a nosotros, comuníquese con nosotros comunicándose con la Rectoría en rectory@sjecm.org o 631.878.0009. Nos encantaría tenerle.
