OUR PARISH MISSION

Inspired by our Patron, St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church in Center Moriches seeks to bring the light of Christ to a world in need, so that as Christ has done, we may also do. From the celebration of the Eucharist, we are sent forth to serve God and neighbor through ministries of formation, education and outreach.

Mass Schedule

A message from the Coordinator of Family Ministry...

Greetings during this extraordinary time! I know that liturgically speaking we are in ordinary time, but I find nothing ordinary about the celebration of the Eucharist!

In last week's bulletin, Lynn Walsh provided terrific insight into the central mystery of our Catholic faith, The Most Holy Trinity. Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ and we encounter an equally critical, yet radical, central teaching of Catholicism. As Catholics, we believe that Jesus is really, truly and substantially present in the form of bread and wine in the Eucharist. Not symbolically...not figuratively...but absolutely, undeniably present...body, blood, soul and divinity. This belief sets Catholics apart and is God's greatest and most humble gift to each of us. Our God is crazy about us! He loves us in a way that we just cannot completely understand. The Eucharist, in its plain and simple appearance, is our God...our Jesus...willing to be overlooked, taken for granted and misunderstood in an effort to meet us where we're at, over and over and over again, at every single Mass. But why? So that we can know Him, love Him, become one with Him and share eternity with Him.

In today's gospel, Jesus lays it out very clearly, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you." He repeats this message five times throughout today's gospel, knowing full well, that in our humanity, we would struggle with this idea. Further on in John's gospel Jesus responds to the disciples' difficulty accepting this concept, by asking them if this "shocks" them. Then Jesus reminds them of who He is.

"Whoever eats My Flesh and drinks My Blood has eternal life." It is a radical statement. But for a Trinitarian God, who created EVERYTHING; who sent His Son to suffer and die to redeem the world; who sent the Holy Spirit to empower and strengthen humanity; is there anything that's too radical a gift of love? No...there is not.

When my children were teens, and not particularly excited about going to Mass (imagine that!) they would provide a litany of reasons why they shouldn't have to go. Now remember...this was years ago, so all of you who currently make our liturgies so amazing, please don't take offense to any of this. They tried every excuse, from "I don't like the music," to "I can't understand the readings," to "the homilies are boring," You name it...they found a way to complain about it. My response was always the same, "Well, thank God, that there's nothing you can say about being disappointed in the Eucharist. It's Jesus...and He's perfect. Now get in the van and let's go!" While being held captive in our Chevy Express, I would often continue with a reminder that when we take Jesus, body, blood, soul and divinity into our own beings, there is no way that we are not changed. There is no way that we do not become better versions of ourselves...kinder, more compassionate, more loving, holier. And that was reason enough to sit through music you didn't like, readings you couldn't understand and homilies you found boring. Crickets! They knew there was no disputing the Eucharist. That message was not very eloquent, but it was from my heart and I stand by it today.

We are believers. We are Catholics. We are here at Mass to worship the God who gives us EVERYTHING, even His Body and Blood. On this Solemnity, perhaps we can pray the prayer that follows. And may every "Amen" we utter, be not a rote response, but a bold statement that, "We believe!" With humility and the utmost gratitude for the gift of the Eucharist, Carolyn Lapham.

Lord, God, lover of our souls, Thank You for the humble gift of the Eucharist. May I never take You for granted as I receive Your Precious Body and Blood, nor doubt Your true presence in the Eucharist. May this Holy Eucharist strengthen my faith and draw me ever closer to You so that I will choose to courageously live out Your plan for my life. I want to have Your life within me. I want to share eternity with You.
Thank You Jesus. Amen.

Mass Intentions

Remembering one who has passed away at Mass is a most noble practice calling us to pray for one who has died at the most powerful prayer we know—the celebration of the Eucharist.

Altar Bread and Wine

Names will be listed in each bulletin during the course of that month.

For the month an offering of $150 is requested

Votive Candles/Altar Candles

A number of votive candles enlighten the beautiful statues in our church. You may have a particular devotion to one of these saints. These candles are next to the statues of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They bring a certain light to the statues and, hopefully, inspire some deeper times of prayer and reflection.

Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ

Dt 8:2-3, 14b-16a | 1 Cor 10:16-17 | Jn 6:51-58

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, the true, real, and substantial presence of Jesus Christ under the appearances of bread and wine. As Catholics, we know that the Eucharist is not simply symbolic, but is in fact the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Christ who rose from the dead. Our readings remind us of this. In the Gospel Jesus says: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh ... I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you." Although Jesus' words were very difficult for his disciples at the time to understand, we know that the bread and wine that become the body and blood of Jesus satisfy our deepest hunger. This spiritual food is actually an encounter with God through his Son, Jesus. It is a blessing that the Church provides us. Let us celebrate on this solemnity by giving thanks, which is what eucharist means!

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

There was a priest at my home parish who could spend hours – literally, hours – sitting in eucharistic adoration. If he wasn't out and about serving our parish or in his office for a meeting, you would find him in the adoration chapel gazing at the monstrance which displayed the consecrated host, the Blessed Sacrament. He always would have a small smile on his face, happily losing himself in the Lord. Although everyone has different time pressures on them during the course of a typical week, I think we can all agree that spending only one hour a week with someone is not enough to maintain an important relationship. The same is true with our relationship with Christ. Let's make an effort in the coming weeks to enhance that relationship by spending more time with him. Do you have an hour for adoration? Experience the peace it can bring. Or perhaps now is the time to check the daily Mass schedule in your parish and try to attend once or twice. Jesus offers us his very body and blood under the appearances of bread and wine. Don't squander the opportunity to receive this precious gift.

ACTION As part of the National Eucharistic Revival, many dioceses around the country will hold Eucharistic processions for this solemn feast. This is a family-friendly activity. See what is planned in your diocese.

Mass for the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus
Friday, June 16 at 7:30 p.m.
 at the Cathedral of St. Agnes, Rockville Centre, NY

Bishop Barros will be the principal celebrant and Fr. Lachlan Cameron will be the homilist. All are welcome to attend this Mass in-person or to watch live on Catholic Faith Network (CFN).

The Mass will air live on Catholic Faith Network (CFN) at 7:30 p.m. Catholic Faith Network can be viewed on Optimum channel 29/137, Verizon FiOS TV channel 296, and Spectrum channel 162/471. CFN is also available on select cable and satellite systems and through live stream on cfntv.org. You may also view CFN on Roku, Apple TV, Amazon Fire TV, Android, or by downloading the CFN iOS mobile app at the app store by searching "Catholic Faith Network" or "CFN".

Pictures & Memories...

We are asking our parishioners to celebrate and participate with us by contributing any photos, documents, news clippings, etc. that relate to our parish history. Over the course of the next year we will be sharing our history in our bulletin, during 125th Anniversary events and on Social Media.

125th Anniversary committee is looking for your pictures and memories of SJE!
 Please email to History@SJEcm.org. If you are unable to scan and email please stop by the rectory office and we will be happy to make a copy. We are looking forward to hearing from you.

Woman's Group...

I put the wrong date on last weeks' notice for the next meeting of our group. The correct date is Mon, June 12, 10am Seton Chapel. I apologize for inconveniencing anyone because of my mistake. Our last meeting before summer vacation is Mon, June 26, 10-11:30am. We will return in September.

Thank you again to Fr. Patrick, all the office help & the women who have made this group a beautiful blessing of Love, Healing & Growth, for all who participated. May we also be a blessing to others. Carol Ketcham and I truly enjoy the sisterhood of this Women's Group. We welcome new members anytime, including June 12, & June 26. Anita Luccari

Safe Environment Updates...

All volunteers and employees at SJE are required to participate in a VIRTUS training course and to go through a background check. You can sign up for the VIRTUS classes by visiting www.drvc.org or clicking here:

REMINDERS FOR VOLUNTEERS

All SJE employees and volunteers must wear their SJE badge while serving in ministry. Please also check your email regularly to complete monthly updates. (Be sure to check your "spam" or "Junk" folder.)

PASTORAL INTERVENTION TEAM

The dedicated telephone line for reporting allegations of sexual abuse (516-694-9063) continues to be available. If the caller does not reach someone directly, messages can be left on an answering machine connected to the phone. Those messages will be retrieved by a member of the Intervention Team and returned as soon as possible. All appropriate steps will be taken to protect the reputation and privacy of those involved. For more information on the Charter for the Protection of Children / Young People, please visit drvc.org.

Important DRVC Information....

Information regarding a new deadline to file proofs of claim for victims of sexual abuse who were over 18 or older when the alleged conduct occurred and the forms to use, can be found by clicking on the following link to the Diocese's bankruptcy website and scrolling down the page :

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Please take some time look through the back pages of the bulletin! It features many local businesses (and often the work of parishioners) and the good work they do in our community. We have parishioners who do everything from car detailing to car mechanics to lacrosse training to taking care of pets. Take a look and learn more!

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? Not only that, our parish receives a part of the advertising commission.

So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

Also, if your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist—most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area—receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of families in the area with information about your business.

For more information on how to advertise in our bulletin, call The Church Bulletin Company at 631-249-4994

A message from Fr. Patrick...

This year marks the 125th anniversary of the Parish of St. John the Evangelist. What an incredible milestone to celebrate, St. John's has been a corner stone of our community for 125 years! The roots of our parish go back to the mid-1870's according to the records of the Dioceses of Brooklyn, which at the time included Long Island. The first Mass was celebrated on August 1, 1897. Since that time our Parish has experienced tremendous growth both spiritually and socially and whose faith has served to grow our parish community. Together we have made St. John's a strong and loving place to worship as well as a beacon of light and resilience in the Center Moriches community.

To recognize this amazing milestone St. John's is producing a commemorative journal, published by the Tide which will reach all households and businesses in Center Moriches, East Moriches, Moriches, and our surrounding communities. We want to extend an invitation to you to join us in the celebration by placing a commemorative ad in our Journal. It is our hope that our journal will be a keepsake for our parish community and an excellent resource for you to promote your business as well as a way for our parish family to congratulate and/or memorialize friends and family members. The flyer to the right, includes the ad pricing and details. We are sure that there is one that fits your interest in supporting St. John's.

We ask that you consider taking an ad in our commemorative journal. Your support will allow our Parish to continue to strengthen and grow for our next 125 years. If you have questions or need additional information you can call 631.878.0009 or email St. John's at History@sjecm.org and someone from our committee will get back to you.

As we reflect on our past with gratitude, our present with appreciation and to the future we look with great hope, we ask for your continued support during this period of celebration.

Wishing you and your families a happy and blessed Easter season, and a very happy Mother's Day!

Bishop Robert Coyle, our Eastern Vicar, will be here for a special Mass of Thanksgiving here at St. John's to celebrate the Parish's 125th Anniversary - Saturday, June 17th at 5:00 pm. There will be a celebration following the Mass. Details coming soon...

This year marks the 125th anniversary of the parish of St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church in Center Moriches.

To recognize this amazing milestone, St. John's is producing a commemorative journal that will be mailed out the beginning of August to every home and business in Center Moriches, East Moriches, Moriches and more. Our journal will be a special way to celebrate the Parish and its rich history in the Center Moriches community. We invite you to become part of the history of St. John's by taking one of the following color ads in our journal.

- Full Page - 7.875" x 10.2" - $400
- Half Page - 7.875" x 5" - $300
- Quarter Page - 3.85" x 5" - $150
- Eighth Page - 3.85" x 2.4" - $100
- Booster - 2.56" x 1.64" - $50
up to 3 lines, 18 characters per line.
See back of this form for examples.

High resolution artwork should be sent to History@sjecm.org in PDF format and CMYK color mode. Please remit payment via mail to 25 Ocean Avenue, Center Moriches, NY 11934 or scan the QR code to pay electronically through the Parish WeShare Account. Your ad and payment can also be brought to the Rectory during normal business hours. Artwork and full payment must be received by July 7, 2023.
