40 HOURS DEVOTION

Monday, June 13 – Friday June 17
12 Noon – 8 p.m. each Day

Opening Mass – This Monday, June 13, 2022 –12 Noon

Closing Mass – This Friday, June 17, 2022 – 7 p.m.

We join this tradition of the Church to deepen our appreciation for the gift of the Eucharist and allow ourselves to fall deeper and deeper in love with the risen and glorified Lord, particularly as we prepare to celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi. Please come and pray for at least one hour this week.

In time, we commit ourselves to pray for:

- The healing of our Church, country, and world
- Our parish during this time of transition

This time of communal prayer will be silent except for:

- After the 12 Noon Mass: The Rosary
- 3:00 p.m.: Divine Mercy Chaplet
- 6:00 p.m. Evening Prayer
- 7:45 p.m. Night Prayer and Benediction

We need each hour covered by at least two individuals.

Please select a day (or days) and an hour (or hours) that you can be present for this devotion:

You may also email your availability to rectory@sjecm.org or call 631.878.0009 or in the Binder on the back table in the Fellowship Area! You may sign up for more than one hour.

Sacraments and the Trinity

RELATIONSHIP

Dear Parish Family:

I have been working with seventh graders for the first half of the third trimester on the sacraments of the Church. It was an interesting journey as the work of the course invited them far beyond the rituals and rites and working to help students to see the liturgical and sacramental acts of the Church as an entry way into the relationship of the Blessed Trinity. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us, “In the Church's liturgy the divine blessing is fully revealed and communicated. The Father is acknowledged and adored as the source and the end of all the blessings of creation and salvation. In his Word who became incarnate, died, and rose for us, he fills us with his blessings. Through his Word, he pours into our hearts the Gift that contains all gifts, the Holy Spirit.” In the celebration of the liturgy, and particularly the sacraments, we are drawn in to the relationship that is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The celebration of the sacraments whether we receive or are part of the assembly reminds us of the power of that Trinitarian relationship—Father, Son, and Spirit—we pray about this weekend. In his reflection about the Blessed Trinity, Fr. Timothy Radcliffe writes, “The persons of the Trinity exist, as it were, from their mutual relationship. The Son receives everything from the Father, and the Spirit from the Father and the Son. The Trinity is not a community of three persons who happen to get along famously. They are persons in relationship.”

I was thinking of this connection because of the work in class, some conversations we have been having in our Liturgy Committee meetings, and considering the many sacramental celebrations we offered together throughout the Easter season. It started with the Easter Vigil with the baptism and full initiation of our neophytes. It continued with the celebration and reception into the Catholic Church of one of our parishioners. We celebrated with our young people who received Holy Communion for the first time at liturgies during the week and at Sunday Mass. We celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation for eighteen of our parishioners last Saturday. Next week, we have the privilege to pray at the Ordination of Fr. Louis Cona.

Father Radcliffe writes further, “Of its nature, the Triune love overflows. The Father and the Son are not stuck in a mutual infatuation. Their love overflows in the Spirit. This is a love which is open beyond itself. If the Trinity makes its home in our love, then our love must overflow. Otherwise it goes sour.” We, too, must overflow! I hope that will be true we who have worship and prayed throughout the days of Easter in the celebration of these sacraments as well each one of us when we gather for the celebration of the Mass. The love between the Trinity fills us to the point of overflowing with that love that like the Trinity we might change the world.

There's another consoling thought. It speaks to us about the power of relationship. Isn't that the hope of the sacraments—that we would be so bonded in the love of God that we would remain forever linked in that divine love? Yes! It also speaks to us about the importance of relationship in our own lives. If we allow ourselves to be touched by power God's love, no distance (or assignment or term for that matter) that can break that bond of love and relationship that forms among each one of us in our families, friendships, and communities.

Let's pray that as we contemplate the love between Father, Son, and Holy Spirit we may better mirror it in our celebration of the sacraments and the way in which we live our lives.

Please, if you can, say a prayer for me.

P.S. I hope you can be part of the 40 Hours Devotion this week! See pages 2 and 4 for more information. I think this is going to be a beautiful time for our parish (and for Jesus!).

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

Vespers—Evening Prayer*

Saturdays & Sundays after the evening Masses

“Vespers is celebrated in the evening when the day is drawing to a close, so that ‘we may give thanks for what has been given us during the day, or for the things we have done well during it’”.

—Introduction to the Liturgy of the Hours

We pray Evening Prayer after the 5 p.m. Saturday evening Mass and after the 6 p.m. Sunday Mass. We will gather in the seats by Our Lady’s Chapel. You don’t need to bring anything but you! The leader or presider of the prayer will guide through this prayer. Generally, Evening Prayer is about ten minutes in length.

40 HOURS DEVOTION

A special holy hour for children and families!

Thursday, June 16, 2022

6:30 p.m.—7:30 p.m.

As part of our 40 Hours of Devotion, we will have a special hour designed for families on Thursday, June 12 from 6:30-7:30 pm. This time of communal prayer will be geared for children including an introduction to what exposition is, why it is such a very special time to be with Jesus and time for quiet prayer (and we used the term “quiet” rather loosely). This hour will allow families to come and worship without the worry of distracting others as they bring their children to actively participate in the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. It is an hour to respond to Jesus’ request, “Let the children come to me.”

All are most welcome to come during this beautiful time...children from birth to 100!

Remembering Loved Ones

SJE offers a number of ways to remember loved ones, or honor someone living.

Mass Intentions. Remembering one who has passed away at Mass is a most noble practice calling us to pray for one who has died at the most powerful prayer we know—the celebration of the Eucharist.

Altar Bread and Wine. Names will be listed in each bulletin during the course of that month.

Votive Candles/Altar Candles. A number of votive candles enlighten the beautiful statues in our church. You may have a particular devotion to one of these saints. These candles are next to the statues of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They bring a certain light to the statues and, hopefully, inspire some deeper times of prayer and reflection.

To make an offering, visit or contact the Parish Office at 631.878.0009 or email

The Ordination to the Priesthood

Deacon Louis Cona

Our parish is blessed to pray with Louis Cona as he is ordained to the priesthood of Jesus Christ. Here are three ways for us to be part of this celebration! You can do one, two or all three!

NEXT SATURDAY!!!!

Ordination to the Priesthood

11 a.m. + Next Saturday, June 18, 2022

Thank you for your consideration and understanding.

HELP WANTED!!!

Bulletin Editor Needed!

St. John the Evangelist R.C. Church

St. John's is looking for committed and dedicated individuals to join an exciting and faith-filled team committed to caring for the parish and the people we are called to serve. We are presently in need of a

• Bulletin Editor: This position requires the use of graphic design skills to assist with publishing the weekly bulletin and weekly email communications. Microsoft Publisher experience preferred but not required. Room for growth in this position in the months ahead. Approximately 10-15 hours per week. Flexible hours, i.e. does not have to be a set schedule, with opportunity to work from home.

The bulletin serves as the basis for informing our parish about the many opportunities for coming closer and closer to the Church! Help us to make this happen.

For more information about these positions, contact Mrs. Katie Waller and Fr. John at kwaller@sjecm.org and jsureau@sjecm.org or call the Rectory at 631.878.0009. All applicants must be at least 18 years of age.

WE NEED YOU!!!

Preparing for SUNDAY

Let us pray...

Pray with and over some of the prayers we will pray with at Mass next Sunday.

Collect/Opening Prayer

*O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion,
grant us, we pray,
so to revere the sacred mysteries
of your Body and Blood
that we may always experience in ourselves
the fruits of your redemption.
Who live and reign with God the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.*

Prayer After Communion

*Grant, O Lord, we pray,
that we may delight for all eternity
in that share in your divine life, which is foreshadowed in the present age
by our reception of your precious Body and Blood.
Who live and reign for ever and ever.*

Readings for Next Sunday—

Corpus Christi Sunday

*Please look over these readings and consider these reflection questions before coming to Mass next Sunday.

First Reading + Genesis 14:18-20

Discuss the properties of bread and wine and their benefits to the body when consumed. Why do you think Melchizedek chose them for offerings? Do you know why Jesus chose them?

Responsorial Psalm + Psalm 110:1-4

Second Reading + 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Explain "For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes." Is the gift of Jesus' life, death and resurrection a one-time thing that happened in the past, or is the gift on-going and always newly present?

Gospel + Luke 9:11b-17

The crowd had been listening all day, in a deserted area, away from villages. How are the 5,000 like the Church today? Are we starving for divine inspiration on questions, spellbound by Jesus' words like ecojustice, incarceration, life, immigration, bias, gun control?

SJE LOVES FAMILIES!!

FREE BOOK SALE

Sister Ann and Fr. John are offering books for you to take in the weeks ahead. If you're interested in steamy salacious novels, check out Sister Ann's selections and if you're interested in spiritual and holy books, of course, check out Fr. John's selections :)!

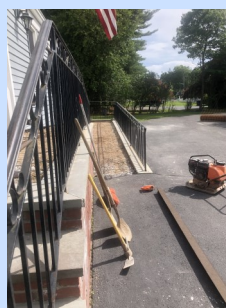

Books are on the cart in the Fellowship Area.

All books are free. If you would like to make a free will offering you are welcome to do so. All offerings will be given to the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Sister Ann's religious community. Envelopes are available for your Free Will Offering and can be placed in the poor box, in the collection baskets or given to one of our sacristans.

No books may be added to the shelves!

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

This week, construction began on various walkways and ramps in the parish. These repairs not only make our parish's building and grounds more beautiful, they make these areas of our parish safer and more secure. Thank you for your patience as some parking spots, entrances, and walkways may not be able to be used for a time.

We are still in the process of receiving approval from the Diocese of Rockville Centre for the Rectory Roof. The process hit a "bump" last month as we learned the existing roof contains asbestos (as do many roofs put on 30 years ago!) and additional work is required for the safe removal of the existing roof. Once this approval is received the roof project will begin. Thanks to the Knights of Columbus for their donation that will provide for the cost of the roof. We are unsure of the additional cost of the asbestos abatement.

This work can only happen because of your support, particularly through the Christmas, Easter, and Summer Appeals. Thank you!

ORACIÓN POR UN TIEMPO DE TRANSICIÓN

Envíanos tu, Espíritu, oh Señor a medida que avanzamos a través de estos tiempos de transición y renovación.

Bendice y fortalece al P. Patricio nuestro nuevo pastor, mientras se une a la comunidad de fe aquí.

Protege y fortalece a todos los que están transición a nuevas comunidades de fe.

Que avancen en paz y confianza
sabiendo que Tú plan y
Tú tiempo es siempre perfecto.

Amemos, animemos y
apoyarnos unos a otros
durante estos días.

Que la paz pascual lo prometas
llénanos de coraje, fuerza y esperanza.

Mantenenos tranquilos y confiados,
ansioso y emocionado
para nuevos comienzos
y oportunidades increíbles
para que podamos ser uno
como Tú eres Uno.

Envíanos como tus testigos
al espíritu y a la verdad,
a la justicia y la paz.

Ayúdanos a amar. Ayúdanos a confiar.

Ayúdanos a estar cada vez
más cerca de ti.

Amen.

ALTAR WASHING/LAUNDRY HELP NEEDED!

We are in need of help with our altar linens. It would need a commitment once every two weeks or so to care for, launder, dry, iron and return the cloth items used at Masses in the Church and Seton Chapel. Great job for those who love to do wash, iron, use starch, and more! For more information, contact the Parish Office at 631.878.0009 or e-mail to rectory@sjecm.org.
