

St. John the Evangelist

Roman Catholic Church

Inspired by our Patron, St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church in Center Moriches seeks to bring the light of Christ to a world in need, so that as Christ has done, we may also do. From the celebration of the Eucharist, we are sent forth to serve God and neighbor through ministries of formation, education and outreach.

WHAT'S HAPPENING @ SJE

BECOMING CATHOLIC

Do you want to be Catholic?
Do you want to be baptized?
Were you baptized into another
Christian faith but now want to join the Catholic Church?
Then the RCIA is for you!

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the Church's process for adult women and men who want to join the Catholic Church. It involves learning about the Catholic faith, sharing faith with others and participating in the life of the Church.

If you want to learn more, leave a message in the Rectory (631.878.0009) or e-mail to rectory@sjecm.org. We will be putting together our next RCIA group in the weeks ahead!

Fathers Day Novena of Masses

Father's Day Novena of Masses cards and envelopes are now available throughout the church. The Father's Day Novena is a beautiful and meaningful way for you to include your father, grandfather, godfather, the father-to-be you know or any father you wish to remember in the intentions of the Novena of Masses for Father's Day. Simply take an envelope, write the name, and return the envelope with your donation, either in the collection basket or at the rectory. Keep the card to send as an expression of your prayer. Thank you.

Sixth Annual Summer Evening Prayer Series at St. John the Evangelist

Let's come together as a parish family and give thanks to God for his many blessings, especially the gift of summer! These nights we will celebrate Evening Prayer and of course have some good food and fellowship to share as well.

We need some parishioners to help plan these nights... it will only involve one or two meetings! Are you good at organizing? Do you like to have fun? Can you throw a party? Do you like to bring people together? If so, this is the group for you!

If you're able to come, please let Fr. John know by calling 631.878.0009 or e-mail jsureau@sjecm.org!

ATTENTION ALL MINISTRY LEADERS:

This week, information about securing spaces and times for the parish calendar were sent via email. Please remember that all dates must be submitted to calendar@sjecm.org NO LATER than June 24, 2021.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Parish Social Ministry

Cedar Trees, Seeds and Social Ministry

Dear Parish Family:

I want to take some time to share some information and updates about Parish Social Ministry at SJE. The mission of the Church is to go out and to sanctify and to make holy the world, most especially in the lives of the poor and the vulnerable. Pope Benedict XVI wrote, "To love someone is to desire that person's good and to take effective steps to secure it. Besides the good of the individual, there is a good that is linked to living in society: the common good. It is the good of 'all of us', made up of individuals, families and intermediate groups who together constitute society."

In any parish, the primary responsibility of working towards the common good falls to parish social ministry or parish outreach. SJE has an incredibly rich tradition of seeking to build the common good in this local community. That is a testament not only to those who have volunteered but to each member of this parish who through generosity, prayer, and witness who have done so much for those most in need in our parish.

As you know, we have seen some major changes in Parish Social Ministry over the past year or so. COVID-19 impacted the functioning of our ministries as well as the needs of those seeking assistance. Increased government funding and the temporary moratorium on evictions has reduced some of the crisis intervention work we carry out regularly. Alex Finta, as you also know, resigned as Director of Parish Social Ministry in November. That, too, has had a significant impact on our work and ministry.

While these changes have impacted us, the work has continued on in these most unique and challenging times. Since November through the end of Lent, the leaders of the various parish social ministries have been meeting with me two weeks a month. We are going to start those meetings again soon. Our case manager Christian Diconsiglio has stepped up in great ways over the past months. He has taken on some pretty significant responsibilities - few of which he signed up for when he joined our staff. We have been blessed with a gifted social work intern, Liam Costa. Liam was with us in the Fall and Winter and is returning to SJE this week until the beginning of August.

Over the next months, we are going to be actively pursuing a new Coordinator of Parish Social Ministry. This important work of the parish needs a person to lead the effort to build on the great work that has been and is part of the fabric of SJE.

While we are doing an enormous amount for those in need from intake work to various ministries, there is much work to be done. (You can read more about it on page 6.) We are going to move most of our parish social ministry hours and services to 3 p.m. and later. We are finding the late afternoon and evening a better time for both clients and volunteers.

The mission of parish social ministry, the work of the building up the common good here, reminds me of so many of the references to the cedar tree in first reading and the psalm, and the seeds planted in the Gospel can serve as good reminders of the work parish social ministry. The work of parish social ministry requires us to provide the shade and protection for the poor and the vulnerable while also, we pray, lifting those who are down up to the highest points while also planting seeds that we pray will take root. While the practical work may mirror the efforts of other impressive organizations and support program, this cannot be us. If it's only about filling material and practical needs, we have failed. Rather, the work of the Church must always be about evangelizing in ways big and small— to those who pray each week and those who simply come with needs and desires. This, too, is the work of building up the common good. In this work it is not simply about providing for the practical needs of this word but also making connections that link them to the life of the Church and, we pray, eternal life!

Please say a prayer for me.

Weekly Scripture Reflection

In the Gospel, Jesus says: "This is how it is with the reign of God. A man scatters seed on the ground. He goes to bed and gets up day after day. Through it all the seed sprouts and grows without his knowing how it happens."

Through your almsgiving you are sowing seeds that grow far greater than you know. The coins placed in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box bring Christ love and compassion to the poor.

To arrange for a large furniture pick up, click here: <https://www.svdpli.org/get-involved/donate/schedule-pickup/schedule-a-pick-up-suffolk-county/>. SJE DOES NOT ACCEPT FURNITURE ON CAMPUS.

SJE is proud to have a St. Vincent de Paul Conference. We are always looking for new members. For more information, call 631.878.0009 or e-mail to rec-tory@sjecm.org and your information will be shared with the leaders of the conference.

Thrift Shop Updates

Thanks to the incredible commitment and dedication of our Thrift Shop volunteers. They work so hard to not only provide for those in need but also to support the work of St. John the Evangelist. The Thrift Shop is open from 9 to 11:30 a.m. on Wednesdays. Donations can be left in the green bins or dropped off on Monday and Tuesday between 9 and 12.

Look for some changes in the next few weeks. We are looking to clean up this area of the parish grounds and are moving the green bins a little closer to the Thrift Shop. This will be a little easier for our volunteers and also help to make the area by the Red Barn and the Thrift Shop a little neater and cleaner.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS — Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I: Job 38:1, 8-11

The Lord constrains the sea.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 107:23-24, 25-26, 28-29, 30-31,

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

We are new creations in Christ.

Gospel: Mark 4:35-41

Jesus stills the sea.

Discussion Questions

1. The tender shoot becomes a majestic cedar. In the Gospels, Jesus refers to the “least” becoming the “greatest” numerous times. How is Jesus’ own life an example of this? Can you think of others who followed or now follow this example?

2. Do you have confidence all the time, even when your spiritual weather is stormy? When Paul says “we are always courageous,” is it true? Are you courageous? Always? What helps when you are not?

3. According to Pope Francis, what happens to our (small, mustard seed-size) gifts when we trust God instead of ourselves?

If you had faith as a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this sycamine tree: ‘Be rooted up, and be planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.” ... Thus, Jesus wishes to make it understood that faith, even if small, can have the power to uproot so much as a sycamine. And then to transplant it into the sea, which is something even more improbable: but nothing is impossible for those who have faith, because they do not rely on their own strengths but in God, who can do everything. ... It is a faith that, in its humility, feels a great need of God and in its smallness surrenders itself, trusting fully in him -Pope Francis, Oct 6 2019 Angelus

Sunday Night Mass Come to The Six!

As you may have noticed, our Sunday morning Masses are beginning to fill up. This is good news!

I want to ask those who may be accustomed to coming on Sunday morning to consider coming on Sunday evening at 6 p.m. In general - regardless of the public health situation we find ourselves in now- it is a little less crowded. It is also, at least for me, a great way to draw the week-end to a close. Coming to pray the Mass with the community of faith is a great way to conclude the Lord's Day and often allows me to be more focused rather than so easily distracted by all the day ahead may bring. It provides an opportunity to give thanks to God for the day and to seek his help in the week ahead.

Consider coming to Mass on Sunday evenings at 6 p.m. Hope to see you there!
