FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Celebrating the Body of Christ

FATHER'S DAY

Dear Parish Family:

I have to be honest, I'm not looking forward to this weekend (I'm writing this column on Wednesday evening). Like some of you, this will be one of the "firsts" - the first Father's Day without my dad physically present with my family and me. I am sure, like you, I'll get through it. I would rather things be the way they were.

I actually remember last Father's Day. We gathered at an Italian restaurant in Babylon and, looking back, can see that the struggles for my dad were not getting any easier. The months that followed did not change those realities. And last December, things radically changed.

Father's Day can be tough for a lot of us for a lot of reasons. For some, like me, we're mourning. For others, it's a reminder of a loss from years ago. For others, it a reminder of the brokenness or weaknesses of our dads. For others, we harbor a pretty big "father wound", as some spiritual writers have termed it.

This year, I have been pulled a little bit because of the Solemnity we celebrate today—the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. It comes on a good day for us to not only reflect on the importance of the celebration of the Eucharist but also how it touches and heals us, strengthens and empowers us to be more Christ-like in our everyday lives.

I think of that because of my dad's great devotion to the celebration of the Mass. When I entered the Seminary, my dad started to go to Daily Mass each day at Our Lady of Lourdes in West Islip. I know why. He knew the importance of celebrating the Eucharist. He served as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion and read at Mass even after battling the effects of cancer and its treatment. He knew how important it was to serve at the altar. I even remember how bothered he was when they were going to have a few Sunday Masses with no music. That did not go over well! He knew how important it was to pray fully at Mass. I remember him making sure he was at many of the "bigger" Masses at which I presided—Easter, Christmas, Mother's Day, Father's Day and the like. He often had a few observations about the presider after Mass too :)! There came a time when my dad could no longer receive the host or receive from the chalice. He still made great efforts to attend Mass or to watch on TV or even to come here to SJE a few weeks before his passing. He knew the importance of praying in the midst of the assembly.

I realize more clearly that the celebration of the Mass is another place for those sacred encounters between heaven and earth. When I preside at Mass or concelebrate, the words in the Eucharistic Prayer, when we remember the dead, mean a little more. When I hear that someone requested that my dad be prayed for at Mass, I pause for a bit. When I hold my chalice or wear my alb—which my Mom and Dad both gifted me with—they have a greater positive weight. All reminders of the intimacy that the celebration of the Eucharist, of the Body of Christ, offers each one of us as individuals and as the community of faith, in heaven and on earth.

So on this day when we pause to reflect considerably on the gift of the Eucharist, let's pray that we will not only receive the Body of Christ but more fully become the Body of Christ. We might just find that it is the healing and transforming encounter with Christ that we need. Maybe today, Father's Day, won't be too bad of a day after all. Maybe the same for you.

REASONS FOR HOPE

Each week, during this time of rebuilding, I will try to list some more “reasons for hope”. Our movement out of the Church to the Auditorium and Convent can be a bit unsettling and, at some times, a little sad. Maybe these reasons for hope will help us to stay focused.

*To the people of St. John's,
We are keeping you in prayer and wishing you well after recent events. We know our God will continue to provide comfort and strength.*

Blessings,

WHAT YOU CAN DO?

As you know, volunteers must be registered here, have completed a Code of Conduct and been background checked. The people who work on this project would help us with databasing, organizing and even some photo taking (more to come on that). Please contact Fr. John if you can help.

MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION

This ministry reaches out in a variety of ways to those who have recently faced the death of someone they love. The wonderful women and men who offer their time in this ministry—as well as our office staff—do a wonderful job in ministering to those in need.

We are in need of more help as we seek to grow the Ministry of Consolation. We are in need of parishioners to come forward as:

Liturgical Ministers (Greeters, Servers, Extraordinary Ministers and Readers)

Cakebakers (willing to make a small dessert for a family who has suffered a loss),

Worship Aid Makers (able to update our Mass program for each funeral, involves light computer and possibly copier use),

Organizers (able to assign tasks to those who have offered their time), and

Companions (meeting with a family who has suffered a loss to assist with choosing readings, hymns, etc. and being present on the day of the funeral).

If you're able to help or want to find out more information, contact Fr. John at jsureau@sjecm.org.

Referral List

SJE's Parish Social Ministry is in need of a referral list of professionals who might be able to assist local parishioners in need. As of now, we are looking for social workers, psychologists, psychiatrists, teachers, nurses and attorneys.

To obtain a parish social ministry memorial card, visit the Rectory Office during regular hours or Parish Outreach from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Friday.

For more information, contact Sister Ann in the Parish Social Ministry Office.

SJE STREET MINISTRY

SJE Street Ministry has been servicing more people each week that we go out. We are up to 40 people! This is all thanks to St. John's generous donations to our Ministry. Since starting in the winter, the Street Ministry has been servicing more families than expected. Due to the amount of families with children, we are in great need of diapers (all sizes) and wipes. We are also in need of the following:

- Water bottles
- Men's belts
- Backpacks
- Deodorant
- Sneakers (Men's, women's and children's sizes)
- Men's and women's socks
- Men's and women's underwear

Financial donations are most welcome as they allow us to purchase items as they are needed.

Sometimes things "come up" and we need to make a quick purchase. Checks may be made payable to St. John the Evangelist and donations can be left in the Parish Office.

CHEFS NEEDED!!!

Presently, we are only able to offer a sandwich and a snack to the nearly 30 people we minister to each night. Beginning in July, we would like to be able to provide a more substantive and nutritional meal. We are asking parishioners, ministries, families, groups to consider helping us. You would prepare the meal and either 1) drop it off and we will put it in individual containers or 2) you could prepare and put it in individual containers. (We can probably arrange to pick it up too!)

This is a great way to help out for those who cannot come out on Thursday nights to help us in this ministry.

If you, your family, or organization would like to make a home-cooked meal for the approximately 30 people we meet, please contact Corinne Bernath at bernath52194@optonline.net or Alex Finta at afinta@sjecm.org or 631-878-0009. No one individual will be responsible for cooking a meal to feed 30 people. If you are interested and do not have a group of cooks, please email us anyway and we will do our best to match you up with other individuals!

Those who acknowledge Christ will be known to the Father.

Discussion Questions

1. How can trust help you handle a situation when you are surrounded by “terror on every side”? How can you build this trust? Should you wait for “terror” to arrive before you start trusting?

2. Discuss the fact that proclaiming the gospel brings some suffering with it. If you let your sufferings be absorbed into Christ do you think they also acquire saving significance for the community or for those you love?

3. If Christ says to “speak in the light” that which he has said in darkness, is that speaking meant to dispel the darkness? What statements in this reading show that Jesus wants to establish a dynamic reality? Can you “proclaim” the Good News today “from the housetops”? What does that mean?

Stewardship

How can I repay the LORD for all the great good done for me?

- Psalm 116:2

Sunday 6/11/17: $16,186
(2016: $14,352)

National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception: $1,436

Each week, we provide envelopes for specific areas of parish life. This allows us to focus our stewardship in certain areas. Ideally, we would love to have a strong regular collection which would make these envelopes unnecessary. Next week, please make use of the Catholic Education envelope and/or place your offering in the regular collection.
