DONATIONS NEEDED!

As many of you may already know our parish is offering a vacation bible camp this summer from July 22-26. Our team of volunteers has been preparing since February and now that we are in the homestretch we'd like to offer our parish family the opportunity to help by donating some of the supplies that we need.

In the fellowship area and at each of the side doors you will see one of our "giving huts." The concept is the same as a giving tree. You simply take a shingle off the roof, purchase that item and return it to the hut by July 7th. This is an easy way to be a part of our parish VBC program! And your help will be such a blessing to the VBC team.

We are also in need of volunteers for that week- especially teens! If you're interested please complete the volunteer form in the bulletin. There will be a meeting for new volunteers this Wednesday 6/26 at 7 pm in the downstairs meeting room if the barn. All are welcome!

YOUTH MINISTRY

A little update on Cub Scout Pack 1227 of St John the Evangelist...

Just four months after we started a new Pack at St. John The Evangelist the boys have already done so much. For instance we've..

- Cleaned a section of beach along Moriches Bay, resulting in the removal of enough garbage a truck was needed to remove it all.
- Put on skits at the Gateway Playhouse. The boys themselves wrote these skits and presented those skits on stage, after some lessons from the acting school Director.
- Participated in the Suffolk County Boy Scout Camporee, commemorating the 100th anniversary of the Suffolk County Scouts, participated in flags across America.
- The placing of US Flags on the graves of deceased veterans,
- Worked with Helping Makes U Happy to provide toiletries and other essential products to veterans in need.

- Built, lit, and maintained the Easter Vigil Fire.
- Replaced the US Flag in front of St. John The Evangelist Church.
- Done other Cub "Scouty" stuff, such as the pinewood derby, cooking, hiking, fishing, first aid training, building projects, learning about ourselves, each other, and having fun. There was just too much to list.

The future is looking busy this summer as well, look for us to...

- Act as the Color guard for a Long Island Ducks game July 21.
- Charter a boat to go fishing.
- Grow 5,000 oysters, and run an oyster farm with our friends The Moriches Bay Project.
- Camping, hiking, maybe even some fly fishing.
- Be an active participant in The St. John the Evangelist Spirit Day, with our own booth, maybe booths and some carnival games put together by the boys themselves.
- And more!

Also, through the innovation and creativity of our pack leaders we are currently able to operate our Cub Scout Pack with out charging weekly, monthly or yearly dues. This helps to give every boy in the community, regardless of their economic background, the opportunity participate in this worthwhile program. Finally, we would like to thank our supporters who have made it possible for our little Pack to begin a new.

Registration is ongoing, for information email: cubscoutpack1227@gmail.com

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I: 1 Kings 19:16B, 19-21

Elijah anoints Elisha to succeed him.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 16:1-2, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11

Second Reading: Galatians 5:1, 13-1

Be guided by the Spirit.

Gospel: Luke 9:51-62

You can not look back with your hand to the plow.

Discussion Questions

1. What was Elisha doing when he was called? Can you think of other bible stories where God called people from their jobs? Does God call you to make changes in your everyday life?
2. "Do you find yourself "biting and devouring" yourself or others? "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," St. Paul says. Do you have actual love for yourself? Do you love your neighbor? Will the Holy Spirit guide you if you ask?
3. "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." Can you still live comfortably if you want to be like Jesus? How important are material possessions to you? Somewhat important? What do you think Jesus wants from you in this regard?

Low Gluten Host Available

Low Gluten Hosts (less than .01% gluten content) are available for those with Celiac Disease who cannot receive Holy Communion using the usual bread. If you need to receive Holy Communion using a low-gluten host, please stop in the sacristy before Mass to discuss this with the priest and see if this will be acceptable for you and/or your child. If you cannot receive the low-gluten host, we can offer a separate chalice for you. We will be happy to accommodate you if we can. Please let us know.
