A Reflection on the Gospel: Matt 10:26-33

"Fear no one."

Fear. We all have it from time to time. But what are we afraid of? If we listen to the news, we might think we should be afraid of just about everything. That's not what God wants for us.

What are we truly fearful of? Is it pain, sickness, death? These are things that only affect our bodies. Why aren't we more afraid of sin, which affects our souls? Shouldn't we be afraid of offending God, who gave us life in the first place?

Jesus said, "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul." Here, He is telling us not to fear things that only pertain to earthly life. Then Jesus said, "Be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna." There is only one created being who can lead to the destruction of the body and soul: the evil one. Notice in the above passage that Our Lord confirms that we will eventually have our resurrected bodies in eternity. Shouldn't we want to secure a future in Heaven with our glorified bodies? It's the destruction of the body and soul that we should fear the most.

What, then, is Fear of the Lord? This phrase has often been misunderstood. Fearing God does not mean being afraid of Him. How could we be afraid of Someone who is pure Love? How could we be afraid of Someone who has counted the number of hairs on our heads? Fearing the Lord means having an overwhelming sense of reverence for His power that inspires awe in our souls. Proverbs 9:10 states: the Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. Wisdom is simply knowing what we ought to do. When children truly have respect for their parents, the only fear they have is the fear of disappointing them. This is because they have grasped the understanding of how deeply their parents love them. Parental love is just a glimpse of the love God has for each of us. Even while dying on the Cross, after 3 hours of torturous pain, with 6 to 8 inch nails driven into His hands and feet, and thorns pierced into His head, and while losing all of the 3.5 liters of Blood in His Body, Jesus was thinking of us, praying, "Father, forgive them." He thought of everything and everyone before Himself. This is who God is, and how much He loves us. We shouldn't fear God; we should fear the loss of Him. And the only thing that could cause us to lose Him is unrepented mortal sin. Jesus said, "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." God doesn't want us to miss the opportunity of spending eternity with Him. In today's Gospel, Jesus said, "What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light" and "Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." One thing we shouldn't be afraid of is talking about our faith. Jesus specifically tells us to do this in the above passages. Those trusted with the truth have a responsibility to speak it, and to live according to it.

Those with whom we share the truth will have the choice to either accept it, or reject it. But to not share it is to waste it. The only thing we should be fearful of is forfeiting our chance to one day live with God in Heaven. That loss would be the worst thing that could happen to any of us. Our souls long for God, which is why nothing in this life will ever bring us perfect happiness. Why take the risk of never entering Heaven? It is the only place we will experience true love, which only God can give.

While God allows us to write our own story, each chapter (good or bad) is ever-open before His eyes. He knows our thoughts, even before we think them. He knows our words, even before we say them. He knows our deeds, even before we do them. He knows how many hours we each shall live, how many breaths we take every day, and He knows the length and storylines of all the dreams we hold in our hearts. One thing we can be sure of is that we can trust Him.

The only time we should fear death is when we are spiritually unprepared for it. Ultimately, we will get what we ourselves have chosen. We should regularly imagine that moment on our journey, when we will appear before Jesus, face to face. We should think about what His face might look like. Will it be one of pure joy, or will there be sorrow in His gaze? The look we see in God's eyes will be determined by what we have chosen for our own destiny. Being sorry (after death) will be of no assistance to us. That is why the Sacrament of Reconciliation is so vitally important. It is a priceless gift from God which we should make use of frequently. Yes, death will come like a thief if we are unprepared, but if we are found in a state of grace, death will be an open doorway to an upward staircase.

When time passes away, and we enter the realm of eternity, we will all be witnesses to God's glorious victory, which has already been purchased through the Blood of Jesus Christ. But for now, we must exist within time and space, in a world where evil is available at our fingertips, and fear is only a news report away. We have seen (and will continue to see) forces seeking to offend God, and to remove Him from society, while trying to replace Him with the pleasures of this world through a variety of temptations of the flesh.

When the final page is written, and God claims His victory, all will be revealed to the world, leaving no room for doubt, for Jesus said, "Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known." Then, when time gives way to eternity, every fleeting pleasure conveniently taken in this world will disappear, and the faithful will receive what only God can give: a world absent of burdens, and full of inexpressible joy, immeasurable peace, and unfathomable Love. We needn't fear evil...as long as we are walking with God.

"Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for you are with me." (Psalm 23:4)

Votive Candles/Altar Candles

A number of votive candles enlighten the beautiful statues in our church. You may have a particular devotion to one of these saints. These candles are next to the statues of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They bring a certain light to the statues and, hopefully, inspire some deeper times of prayer and reflection.

Family Ministry...

Children's Liturgy of the Word

How precious is this? Last weekend at the 10:00 Mass on Father's Day, when the children came up to be dismissed for the Children's Liturgy of the Word program, Fr. Jerry invited them to step up to the sanctuary to help him bless all the fathers, grandfathers, stepfathers, godfathers and all men who serve in fatherly roles. It was absolutely adorable (especially when three little ones remained with Fr. Jerry after the rest of the children left!). When we got to the Auditorium, the children shared about how special it was for them to help with the blessing. They truly are AMAZING! They listened to the readings, responded with enthusiasm to the responsorial psalm and were very attentive to the gospel. During the interactive homily it was clear that they understood their calling to be good disciples and to shine the light of Christ to everyone they meet. And they do! If you need a little extra joy in your life...just volunteer for this ministry. For more information, email clapham@sjecm.org.

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Please take some time look through the back pages of the bulletin! It features many local businesses (and often the work of parishioners) and the good work they do in our community. We have parishioners who do everything from car detailing to car mechanics to lacrosse training to taking care of pets. Take a look and learn more!

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? Not only that, our parish receives a part of the advertising commission.

So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

Also, if your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist—most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area—receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of families in the area with information about your business.

For more information on how to advertise in our bulletin, call The Church Bulletin Company at 631-249-4994
