FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Turn to Our Lady Queen of Apostles In Between Time

Dear Parish Family:

Have you ever found yourself in that inevitable place of transition? You might feel something like this,

"I am where I am right now but I feel I am not going to be in this space for long (the space can be a spiritual place, a job, a place in life, a physical location, etc.). I may not even know where I am going or where the next space may be."

We are in that sort of a space right now. This past Thursday, we celebrated the Solemnity of the Ascension (Acts 1) and next Sunday, we will celebrate Pentecost. This is the space where the disciples found themselves. They are in this room. Jesus has departed as he told them he would. Now what are they called to do?

If we look at our lives and the many facets of our lives, I think you'd agree we find ourselves "in-between" more often than we care to admit. What's coming next? What will be asked of me? How can I take on this next thing? I need to know! So what happens? In days, the Spirit comes and touches the Apostles and empowers them to go forward. We have been reading about the impact of the Spirit in the Acts of the Apostles each week at Mass. Where does the Spirit come or where is it most recognized and needed. Perhaps it is best realized in the uncertainty, in the in-between place.

We are in the days of the Novena to the Holy Spirit. I hope you are praying with us, either here in the Church or on your own. (If you've missed a few days, take a booklet from one of the doors of the Church.) I hope we pray this novena, the first novena of the Church, with an honest assessment of our "in-between" places. I know I do. It's what those Apostles did, no? They were "constant in prayer" (Acts 1:14). It helped them in these "in-between" days. It can help us too.

I was looking back at some previous bulletin columns. (Wait I'm the only one who re-reads them? :)). Prior to Lent, I wrote about prayer and the opportunities for prayer offered throughout Lent. I'm glad we have had so many of these opportunities, including the Liturgy of the Hours, Exposition, First Friday Devotions, the Rosary and more. All of these opportunities are times for us to be "constant in prayer". I am glad that we are going to continue all of these efforts. I hope if you are not joining in some of them, you'll consider it. I hope, too, that we'll be able to offer even more opportunities in the months to come. Come to these moments aware of the "in-between" times and even the fear and worry that might come with them...and pray.

Remember, too, who was with those Apostles — Mary, Our Lady Queen of Apostles. In these "in-between" days let's continue to join with Mary in our prayers to her Son, seeking her intercession and support. May she aid us in creating even more room for the Holy Spirit to dwell in you and in me.

If you can, please say a prayer for me.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

THE DIVINE OFFICE

The Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office or the Work of God (Opus Dei), is the daily prayer of the Church, marking the hours of each day and sanctifying the day with prayer. The Hours are a meditative dialogue on the mystery of Christ, using scripture and prayer. At times the dialogue is between the Church or individual soul and God; at times it is a dialogue among the members of the Church; and at times it is even between the Church and the world.....In the Hours, the royal priesthood of the baptized is exercised, and this sacrifice of praise is thus connected to the sacrifice of the Eucharist, both preparing for and flowing from the Mass.

-Taken from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops -www.usccb.org

We pray the Liturgy of the Hours

Sunday – after the 5:30 p.m. Mass – Our Lady's Chapel

FIRST FRIDAY DEVOTIONS

"Do not let the past disturb you, just leave everything in the Sacred Heart and begin again with joy." ~ Saint Teresa of Calcutta

The tradition of First Friday is part of the larger devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus in the Catholic Church. While the context for the start of First Friday devotions is different than our times today (this originated in the 1600s and 1700s), I think there is a value to our focus, particularly on First Fridays.

On First Friday—including this upcoming Friday:

- We will pray Prayers and the Litany to the Sacred Heart after the 7:00 a.m. and 12 Noon Masses and at 6:30 p.m.
- The opportunity to receive the sacrament of Reconciliation will continue to be offered after the 7 a.m. and 12 Noon Masses.

Let's pray that for those who are able and so desire, this devotion may inspire a deeper conversion to the ways of the Lord. We also offer additional time for Eucharistic Exposition in Seton Chapel from 8 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. (taking place in between our two daily Masses).

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

This Week...Novena to the Holy Spirit

The Novena to the Holy Spirit is the oldest of all the novenas as it was first made at the direction of Our Lord when He sent

His apostles back to Jerusalem to await the coming of the Holy Spirit on the first Pentecost. It is still the only novena officially prescribed by the Church. We continue to pray for the coming of the Holy Spirit in the week ahead. Booklets are available at the doors of the Church and in Seton Chapel.

*All are welcome to join us for one or all sessions.
Novena booklets will be provided.*

Thanks to all our amazing volunteers! The blood center recognizes our parish as a valuable 'customer'.

The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul

Today as we celebrate the feast of the Ascension we are reminded that Christ's saving work on Earth continues through his disciples... and now through us. When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and into the hearts of those who are poor.

For assistance email depaul@sjecm.org or contact Alex Finta in the parish Social Ministry Office.

BRINGING UP THE GIFTS OF BREAD AND WINE

St. John's invites family members of those for whom the Mass is being offered to bring up the gifts of bread and wine at that Mass. (On the weekend, please inform any of the ushers 10 minutes prior to the beginning of Mass).

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Many have commented positively about some of the new features of our parish bulletin.

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? Not only that, our parish receives a part of the advertising commission. So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

If your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist—most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area—receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of area families with information about your business.

For more information on how to advertise in our bulletin, call The Church Bulletin Company at 631-249-4994.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS Pentecost Sunday

Reading I: Acts 2:1-11

The Spirit comes to the Apostles as tongues of fire.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3B-7, 12-13 or Romans 8:8-17

The Spirit of God dwells in us.

Gospel: John 20:19-23 or John 14:15-16, 23B-26

Jesus promises the disciples the Paraclete.

Discussion Questions

1. The nations were confused and amazed because everyone heard what the apostles were saying, but each perceived it in his own language. If you were completely open to the Holy Spirit, would you have a deeper understanding of everything that you hear? Was the miracle in the speaking or the hearing? How does the Holy Spirit use the miracle of hearing with you?

2. Compare God breathing life into Adam with Jesus breathing the Holy Spirit into the disciples. What does this comparison signify for you? The disciples' first task after receiving the Holy Spirit was to forgive sins. What impact does forgiveness of sin have on peace?

You're invited to the Men's Group, which meets every Saturday at 9 AM at the Convent (White House). For more information please contact Fr. Michael.
