FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Remembering First Holy Communion... WHERE ARE YOU?

Dear Parish Family:

Today we celebrate the last of our “First” Holy Communions on this Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. The First Holy Communions have been wonderful celebrations and it has been affirming to see many second, third and fourth Holy Communions in the weeks since.

I cannot help but remember my own First Holy Communion at Our Lady of Lourdes in West Islip on May 7, 1983. (I know I was adorable and you don't have to tell me :)!). I remember weeks of practicing and preparing and the excitement of receiving First Holy Communion on a Saturday morning. We were prepared by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Brentwood and prepared we were! They were exciting days. While I'm not sure I knew any more than any other second grader, the years that followed allowed me to grow in deeper and deeper awareness of the Real Presence in the Eucharist. (By the way, glasses were big in the 80s!)

I think of our journey over the past year. There have been a lot of liturgical challenges worshipping as we presently do in a temporary space that also serves as a “Gymatorium”. It hasn't been the easiest time. With a change in the place comes a change in routine and then often comes some disorientation with our routine and things become less reverent and easily bad habits can creep in. I know it has happened to me—maybe to you, too? As we prepare to return to the restored church building, maybe it's a good time for a little “check-up” on our habits and preparation for Holy Communion—before, and after Mass. Each can be summed up in our answer to one question— “Where are you?”

Where are you—before Mass? How are you and I coming to Mass? Are we rushing in at the last minute? Getting there late? Or perhaps we make excuses about parking and hide behind those? How are we dressing for Mass? Is it any different than going to the local softball game? Shouldn't it be? Yet would we ever think about being late to a grandchild's dance recital or son's baseball game or dressing poorly for our niece's wedding reception? Probably not. How about praying quietly and taking some time— say five or ten minutes before Mass begins—to arrive? Have we forgotten about the communion fast and taking that time to prepare ourselves for communion? What about confession? (There are plenty of opportunities here—see page 12.) Even better, what about reading the readings ahead of time at Mass? Come prepared!

Where are you—during Mass? You ever find yourself tuned out? Maybe not listening to the readings or becoming distracted by the comings and goings of the Auditorium? Perhaps not singing because you don't care for this hymn or that one? Maybe not even praying the Eucharistic Prayer and allowing your mind to wander? Maybe not receiving the Eucharist in a proper manner? Have we added rituals and symbols to our reception of communion that are not in line with the liturgical practices of the Church? Do we do things at Mass to get attention or notice instead of praying communally as the church calls us to pray? Have we made our reception of communion our own personal act, and not a communal act of the assembly gathered? At times, maybe we're thinking about leaving early, convincing ourselves if we receive the sacred host, it's enough of Mass? (It's not, by the way!) As we enter the restored church building, let's be fully present to the liturgy and the eucharist giving everything we have got to the celebration!

Where are you—after Mass? We are often in a rush. What if we made an effort as a parish to stay a little longer after Mass? What about a quiet personal prayer of thanksgiving in the pew (yes there will be pews! And kneelers! Yeah!) after Mass is over? By how you live, have you and I become “what we have received—the Body of Christ”? Or have we gone back to life like the Mass didn't even happen? Be prepared to be sent forth from the Mass!

The return to the restored church building is a great opportunity for each and every one of us! We will have a new physical answer to the question, “Where are you?” Let's pray that when it comes to the deeper call of the Eucharist, we will have a deeper answer to the question “Where are you? By responding, “Here I am, Lord, present to you.” Who knows? You might even become as adorable as that kid in the picture!

Fasting wakes us up. It makes us more attentive to God and our neighbor. It revives our desire to obey God, who alone is capable of satisfying our hunger." - Pope Francis

NOVENA OF SPIRIT AND TRUTH + JUNE 14— JUNE 22, 2018

HOLY GROUND GARDEN PROJECT

As part of the Novena of Spirit and Truth, we are seeking to beautify our parish and school grounds—not just for June 23rd - but for time to come!

Here's how you and your family or group of friends or ministry can help! We are asking each family to begin taking care of a part of our parish's grounds by planting and maintaining that area for our parish and school!

It's as easy as 1...2...3...4...5...

1. Talk to your family or group of friends!
2. Decide where you would ideally like to have a piece of the land (Church, School, The Barn, Rectory, Convent).
Please understand we may not be able to meet everyone's request for a space!
3. Consider if there is someone you would like to plant in honor of—perhaps a member of your family or a parishioner or member of the school community—living or deceased.
4. Turn in this form or email (even better) your response to Sarah Dern at sdern11@gmail.com no later than June 10th!
5. Look for directions and a specific spot assignment on June 11th.
We'll tell your spot and our requests! We are not going to be too picky just want things to sort of blend together!

Yes! We have our green thumbs ready and we cannot wait to make the grounds of SJE and OLQA even more full the signs of God's goodness!

Name (Individual/Group/Ministry) _____

Best Phone # _____

Best E-mail _____@_____

We want to take care God's good and holy ground at SJE and OLQA in honor of _____

(We're hoping to make small signs for this—if you know how to do this, let Fr. John know!)

We are open but would love to plant and maintain near the...

___ Church ___ School ___ Red Barn ___ Convent Building ___ Rectory

Return this form or email (even better) your response to Sarah Dern at sdern11@gmail.com no later than June 10th!

REBUILD + REPAIR + RESTORE

Your people shall rebuild the ancient ruins; the foundations from ages past you shall raise up; "Repairer of the breach," they shall call you, "Restorer of ruined dwellings."
-Isaiah 58:11-12

A Piano Once Lost, is Now Found:

About 20 years ago a generous family donated our 1913 6'2" Baldwin Grand Piano. Up until last year it remained in several places in the gym of the school and was slowly, and heavily damaged. In the winter of 2017, St. John's commissioned a small project to have the piano brought up to usable condition for music classes, and school concerts. Jimmy Osborne of Center Moriches, NY was commissioned to make a new music rack, replace several broken strings, reattach the lid hinges, top stick, thoroughly tune, and install the pedal lyre. The piano played again was used thereafter for music classes in the gym. The piano was then featured at the May 18th Spring Concert. We had no idea that following that day it would lead us at Mass in the gym for several months, exclusively, following the fire in the church.

In these days of rebuilding, repairing and restoring,, the Pastoral Team thought it would be a good occasion to have the piano restored for the new church building. On April 18th, 2018 the piano was picked up from the school and remains at a shop where the entire furniture case will be stripped down, refinished, and made showroom condition. Additionally the entire action, regulation, and adjustment of keys will be performed to make the piano feel like new. It's a very exciting project and we are delighted that it's warm American tone, and thunderous bass sound will finally grace the marvelous acoustics of our new church building, as it's donating family originally intended. The piano is scheduled to arrive back to us at the end of the June, 2018. Dedication of this renewed instrument will take place in the fall. More details on those dates to be published as we get closer!

Prison Families Anonymous

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me."

Matthew 25:35-36

Prison Families Anonymous welcomes anyone who now has, or ever had, a loved one involved in the juvenile or criminal justice system. At meetings, we share our experience, strength and hope. Here we offer information and assistance in navigating the criminal justice system. We encourage members to exchange phone numbers and when possible to carpool to upstate prisons.

Prison Families Anonymous (PFA)

The Prison Families Anonymous Support Group meets on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of every month starting at 7:30 P.M. at the Community Presbyterian Church

Deer Park, NY 11729

Northeast corner of Deer Park and Lake Ave. Use rear door closest to parking lot.

"This is My Body." These four little words are spoken from opposite ends of the universe, with totally opposite results. Christ gives His Body away so others might live; abortion supporters cling to their own bodies... Christ says, "This is My Body given up for you; This is My Blood shed for you." These are the words of sacrifice; these are the words of love."

~Fr. Frank Pavone~

"Abortion is one of those fundamental issues. If the very right to life is taken away then no other right matters. You don't have the ability to hold another right or to have another right taken away. So, while health care, the right to a good education, housing, and all of these issues are very, very important, they are meaningless if the right to life is not first protected." ~Cathleen Cleaver~

Those who do the will of God are family to Jesus.

Discussion Questions

1. Adam and Eve sinned because they had free will. We still sin. There is no garden of Eden anymore but did God the Father give us anything that makes our home on earth a holy place?
2. If Adam is responsible for the “seen” and Christ is responsible for the “unseen,” could Adam’s sin be a “happy fault”? It brought Christ into our world to bring us more of an abundance of grace than we would have had in the garden of Eden.
3. Is the doing the will of God always easy? Do you think it was easy for Jesus when he figured out what God was asking him to do? Do you always know what the will of God is in a situation? What helps?
