A Message from Lynn Walsh....

How many times has everyone reading this reflection made the Sign of the Cross? For most of us that number is likely incalculable. The Sign of the Cross is the most outward expression of our faith, yet what does it really mean-In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit? The Blessed Trinity is the central mystery of our Christian faith and life, and it is a mystery because our human, finite minds are incapable of understanding it through reason alone. God reveals himself as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God has made it known to us and it is an element of faith.

According to the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults, the distinction of each member of the Trinity is understood only in reference to the others. The Father cannot be the father without the Son, nor can the Son be the Son without the Father. The Holy Spirit is related to the Father and the Son who both send him forth. Likewise, to better understand the Trinity, Pope Francis once encouraged us to consider each name of the three persons of the Holy Trinity "which we pronounce every time we make the Sign of the Cross. Each name contains the presence of the other." "The Father, for example, would not be such without the Son, likewise, the Son cannot be considered alone, but always of the Son of the Father. And the Holy Spirit, in turn, is the Spirit of the Father and the Son." "In short," Pope Francis added, the Trinity teaches us that one can never be without the other. We are not islands. We are in the world to live in God's image, open, in need of others, and in need of helping others."

Heady stuff, and if you're anything like me, the Holy Spirit is the biggest mystery of all. Even Pope Benedict said in 2008, "The Holy Spirit has been in some ways the neglected person of the Blessed Trinity. A clear understanding of the Holy Spirit almost seems beyond our reach." Pope Benedict further stated, "While I grew up to have some understanding of God the Father and Son-the names already conveyed much-my understanding of the third person of the Trinity remained incomplete." If it was confounding to Pope Benedict, I am not too proud to admit that it remains somewhat confounding to me, this, Holy Spirit; The Lord, the giver of Life, who proceeds from the Father and the son...

The Holy Spirit is referred to by many names: counselor, comforter, friend, paraclete. I read an article where the Holy Spirit was called the "Teacher of the Soul and Protector of Truth (Trenton Mattingly) -how magnificent! The Holy Spirit is often depicted as a dove or as flames. I have seen The Holy Spirit referred to as the love between the Father and the son.

We know that Jesus, when he returned to the Father, promised to send us an advocate. The Advocate, the holy spirit that the Father will send in my name-he will teach you everything and remind you of all that I have told you. (John 14:26) Indeed, we have been assured that the Holy Spirit imparts to us seven gifts (wisdom, understanding, counsel, knowledge, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord,) and twelve fruits, (charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity.) In short, it is the Holy Spirit who brings the power for a godly life.

An Ecumenical Christian Prayer on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

By Pope Francis

*O God, Trinity of love,
from the profound communion of your divine life,
pour out upon us a torrent of fraternal love.
Grant us the love reflected in the actions of Jesus,
in his family of Nazareth,
and in the early Christian community.*

*Grant that we Christians may live the Gospel, discovering Christ in each human being,
recognizing him crucified
in the sufferings of the abandoned and forgotten of our world,
and risen in each brother or sister who makes a new start.*

*Come, Holy Spirit, show us your beauty, reflected in all the peoples of the earth,
so that we may discover anew
that all are important and all are necessary, different faces of the one humanity
that God so loves. Amen.*

Remembering Our Loved Ones

Altar bread and wine for the month of June has been donated:

In Memory of Goncalo Rego

SJE offers a number of ways to remember loved ones, or honor someone living.

Mass Intentions

Remembering one who has passed away at Mass is a most noble practice calling us to pray for one who has died at the most powerful prayer we know—the celebration of the Eucharist.

Altar Bread and Wine

Names will be listed in each bulletin during the course of that month.

For the month an offering of $150 is requested

Votive Candles/Altar Candles

A number of votive candles enlighten the beautiful statues in our church. You may have a particular devotion to one of these saints. These candles are next to the statues of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They bring a certain light to the statues and, hopefully, inspire some deeper times of prayer and reflection.

Altar Candles - $25.00 per week

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Ex 34:4b-6, 8-9 | 2 Cor 13:11-13 | Jn 3:16-18

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Last Sunday the Church celebrated the Solemnity of Pentecost: the birthday of the Church and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit into the world. Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, giving adoration and glory to the three divine persons in our one God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – three in unity, or Triune. In the Gospel we heard, John tells us: “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son.” If you’re going to write one Bible verse on a piece of cardboard and hold it up at a football game, this is it! John 3:16 encapsulates a Christian belief: We are loved by the Father beyond measure, and that love is incarnated – takes human flesh – in the divine person of his Son. But there is something deeper within this verse that comes to light much later in the Gospel: Jesus revealed that when he, the Son, returned to the Father, he would not leave us alone. (Jn 14: 26-28) Instead, the Holy Spirit came to be with us and remain with us. This is our God whom we celebrate and give thanks to: one in being, three in person. His love is unceasing and his Spirit dwells within and among us to guide us, advocate for us, and draw us ever closer to himself in that love.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

When it comes to evangelization, you could write a Bible verse on a piece of cardboard, hold it up in a crowded place and hope it piques someone’s interest. But we can take a cue from St. Paul in the second reading as well. He encourages us to mend our ways, encourage one another and “greet one another with a holy kiss.” And then he offers a prayer for the Corinthians: “The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.” Imagine what the world would be like if we all lived like that – if we worked to mend our mistakes, encouraged each other, and earnestly prayed for the grace, love, and fellowship of God to be upon every person. That would be a true witness to God’s presence in the world.

PRAY This week, pray a Holy Trinity novena. The word “novena” comes from the Latin word for “nine,” and they typically include nine days of prayer, asking God for a specific intention, and beginning or ending on a feast or solemnity. Trust in the Triune God who loves you and offer him your heart. You may find the comfort or wisdom you seek.

A message from Fr. Patrick...

This year marks the 125th anniversary of the Parish of St. John the Evangelist. What an incredible milestone to celebrate, St. John's has been a corner stone of our community for 125 years! The roots of our parish go back to the mid-1870's according to the records of the Dioceses of Brooklyn, which at the time included Long Island. The first Mass was celebrated on August 1, 1897. Since that time our Parish has experienced tremendous growth both spiritually and socially and whose faith has served to grow our parish community. Together we have made St. John's a strong and loving place to worship as well as a beacon of light and resilience in the Center Moriches community.

To recognize this amazing milestone St. John's is producing a commemorative journal, published by the Tide which will reach all households and businesses in Center Moriches, East Moriches, Moriches, and our surrounding communities. We want to extend an invitation to you to join us in the celebration by placing a commemorative ad in our Journal. It is our hope that our journal will be a keepsake for our parish community and an excellent resource for you to promote your business as well as a way for our parish family to congratulate and/or memorialize friends and family members. The flyer to the right, includes the ad pricing and details. We are sure that there is one that fits your interest in supporting St. John's.

We ask that you consider taking an ad in our commemorative journal. Your support will allow our Parish to continue to strengthen and grow for our next 125 years. If you have questions or need additional information you can call 631.878.0009 or email St. John's at History@sjecm.org and someone from our committee will get back to you.

As we reflect on our past with gratitude, our present with appreciation and to the future we look with great hope, we ask for your continued support during this period of celebration.

This year marks the 125th anniversary of the parish of St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church in Center Moriches.

To recognize this amazing milestone, St. John's is producing a commemorative journal that will be mailed out the beginning of August to every home and business in Center Moriches, East Moriches, Moriches and more. Our journal will be a special way to celebrate the Parish and its rich history in the Center Moriches community. We invite you to become part of the history of St. John's by taking one of the following color ads in our journal.

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Please take some time look through the back pages of the bulletin! It features many local businesses (and often the work of parishioners) and the good work they do in our community. We have parishioners who do everything from car detailing to car mechanics to lacrosse training to taking care of pets. Take a look and learn more!

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? Not only that, our parish receives a part of the advertising commission.

So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

Also, if your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist—most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area—receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of families in the area with information about your business.

For more information on how to advertise in our bulletin, call The Church Bulletin Company at 631-249-4994
