FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

125 Years

Where do you want to be in 2023?

Dear Parish Family:

I started to write this letter on Monday after being part of a meeting of parish ministry leaders in the Auditorium. It is important to come together. There were practical things that always need some discussion like the calendar and our safe environment procedures. There was time for prayer. There were times for some deeper calls like ways to better involve our ministry members in other parts of the life of the parish and how we can grow deeper and deeper in our love for Christ and His Church.

Walking to Night Prayer and Benediction on Monday night in Seton Chapel, I could not help but think of this weekend's second reading. St. Paul tells us, "There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord" (1 Corinthians 12:4). There are such a variety of gifts here. There are "different forms of service, but the same Lord" (1 Corinthians 12:5). Represented at this meeting was ministries of outreach and organization, service and spirituality, prayer and presence. Indeed, a wide variety of gifts and talents.

Think of this feast of Pentecost. Think of that locked room in the first reading. Surrounded by each other, these early disciples with their different talents and gifts come together to build the foundations of the Church. They are not the same. We know they had a great disagreements. They did not see things the same way. Yet they came together, for it's the same Spirit, the same Lord. We do the same here at SJE.

This past March, I met with the Pastoral Council, the Finance Council and the Pastoral Team to begin the process of looking at the 125th anniversary of the parish. This takes place in 2023. Beginning in the late summer and early fall, each one of us is going to be asked to enter into this process. Coming from a place of prayer and discernment, I hope we can look at the question above and consider our hopes and dreams for this parish community. These hopes and dreams may involve ministries and mission, buildings and budgets, prayer and possibilities. What will the answers to the question above be? I have no idea. I am excited to see where the Spirit will lead us.

Tonight, as I am finishing this column (with about an hour to spare), I am returning to my office after praying with our Level 7 students at the Sponsor Enrollment Prayer Service in the Church. Sponsors made a public commitment tonight to guide and mentor our next group of Confirmation candidates. It was a church filled with "different gifts" for sure. I think of them and consider what sort of parish will we need to be for them. What will they bring to make our parish even stronger in 2023?

On the way over here, I helped to set up the bread in the Convent Kitchen that will be used by members of the IGHIL community tomorrow morning to make peanut butter and jelly sandwiches for the Street Ministry tomorrow night (Thursday). What a great example—different gifts, different ministries!

In a multitude of ways, the Spirit is at work in the young person discerning the Spirit, the ministry leader preparing for a year ahead, the gifted member of IGHIL serving the poor and vulnerable, the sponsor willing to take a more active role in the life of someone who needs them.

Because of your incredible response to the Spirit at work, look at how the Lord is calling us and calling us to leave our spaces (see the first reading and the Gospel) and to go out to meet Him more powerfully in prayer, service and learning. I do not know where we are going to be in 2023. If we respond then as we are trying to now, I think we're going to be in pretty good shape.

CORPUS CHRISTI

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

Saturday, June 22, 2019 + Following 5:00 p.m. Mass

Procession throughout the streets of Center Moriches followed by Exposition in the Church

Evening Prayer/Benediction—8:00 p.m. + Church

(NOTE: The 7:30 p.m. Spanish Mass will NOT take place this night.)

From Seminarian Raf:

I was born in Poland. It was the time of the communism. I remember very well this strange time. For my family, which was very faithful and never signed the list to become in the Communism Party, it was a very hard time. My mother was a teacher and my father was a director Rail in Krakow. Because he didn't sign the list he lost his job. Many people were investigated about whether they went to Church to worship or not. The government agents took photos of the people who gathered together during the Church's feasts like Christmas, Easter or the big feast of Corpus Christi. In Poland the Corpus Christi procession is very long and very solemn. We built four altars and not only say the Gospel but also preach four homilies. Everything begins at 9 a.m. and ends about 1 p.m. So, I grew up in this time, but from my youth my parents took me to the Church where we felt free. I remember when I was 8 or 9 when the Priest kept the Lamb of God the voice inside me told me, do this in memory of me. From this moment I wanted to be a Priest. Participation in the procession of Corpus Christi is deeply rooted in the Polish tradition of our faith, our spirituality and our religiosity. The Solemnity of Corpus Christi, for Polish people, was always a manifestation of our faith and freedom in this faith in the Church. For me the procession of Corpus Christi is not only a devotion and public confession of faith in the presence of Christ in Holy Sacrament. It is also an invitation to Him for the paths of my life. Participation in the Corpus Christi procession is a testimony of my faith and also a testimony to others, to those who look out the window and do not know what it is, or pass the sidewalk curiously next to the procession.

Look for more information in next week's bulletin about our Corpus Christi procession here at SJE!

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

THE DIVINE OFFICE

The Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office or the Work of God (Opus Dei), is the daily prayer of the Church, marking the hours of each day and sanctifying the day with prayer. The Hours are a meditative dialogue on the mystery of Christ, using scripture and prayer. At times the dialogue is between the Church or individual soul and God; at times it is a dialogue among the members of the Church; and at times it is even between the Church and the world....In the Hours, the royal priesthood of the baptized is exercised, and this sacrifice of praise is thus connected to the sacrifice of the Eucharist, both preparing for and flowing from the Mass.

Meeting will take place on Jun 17th at 7:00 PM in the Red Barn. Come if you'd like to help water or weed this summer.

Compost Guidelines

Next to Heaven's Harvest. Please place donations in bin next to the composter instead of directly in the compost.

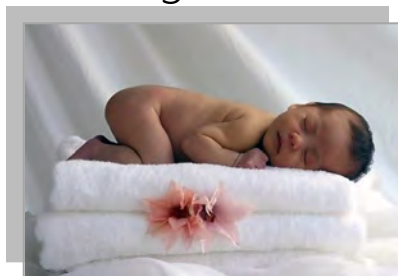

All organic (once alive) materials are acceptable. These would include all raw vegetables and fruits, all their cores, skins and peels. They should be uncooked and free of any oils or salad dressings. They can be collected and stored in anything you have around, an old coffee can or empty jars. They can also be put in a plastic bag and stored in the freezer, adding to it as you go along. Do NOT INCLUDE any kind of meat, poultry, fish or bones. These materials will create an odor and will attract rodents to the garden.

COME JOIN OUR LADY'S ARMY THE LEGION OF MARY

One of the wonderful ways to become more involved in parish life here at St. John the Evangelist is through The Legion of Mary. The Legion meets regularly and welcomes you to join in praying the rosary, spiritual readings, and discussing service to our neighbors in need.

Membership is open to men and women of all ages. The Legion is a great opportunity to join a community of faith-in-action, grow closer to Jesus and Mary, and support our Pastor and our church. Active Member activities include evangelization work, visits to the sick and aged, outreach to our neighbors, religious education, prison and hospital ministry, and escorting the Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Fatima to homes in the parish. We also lead our parish's First Saturday Program, sponsor St. John's annual May Crowning of our Lady, and promote special events, pilgrimages, and retreats with other Legions on Long Island.

The Legion of Mary meets every Thursday at 4:00 PM in our Red Barn. Individuals unable to commit to active membership can support us in prayer through auxiliary membership. Please call Judy Paulsen at 631-878-5872 or Christine Cappiello at 631-757-9834 for more information. Come spread the love of Jesus with our Lady's help.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Reading I: Proverbs 8:22-31

Wisdom is begotten of God.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 8:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

Second Reading: Romans 5:1-5

We boast of our hope and afflictions.

Gospel: John 16:12-15

The Spirit will guide the Apostles to all truth.

Discussion Questions

1. The reading says, "I found delight in the human race." Do you take delight in the human race? Do you think anyone takes delight in you? Does God? Does Christ?
2. Why would God include us intimately in the divine love of the Trinity? If divine love is flowing through you while you are suffering, do you think your condition can help the world?
3. Does the Spirit add anything to God's revelation? Does the Spirit change your understanding of revelation? When you receive new insights, what is the source of them? Can understanding of divine love be exhausted? Have you ever reached a place where "you could not bear" more knowledge of love?

You're invited to the Men's Group, which meets every Saturday at 9 AM at the Convent (White House). For more information please contact Fr. Michael.
