

St. John the Evangelist

Roman Catholic Church

Inspired by our Patron, St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church in Center Moriches seeks to bring the light of Christ to a world in need, so that as Christ has done, we may also do. From the celebration of the Eucharist, we are sent forth to serve God and neighbor through ministries of formation, education and outreach.

PHASES AND TRANSITIONS

Dear Parish Family:

I prepare this letter on July 8th as our region of New York State enters Phase 4 of reopening. These are trying times and we want to take each step as carefully as possible. (There is a separate sheet of information for you on pages 7 and 8 about how this impacts the worship and workings of our parish.)

I want to write today about some phases and transition in the life of our parish and those who have touched the life of our community. In the midst of all this happening in our country and world, the work of the Church continues.

Fr. Michael. Fr. Michael's last day at SJE will be August 10th. This will allow him to move into his new residence at Christ the King in Commack (whose pastor is SJE's own, Fr. Rob Ketcham) and allow him to get things established at St. Anthony's High School. We are going to have a fun farewell for Fr. Michael on Monday, August 3rd! We moved it a week later once we received the information about his transfer date.

Please keep Fr. Michael and our parish in your prayers. This change in phase in the life of a priest is tough especially taking leave of your first priestly assignment. It is a beautiful opportunity for Fr. Michael and a gift for the young people of families of St. Anthony's High School. The in-between time is a tough phase to be in, for sure!

Welcome Fr. Jaime! This week, I learned we will be assigned a new priest to SJE. Fr. Jaime Calderon-Hernandez will come to SJE from St. Mary's in East Islip. I met Fr. Jaime (pronounced Hi-mee) a few weeks ago. I can tell you he is very excited to be coming here. In addition to this full-time work here at St. John's, Fr. Jaime will continue his work with the Spanish community at St. Jude's in Mastic Beach. Fr. Jaime and I will work with Fr. Ryan at St. Jude's and Bishop Henning and Bishop Romero to see how we can work more closely in this area in the months ahead.

I do not have an exact date as to when Fr. Jaime's assignment will begin here at SJE. As I learn more I will share it with you. We look forward to the many gifts he will share with our parish community.

Congratulations Fr. Raf! On June 20, Seminarian Raf became Fr. Raf! We are so happy for him. Fr. Rafal has been assigned to Our Lady of Victory in Floral Park. His first pastor, Fr. Tom Fusco, is one of the finest pastors in the diocese. He is in good hands! (And he's around good Polish food in Floral Park.) As things move forward, I will invite Fr. Raf back to SJE to celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving. If you want to reach out to Fr. Raf, his new address is 2 Floral Parkway, Floral Park, NY 11001.

Seminarian Joe! I want to give you an update on Seminarian Joe Catafago! Seminarian Joe is spending this summer at St. Dominic's R.C. Church in Oyster Bay. He, too, is being guided by one the great pastors of our diocese, Fr. Tom Coogan. He will return to St. Joseph's Seminary in Dunwoodie in the Fall. God willing, he will be ordained a deacon in the Fall and a priest next spring. We miss Semi-seminarian Joe's great pastoral spirit and heart here! Seminarian Joe's address in Oyster Bay is 93 Anstice Street, Oyster Bay NY 11771. Reach out to him and let him know he's in your prayers!

July 12, 2020

Seminarian Louis Cona. I am happy to tell you that another seminarian is being assigned to St. John the Evangelist this August. Louis Cona will be joining our parish for his pastoral year assignment. Louis presently studies in Rome in preparation for ordination. He is from Franklin Square where he encountered another wonderful priest years ago - Fr. Walter Kedjierski. Fr. Walter's first assignment as a priest was at St. Catherine's R.C. Church in Franklin Square. Seminarian Louis will introduce himself in the weeks ahead. I am excited for all he will bring to (and gain from) you in the year ahead.

Paul Clores. Many of you have asked about Paul Clores. Paul lived here as a seminarian from 2017-18. At this time, Paul will not move forward with formation to the priesthood in our diocese. Paul lived and served (and learned and grew) here during a very difficult time in our parish. He saw the power of a Christ-centered community and learned so much from it. This, too, is a tough time for Paul and a tough transition, for sure. Discernment is not for the weak. I ask that you keep Paul and his family in your thoughts and prayers. If you would like to reach out to Paul, you can send any cards or notes to my attention here at St. John's and I'll make sure he receives them. We remember Paul's great devotion to Mary. Let's ask the Blessed Mother to continue to comfort and encourage him in these times as he continues to discern all the Lord has in store for him.

This week's Gospel is one we probably know pretty well. It is the parable of the sower and the seed, a parable that invites us to consider God's outpouring of love and how open we are to allowing it to take root in us. As I consider all the phases and transitions our parish has embraced in these years, I think it is pretty clear that we have the potential of being good ground for those discerning God's call to Holy Orders and those doing their best to live it out! This is a credit to you. By your witness and worship, your prayer and presence, you provide support, encouragement, good challenge, and great grace to all who serve here, especially me.

Let's continue to pray God will give us - as individuals and as parish - what we need to be good ground for all who come our way.

Please say a prayer for me!

"Not infrequently a kind of opposition is constructed between theology and pastoral care, as if they were two opposite, separate realities that have nothing to do with one another. Not infrequently, we identify doctrine with the conservative, the retrograde; and, on the other side, we think that pastoral care is an adaptation, a reduction, and an accommodation, as if they had nothing to do with each other. Thus, we create a false opposition between theology and pastoral care; between the believer's reflection and the believer's life; life, then has no space for reflection and reflection finds no space in life. The great fathers of the church, Irenaeus, Augustine, Basil, and Ambrose, to name a few, were great theologians because they were great pastors. One of the contributions of the Second Vatican Council was seeking a way to overcome this divorce of theology and pastoral care, between faith and life. I dare to say that it revolutionized, to some extent, the status of theology – the believer's way of doing and thinking."

Summer Evening Prayer

at St. John the Evangelist

Let's come together as a parish family and give thanks to God for his many blessings, especially the gift of summer! These nights we will celebrate Evening Prayer and of course have some good food and fellowship to share as well.

We need some parishioners to help plan these nights... it will only involve one or two meetings! Are you good at organizing? Do you like to have fun? Can you throw a party? Do you like to bring people together? If so, this is the group for you!

If you're able to come, please let Fr. John know by calling 631.878.0009 or send an e-mail to jsureau@sjecm.org

SAVE THE DATE

We're getting ready to send Fr. Michael to St. Anthony's High School!

Did you notice those volunteers with the orange shirts? Well, we have more shirts and we need more volunteers!

Can you be part of the Cana Care Crew by assisting with seating, organizing and cleaning in between Masses each weekend? As we move to Phase 4, our greatest work will be cleaning up after Masses. If you're able to help, please email Andrew McKeon at music@sjecm.org or call at 631.878.0009, x.115 to receive the Google sign up or to give your information.

Thank you!

PHASE IV UPDATES

As of today, our region of New York State enters a new phase in our state's reopening in this time of pandemic. This is not a time to be less vigilant. It's actually a time to be even more vigilant as we want to keep everyone safe and not have to shut back down because of any increase in illness.

- Church capacity will now be at 50%, approximately 300 people.
- Masks are NOT optional.
 - If you do not wear a mask, you will be asked to leave the church building. Please do not put anyone in the uncomfortable position of asking you to leave the building.
 - Masks are worn as means of protection, more for the people around you than you. If you struggle wearing one as I do, offer it up and consider it an act of charity.
- Our Cana Care Crew will continue to be present but with more open pews we will need to work more independently.
 - All must maintain a six foot distance, unless you live with the people you are sitting next too...so this might mean..
 - In one row, two individuals or groups may sit at either end of the pew. In the next open row, an individual or group should sit in the center of that row.
 - Please continue to use caution and prudence (and good humor) at all times!
 - We are still prepared to celebrate "overflow" Masses in the school auditorium on Saturday evenings and Sundays.
- We will add two additional communion stations at Sunday Mass.
 - Please follow the directions of the Cana Care Crew members.
 - Please keep a 6 foot distance when on the communion line.
 - Please receive communion in the hand.
- ✦ Thank you to those who have made this sacrifice. While receiving communion on the tongue is not my experience, I so appreciate the offering those who regularly receive on the tongue have made in these weeks and months. It is another layer of protection and caution and eases anxiety for the ministers of communion, including this one.
- ✦ The obligation to attend Sunday Mass is still lifted.
 - However, it might be good for some of us to take a step back to life of prayer here at SJE.
 - If Sunday Mass might be too much right now, consider coming to Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from 3-7 Monday – Thursday which has a smaller crowd and a more room to spread out.

O Mary,
 You shine continuously on our journey
 as a sign of salvation and hope.
 We entrust ourselves to you,
 Health of the Sick,
 who, at the foot of the cross,
 were united with Jesus' suffering,
 and persevered in your faith.
 "Protectress of the Roman people",
 you know our needs,
 and we know t hat you will provide,
 so that, as at Cana in Galilee,
 joy and celebration
 may return
 after this time of trial.
 Help us,
 Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the will of the Father and to do what Jesus tells us.
 For he took upon himself
 our suffering,
 and burdened himself
 with our sorrows
 to bring us, through the cross,
 to the joy of the Resurrection.
 Amen.

*We fly to your protection,
 O Holy Mother of God;
 Do not despise our petitions
 in our necessities,
 but deliver us always
 from every danger,
 O Glorious and Blessed Virgin.*
 -Pope Francis

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION UPDATES!

Attention all Level 2 Students and Families! Please check your email for more information about First Holy Communion at SJE!

St. John the Evangelist R. C. Church

8 July 2020

Dear Level 2 Families:

We hope you are all doing well during these challenging times. We find that we are always looking for some signs of hope in these days. We hope this letter becomes one of them!

We will celebrate First Holy Communions at St. John the Evangelist in late July and early August for our Level 2 students.

Details....Details...Details!

There's a lot to go over here, so please read through this letter fully and carefully! We know you understand as we do that these are tentative times. We are all a little more careful and cautious in these days. So here are some things to note:

- First Holy Communions will be held on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday late afternoons and evenings. We will not have any First Holy Communions for SJE on Saturday mornings.
 - We are still working to schedule a number of funerals and memorial masses for families who lost loved ones during the height of the pandemic and were unable to celebrate funeral masses at that time. And...we have re-scheduled weddings.
- At present, we are limited to a 50% capacity in the Church. Each First Holy Communion candidate will be limited to seven (7) family members and friends.
- We have doubled the amount of First Holy Communion Masses so each group will be a bit smaller. (Students have been assigned by class).
- Masks are to be worn by every person in the church building and social distancing is required of those who do not live together.
 - If you would like, make a special mask for First Holy Communion. Include a symbol of the Eucharist!
- It has been a tradition to make an offering at the time of First Holy Communion.
 - If you are able, we are asking for a donation of $25 per child. This helps cover some of the expenses associated with First Holy Communion.
 - All offerings may be made online by going to: <https://stjohntheevangelistcm.weshareonline.org/> and scrolling down to the "Faith Formation Communion Offering" on the bottom of the page.
- Masses will be live streamed and then uploaded to our parish YouTube page. If there are family members or friends who cannot attend or do not feel they should, they may pray with us virtually. (Unfortunately, due to a number of factors, we are unable to have a video produced this year, but we will still have the Live Stream).

Sunday Mass Options

- You may wish to celebrate your child's First Holy Communion at a Sunday Mass. Options for this are listed below. (These are capped at 5 families). Options for this are as follows:
 - Sunday 7/26; Sunday, 8/2; or Sunday, 8/9 @ 10AM, 12Noon or 6PM
 - Spanish Mass-Saturday, 7/25; Saturday, 8/1; or Saturday 8/ 8 @ 7:30PM
 - Rehearsal for all Weekend First Communions: Friday, 7/17 @ 4PM in the Church

Change Requests

"As I have done for you, you should also do."-John 13:15

FAITH FORMATION

- To request a change of your child's First Holy Communion date or to schedule it for a Sunday liturgy, please email faithformation@sjecm.org.

Getting Ready! There are few things we need to do to get ready!

- Preparation
 - We need you to work together with your child in the weeks ahead. Here what we ask of your family:
 - Try to attend daily Mass or Sunday Mass in the weeks ahead.
 - Review Chapters 5 and 6 of the Eucharist workbook (blue) with your child.
 - We're going to be sending you a message each week to help you get ready for First Holy Communion.
 - Follow SJE Social Media and check your email!
 - Please make time to watch the following:
 - What is the Eucharist? - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hp1l4lG01kk>
 - What is "The Real Presence?" - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JYkvjq6pG1Y>

So that's the initial rundown! Thanks, in advance, for your understanding and patience. We know it's a lot to take in and a lot to adjust to in these already trying times.

We are going to celebrate First Holy Communions during the month of August, the month when we remember the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Let us pray asking for Mary's help and presence in these times!

Our Lady Queen of Apostles, pray for us!

Sincerely,

Reverend John Sureau
Pastor

Holy Water

Holy water can be found in Our Lady's Chapel in the Church and outside of Seton Chapel in the convent building. Please make sure you bring your own container. We have a limited number of holy water bottles available at various times. When we do, we leave them on the bottom shelves of the tables in the Fellowship Area of the Church. Holy water will not be left in the baptismal font or at the doors for the time being.

Light the Way of the Saints

You may have noticed that the candles have been re-installed next to the statues of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They bring a certain light to the statues and, hopefully, inspire some deeper times of prayer and reflection.

We can use some support in keeping those candles lit. We invite parishioners to make an offering for a candle, perhaps near a particular saint of significance for you. Reference of the offering will be included in the bulletin where we acknowledge offerings of bread and wine

To make an offering, visit or contact the Parish Office.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us!

Did you receive our Summer Appeal Mailing?

If so, please consider supporting the ongoing work of SJE! Return your envelope or make your offering at www.sjecm.org. If you did not receive a mailing, please let us know.
