A Message from Fr. Felix...

A little act of charity can bring good things to our life. The bible says charity covers a multitude of sins. I want to share with you two acts of charity in the old testament Genesis chapter 18: 1-12 and 2nd Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a.

One day Abraham was sitting at the entrance to his tent during the hottest part of the day. He looked up and noticed three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he ran to meet them and welcome them, bowing low to the ground. He did not know these men at all. This is how he greeted them: "My Lord," he said, "if it pleases you, stop here for a while". The men continued to rest under the shade of a tree while water was brought to wash their feet. Abraham exclaimed, "Since you have honored your servant with this visit, let me prepare some food to refresh you before you continue on your journey". "All right", they said. "Do as you have said". So Abraham ran back to the tent and said to his wife Sarah, "Hurry! Get three large measures of your best flour, knead it into dough, and bake some bread". Then Abraham once more ran out to the herd and chose a tender calf and gave it to his servant, who quickly prepared it. When the food was ready, Abraham took some yogurt and milk and the roasted meat, and he served it to the men. As they ate, Abraham waited on them in the shade of the trees.

Then they asked him, "Where is your wife Sarah?" "She is in the tent", he answered. One of them said, "Nine months from now, I will come back, and your wife Sarah will have a son". Fortunately, Sarah was listening to this conversation from the tent. At this point in time Abraham and Sarah were very old, and Sarah was long past the age of having children. Her immediate reaction was to laugh silently to herself and said, "How could a worn-out woman like me enjoy such pleasure, especially when my husband and I are so old?". They asked Abraham "why did Sarah laugh? Why did she say, can an old woman like me have a baby?" One of them said "is anything too hard for the Lord?".

From the Sunday first reading (2nd Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a)

One day Elisha came to Shunem, where there was a woman of influence, who urged him to dine with her. Afterward, whenever he passed by, he used to stop there to dine. So she said to her husband, "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there". Sometime later Elisha arrived and stayed in the room overnight.

Later Elisha asked, "can something be done for her?" His servant answered, "Yes! She has no son, and her husband is getting on in years". Elisha said "call her". When the woman had been called and stood at the door, Elisha promised, "This time next year you will be holding a baby son".

The woman and her husband were in complete agreement to have Elisha, the man of God, in their home. Both of them worked together and trusted one another; above all, they had great respect for the man of God. Abraham was the one serving his guest while his wife Sarah and the servant were preparing the meal. These two incidence and many others in the bible should teach us the values of almsgiving, generosity, caring for one another, and serving those in need promote spiritual strength among Christians. Please remember this and reflect on them. " Gold and silver provide security, but good advice is better. Wealth and strength give confidence, but the fear of the Lord can give you even greater confidence. When you fear the Lord you need nothing more; it is all the support you need. The fear of the Lord is like a rich garden of blessings; you could not want a more glorious shelter". (Si 40:25-27).

I wish everybody a peaceful Summer.

-Fr. Felix

Happy Independence Day!

"The Declaration of Independence stated that all men and women are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, and that governments exist to protect and defend those rights. Those ringing words continue to inspire us today, even as they have inspired peoples throughout the world to fight for the freedom to live in accordance with their dignity."

Remembering Our Loved Ones

Altar bread and wine for the month of July has been donated:

In Memory of Patrick Mannix

SJE offers a number of ways to remember loved ones, or honor someone living.

Mass Intentions

Remembering one who has passed away at Mass is a most noble practice calling us to pray for one who has died at the most powerful prayer we know—the celebration of the Eucharist.

Altar Bread and Wine

Names will be listed in each bulletin during the course of that month.

For the month an offering of $150 is requested

Votive Candles/Altar Candles

A number of votive candles enlighten the beautiful statues in our church. You may have a particular devotion to one of these saints. These candles are next to the statues of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They bring a certain light to the statues and, hopefully, inspire some deeper times of prayer and reflection.

Altar Candles - $25.00 per week

To make an offering, visit or contact the Parish Office at 631.878.0009 or email to rectory@sjecm.org

Family Ministry...

Heavenly Father,

On this Independence Day weekend, we thank you for the gift of our country.

We ask You to protect us from the anything and anyone who tries to steer us away from You. Give us the courage, perseverance and trust that we need to overcome evil and to spread Your gospel message with conviction, hope and joy. Thank you for our freedom. Help us to do what we can to bring unity to all who live in these United States, beginning with our families, our churches and our communities. Guide us in our efforts to preserve the true spirit on which our nation was founded,

"One nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

We humbly ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Please take some time look through the back pages of the bulletin! It features many local businesses (and often the work of parishioners) and the good work they do in our community. We have parishioners who do everything from car detailing to car mechanics to lacrosse training to taking care of pets. Take a look and learn more!

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? Not only that, our parish receives a part of the advertising commission.

So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

Also, if your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist—most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area—receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of families in the area with information about your business.

For more information on how to advertise in our bulletin, call The Church Bulletin Company at 631-249-4994
