Roman Catholic Church

Inspired by our Patron, St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church in Center Moriches seeks to bring the light of Christ to a world in need, so that as Christ has done, we may also do. From the celebration of the Eucharist, we are sent forth to serve God and neighbor through ministries of formation, education and outreach.

—Mission Statement

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,
and I will give you rest.” -Matthew 11:28

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam + To the Greater Glory of God

AMDG

Dear Parish Family:

I am reading a book of writings from Jesuit spiritual writers and saints from the 17th and 18th centuries. I started to preach about it at the eighth grade Graduation Mass. Shockingly, the kids were not impressed. (Three of them rolled their eyes!) My spiritual director gave it to me a number of years ago and I am finally getting to it now. Entitled For God's Greater Glory, it is pushing me. I need it.

The reading of this book corresponds nicely to the Sunday Gospels from this week and last. Remember part of last Sunday's Gospel called us to put our priorities in order, particularly in our relationship with Jesus in how we live our lives and respond to his mission? This Sunday's Gospel focuses more on our need to give everything over to the Lord and to surrender to him. These are acts of praise and glory to our God. Both are challenging parts of the spiritual life for me. Maybe for you too?

Sacrifice

Thus we are never satisfied; for when we attach ourselves to creatures, they estrange us from God, and cast us in to an ocean of pain, trouble and misery – elements inseparable from the creature as joy, peace and happiness are inseparable from God.

-Louis Lallemant

This links quite well to part of last Sunday's Gospel. We are so often attached to people, places, and things that they become distractions and, at their worst, pathways to interior destruction and disaster. After praying with last Sunday's Gospel, have you considered some of the attachments, some of the "creatures", that can easily lead you away from ultimate joy, peace, and happiness? Deep vigilance is needed.

Here's an example. We are all on screens more and more than we probably prefer to be in these days! In the midst of the pandemic and distancing, we have been able to see one another, talk to one another, pray with one another, learn, work, share life and more. All good! Yet how many of us have found ourselves wasting time online on this site or that app that is not really for God's greater glory and in some cases the exact opposite and just for our selfish pleasure? It did not start that with this intention but the attachment can quickly lead to that "pain, trouble and misery." We lose our focus and quickly lose the Spirit with elements of the flesh taking over. St. Paul warns us about this in the second reading.

Surrender

Interior tribulations are, as you say, the most torturing. Equally they are the most meritorious and the most purifying; while once these purifications and interior detachments are effected, life is all the sweeter because of them. It is then easier to achieve full self-abandonment, and filial trust in God alone through Jesus Christ.

-Jean Pierre de Caussade

Related to last Sunday's Gospel, some of us really struggle with putting Christ first. Those attachments or temptations or sins or vices are beyond our control. Our human ways are too limited and weak. We try all different approaches, methods, therapies, ideas, programs, etc. These are not bad things but they, too, become attachments. We just often have them out of order. They become things I need to do instead of first finding "rest" in our relationship with Jesus so I discern what to do. Even, at times, our prayer and devotion becomes routine and rote. We are saying, not praying. We are not surrendering as today's Gospel invites us to do.

So let us pray that, "when we fall let us humiliate ourselves, pick ourselves up, and continue our way in peace. That way is at all time to ponder upon the true self which is God – God in whom we must plunge and lose ourselves, rather as we shall find ourselves plunged and lost in heaven, in the everlasting duration of eternity's great day. Amen! Amen!" (de Caussade 117).

By how we sacrifice and surrender may our lives exemplify the refrain of this Sunday's psalm – "I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God."

Please pray for me.

YOUNG AT HEART (PREVIOUSLY SENIOR MINISTRY)

It is good to be ALMOST back to normal! We can now resume some of our activities in Social Ministry with all precautions—social distancing, masks, sanitizing. Therefore, on Tuesday, July 7th, at 11:00 a.m., T'ai Che Chih will begin. If the weather is warm and clear it can be held either outside on the porch of the Convent building or the lawn, or if too hot, inside in the IHM room. Please let either me (S. Ann) or Debbie Falco know, if you would like to join the group. It is especially good for balance! It is over in time for those of you who wish to attend the 12:00 Noon Mass.

Sophia's Circle—Book Discussion

Sophia's Circle, reflective book discussion on God Isn't Finished with Me Yet, by Barbara Lee, (it's a book discovering the Spiritual Graces of later life.) It is available through Loyola Press or Amazon. Sometimes Amazon offers used copies at a better price. This group meets on the second and fourth Thursday at 10:00 a.m. This upcoming month ONLY, we will begin on July 16th and 30th. Usually we hadn't met during the summer but since we've missed so many months perhaps some of you would be willing to come. We meet in the air-conditioned IHM room of the Convent, or on the porch if it is not too hot. Again, masks, social distancing and sanitizing are always observed.

Bereavement Support

I know that some of you are anxious for the Bereavement Support Group to begin especially after what we've all been through with recent losses. For many, the support is needed after many months have passed and the wave of grief comes over us. I know, having been there. Sometimes people think that they can "do it on their own" but, having the support of people who are also missing a loved one and are going through similar emotions can be of great solace. I use a book as a guide so it is not just listening to others' stories. NO ONE IS EVER FORCED TO SPEAK. It is listening that is important—not only to others but to your own heart. It will be offered at the following times: Wednesday morning at 10:00 OR Wednesday evening at 7:00. We will begin on July 8th. Please call or send an email to say if you are coming. If an insufficient number express an interest at this time, we will postpone beginning until September.

The sessions are geared to last for 9-10 weeks. We have the option of meeting in the IHM room or on the porch. Please call or send an e-mail to me to let me know if you have any questions or if you plan to attend: aberendes@sjecm.org; 631-878-0009 ext. 129.

Have a Blessed and safe summer!

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

Monday - Thursday: 3PM - 7PM

Friday: East End Holy Hour- 3PM

We are looking for more parishioners to sit in quiet adoration in these days. If you can cover an hour or two, please reach out to Fr. John at jsureau@sjecm.org.
