PRAYER AND WORSHIP

Totus Tuus

It's hard to believe that I've been at St. John's for two years already. They say time flies when you're having fun! One of the first "things" I tried to start up when I first arrived here was the Consecration to Jesus through Mary (a.k.a. Marian Consecration). We did it as a parish on October 13, 2017, do you remember? Marian Consecration is, in the words of St. Louis de Montfort, "the surest, easiest and most perfect way of becoming a saint" and boy does our Church and our world need saints now more than ever!

Every year on August 15 we celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, one of the highest solemnities of the liturgical year in honor of Our Lady. This year, August 15 also happens to coincide with the passing of some legislation, which will likely have a great impact on the mission of the Church here in New York. In some ways, we as a Church will be going into uncharted territory and providentially we go there on this great feast day of Our Lady, always seeking to be ever more under her care and closer to her Son. So I'd like to invite you whether you did the Marian Consecration back in 2017, some other time in your life, or if it's the first time you've ever heard of this to make consecration on August 15, 2019.

So what do you have to do? First, get one of the booklets of Fr. Michael Gaitley's 33 Days to Morning Glory, which we will be distributing for FREE. It's like a DIY retreat for a month that really explains itself. It's not a big-time commitment, probably about 5 minutes a day, and the reflections are very substantial. Second, start the reflections on July 13 and make the commitment to give God those few minutes every day. Third, make the consecration on your own or with the parish on August 15 (more to come on this).

I hope to join you spiritually in making this Consecration to Jesus through Mary this summer. Pope St. John Paul II, whose motto was Totus Tuus ("Totally Yours (Mary)"), once said that making this consecration marked a decisive turning point in his life. Perhaps for us personally and as a parish, this consecration to Jesus through Mary might mark a decisive turning point for our lives too. Disclaimer, this is not for the faint of heart, this is for those who want to take their relationship with God to the next level. This is for those who want to be saints.

The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. In this spirit, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul members "go out two by two" to visit those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance.

Is God putting it on your heart to do a little bit more? Maybe take the next step putting your faith into action? Our next meeting will be Wednesday, July 10 at 7PM in the lower level of the red barn. All are welcome!

Ideally, we would love to have a strong regular collection which would make these envelopes unnecessary. Next week, please make use of the Parish Social Ministry envelopes and/or place your offering in the regular collection.

Light the Way of the Saints

You may have noticed that the candles have been re-installed next to the statues of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They bring a certain light to the statues and, hopefully, inspire some deeper times of prayer and reflection.

We can use some support and keeping those candles lit. We invite parishioner to make an offering for a candle, perhaps near a particular saint of significance for you. Reference of the offering will be included in the bulletin where we acknowledge offerings of bread and wine

To make an offering, visit or contact the Parish Office.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I: Deuteronomy 30:10-14

The law of the Lord is near to you.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 69:14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36, 37 or PS 19:8, 9, 10, 11

Second Reading: Colossians 1:15-20

Christ is God made visible.

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

The Good Samaritan.

Discussion Questions

1. Where does any person find God's commands? According to Jesus they consists of this: love God and love your neighbor. Do you find yourself relying on codes and guidelines more than on this underlying commandment?
2. He was "Christ Jesus, the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation." With whom did he spend time? With whom do you want to spend time? Do you make an effort to give time to God and the people you love or are you always in a hurry to do more important things?
3. Think of the Good Samaritan story in terms of today's world. What groups need some Good Samaritans right now? The immigrants? The traf-ficked? Gun control groups? The homeless? The hungry? Whether it be large or small, is there anything you can do to help any of these?

You're invited to the Men's Group, which meets every Saturday at 9 AM at the Convent (White House). For more information please contact Fr. Michael.

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Many have commented positively about some of the new features of our parish bulletin.

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? Not only that, our parish receives a part of the advertising commission. So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

If your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist—most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area—receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of area families with information about your business.

For more information on how to advertise in our bulletin, call The Church Bulletin Company at 631-249-4994.
