Roman Catholic Church

Inspired by our Patron, St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church in Center Moriches seeks to bring the light of Christ to a world in need, so that as Christ has done, we may also do. From the celebration of the Eucharist, we are sent forth to serve God and neighbor through ministries of formation, education and outreach.

A Reason for our Hope!

FAREWELL, FR. MICHAEL PLONA

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 9, 2020

A LETTER FROM FR. MICHAEL

*"How can I repay the LORD for all the great good done for me?
I will raise the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD."
-Psalm 116:12-13*

It seems like just yesterday I moved into St. John's to begin my first priestly assignment and introduced myself to the parish. I now find myself just over three years later saying farewell. There is so much I would like to say here, but I do not believe that words are sufficient.

When I arrived and celebrated my first Parish Mass at St. John's on July 1, 2017 at 5pm in the auditorium, I was greeted by a basketball court full of strangers and instead of seeing anything normally associated with a church building, I saw only a basketball hoop above my head and a scoreboard opposite me. Needless to say, as a newly ordained priest, I had scarcely known what I had gotten myself into. Since that first Mass here, so many that were in that auditorium full of strangers have told me that I have become "like a part of their family" and they have become an intimate part of my own life.

Since my arrival at St. John's, I have watched our church building be rebuilt and our community come together in solidarity. I have greeted you after Mass and enjoyed your company. I have been privileged to hear your confessions and be an instrument of Divine Mercy. I have celebrated your children's baptisms and First Holy Communions. I have been invited into the joys, crises and tragedies of your lives. I have anointed your loved ones and prepared them to go home to God at the end of their lives. I have witnessed your marriages on behalf of the Church as you founded a family of your own. I have prayed with you over the tragic death of Thomas Valva and shared with you the anxieties and heartaches of the Coronavirus Pandemic. I have buried your husbands and wives, mothers and fathers, grandparents and friends. Like St. Paul, I feel I can say to some extent, "I have become all things to all, to save at least some. All this I do for the sake of the gospel, so that I too may have a share in it" (1 Cor. 9:22-23). I have been privileged to a true sharing of life with you and your families as a priest of Jesus Christ and for this I give thanks.

A priest-mentor of mine once reminded me how a priest, since he belongs to Christ in a special way, carries the people he encounters throughout his life in his heart forever. I know that this is certainly the case with you. The seminary taught me many things about the priesthood, but this parish has taught me how to be a priest. For that and for all the love, encouragement, generosity and kindness you have shown to me, I give thanks to Almighty God. I am also grateful to Fr. John Sureau, our pastor, who welcomed me like a brother and has shown me so much kindness and patience. I will hold you all in my heart forever and lift you up at the Holy Eucharist. It is there that we are always closest to God and one another, it is there that we are truly one. So this isn't really farewell, but see you in the Eucharist.

In Jesus and Mary,
Father Michael

CANA CARE CREW UPDATE

Thank you for your great spirit of cooperation and generosity in these days. For the upcoming weeks, we ask the following:

Updates on Seating:

- We ask those who are being seated as individuals (1 person) or a group of two to please sit in the fronts rows of each section of the Church or in the chairs on the perimeter of the Church.
- There are pieces of blue tape on the rows. I ask that you sit on the blue tape. This will give us enough distance.
- Some have asked, "If I bring my husband, do I have to sit with him?" No! We can get you individual seats!
- Those who come to Church in groups of three or more are asked to seat behind those single sections.
- Members of the Cana Care Crew will assist you, of course!

More Help Needed!

- We are looking for more volunteers to assist with the Cana Care Crew, particularly after Masses with the wipe down of the pews. If you and/or your family are willing to help, please see one of the volunteers in the orange shirts. We provide the gloves, t-shirt, towels and cleaning solution. You provide the arm strength and the positive spirit!

SJE/OLQA PAINT CLUB RETURNS!

Do you like to look up at the sky? Well, good news! We have some ceilings that need some careful painting! If you're able to help us out, please email to Fr. John at jsureau@sjecm.org or call the Parish Office at 631.878.0009

The New WWW.SJECM.ORG

If you're reading this online, you noticed we have a new website! As you may or may not know, this takes an ENORMOUS amount of work to do. Thank you for Fr. Michael, Andrew McKeon, Michelle Pirraglia, and Katie Waller from Pastoral Team for taking the lead and providing an incredible amount of time, effort, and information.

Our parish is blessed by the generosity of Mr. Keith Redo, who has done an enormous amount of work putting this all together. (As you can imagine, everyone has great ideas, which can be a lot.) Keith's example is a good one for each of us to consider. Keith has a gift for this technology and shares his gifts generously and with no expectation to our parish. Thank you, Keith!

You'll notice some new things on our website. With the new www.sjecm.org, parish registrations and baptism registrations will all take place via the website, which will be a huge help, particularly in these times.

ELIMINATING ENVELOPES

We are in the process of doing some updating to our data systems which involves some work with our envelope system. Did you know the printing and mailing of envelopes is a pretty significant expense to the parish? One of the benefits of moving to online giving is that it reduces the expenses related to this. If you're using WeShare and are willing to move to it, please email rectory@sjecm.org so we can remove you from our envelope distribution list. This would be a financial savings for the parish and environmental help too (less paper, printings, etc.). You will still receive parish mailings, information, phone calls, etc. This change, if you are willing to make it, would only impact the mailing to you of weekly envelopes.
