A Message from the Director of Faith Formation...

“Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.”

~Matthew: 16:24

In today’s first reading, we meet a very exhausted and frustrated Jeremiah, a prophet whose message (warning the Israelites of the consequences of straying from God’s Commandments) had fallen on deaf ears and was leading him to be persecuted. Jeremiah is one of my favorite Old Testament figures partly because of his gut-level honesty when he talks to God. He does not sugar-coat his disappointment or anger with false piety but pours out his heart to God.

As we move from Summer to Fall, and the start of a new school year quickly approaches, many of us may be filled with anxiety or simply overwhelmed by the days ahead, perhaps consumed by business. For some, an illness or sudden loss of a family member or friend may have caused our prayer life to dry up. Jeremiah shows us that making time to approach God with our daily troubles is vital if we want to grow in our faith and not give into despair. He also provides an important example of listening in prayer—once Jeremiah expresses his grief, he gives room and silence for God to respond in his heart.

Jeremiah also is an example of what Jesus speaks about in today’s Gospel — he takes up his cross and follows the “fire burning in [his] heart” (Jeremiah 20:9) to preach conversion to the Israelites. He is faithful to God, who eventually answers his prayer with a comforting reminder that is meant for each of us:

“For I know well the plans I have in mind for you...plans for your welfare and not for woe, so as to give you a future of hope When you call me, and come and pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart...” ~Jeremiah 29:11-13

In the Office of Faith Formation, we are praying for God’s blessings on our families, volunteers and staff as we plan some exciting events for our families as we kick off later this month!

WHAT’S AHEAD:

- Our “Family of Faith” program for students in Grades 1-6 will be focusing on topic of prayer this year, with several practical and experiential activities planned for our young people and their parents.
- Our Level 7 & 8 students will be diving into their Bibles and breaking open God’s Word as they prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation.
- Our 2023 Confirmation candidates will be joining us at our Masses next weekend to formally declare their intention to receive this final Sacrament of Initiation and become full members of the Church.

REGISTRATION—EXTENDED TO 9/12

If you have not yet registered your child (our program begins when students enter First Grade), you may still do so by visiting our website—sjecm.org—and clicking on the “Faith Formation” tab. All registration is done online. Registration has been extended through September 12.

CALENDARS ARE AVAILABLE ONLINE:

Women's Group...

Our first meeting back is on Monday, September 11, 2023, 10-11:30am in the Convent IHM room. We'll continue reading Fr. Timothy Gallagher's book on Discernment of Spirits, An Ignatian Guide for Everyday Living. In Matthew's gospel about Jesus walking on the water what always stands out to me is that Peter was actually using discernment. "Lord, IF it's You," Peter questioned it because Jesus was coming to him in a different way. If Peter who was Jesus' disciple, needed to discern if it was Jesus, so do we.

Ignatius gives us the 14 rules of discernment to help us be more aware & understand the consolations & desolations we feel within us which will deepen, strengthen & enrich our spiritual life.

Meetings are open, come when you can, all you need is desire. Is Jesus calling you?

Facilitators: Carol Ketcham and Anita Luccari.

The dates we'll meet are:

9-11, 9-25, 10-23, 11-6, 11-20, 12-4, 12-18, 1-8, 1-22, 2-5, 3-4, 3-18, 4-15, 4-29, 5-13, 6-10, 6-24 Last meeting.

For additional information please call the rectory office 631-878-0009

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Years ago, I was asked to take in a hound dog and I was happy to do so, but it wasn't until I brought the dog home that I discovered how adamantly opposed my husband was to the idea. When asked, he had never said "no," but he thought I should just know he didn't want the dog. Obviously, we needed to work on our communication skills! Proper communication and what it means to love in relationship are what come to mind when I hear the start of today's Gospel. Jesus is instructing us on what to do when another angers, hurts, or offends us. Not surprisingly, it doesn't include calling our sister or best friend to vent, or posting about it on social media, regardless of how vaguely we word the situation. Instead we are to go to that person directly and "tell him his fault between you and him alone." If they listen, we have won them over. How many times have others hurt us but we never bother to tell them? How often do we simply assume the other person knows they have done us wrong? We owe it to one another to be honest and upfront - to give the other person a chance to apologize and us a chance to extend forgiveness. We also owe it to one another to be willing to receive them in charity, open-hearted, when they come to us to speak of our faults.

PRAY Witnessing to Christ in today's world sometimes feels overwhelming or hopeless. Spend some concerted time in prayer with the words from today's psalm: "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In the same way that the Gospel addresses speaking truth to another and "winning them over," the prophet Ezekiel recounts the Lord's instruction to him that he has a duty to "speak out to dissuade the wicked from his way." This, of course, was the role and mission of the prophets. To make known the word and law of God and call the people to respond. A prophet warned, counseled, taught, and encouraged. They called the people to obedience to God, denouncing idolatry, injustice, and empty rituals. Jesus himself came as priest, prophet, and king and by our baptism, "the whole People of God participates in these three offices of Christ and bears the responsibilities for mission and service that flow from them." (CCC 783) Through the centuries, people have tried to do this in various ways - from passing laws to standing on street corners with signs. But let's remember that even as we are meant to "speak out," we are also meant to listen. We too must be re-converted to the truth when we sin; we too must be dissuaded from our wicked ways. This is how we best fulfill our prophetic mission.

"We must remember that life begins at home and we must also remember that the future of humanity passes through the family."

Every Sunday at the 10:00 Mass we offer the Children's Liturgy of the Word Program for our children. This program allows the children to experience the scriptures in an interactive way. The readings, gospel and universal prayer are presented in simple language and the children always have an opportunity to participate in the session. We have a very small group of dedicated volunteers who make this program possible each week. Would YOU consider joining us? There are so many easy ways to help...you can even stay in the church for the 10:00 mass and be a part of our team! Schedules are flexible-you sign up when you're available. Moms on the Journey

Last week our Moms on the Journey group entered into an evening of reflection based on the scripture of the Woman at the Well. Our next gathering will be on Wednesday, September 28rd at 7:00pm in the Upper Room of The Barn. All moms are welcome. Hope to see you there! Remembering one who has passed away at Mass is a most noble practice calling us to pray for one who has died at the most powerful prayer we know—the celebration of the Eucharist.

Altar Bread and Wine

Names will be listed in each bulletin during the course of that month.

For the month an offering of $150 is requested

Votive Candles/Altar Candles

A number of votive candles enlighten the beautiful statues in our church. You may have a particular devotion to one of these saints. These candles are next to the statues of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, St. Teresa, St. Gerard Majella and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They bring a certain light to the statues and, hopefully, inspire some deeper times of prayer and reflection.

Bereavement Support Group...

Grieving is a natural process each of us goes through after the death of a loved one. While no one can take away our sadness, others can help by listening and caring. Sharing our feelings with others who have experienced the death of a loved one help many people begin the healing process.

WHEN: Saturday mornings, beginning September 30, 2023, through January 6, 2024

TIME: 10:30am to 12 noon

WHERE: First floor meeting room in the Barn.

The Barn is the blue building located in the back of the school parking lot.

FACILITATORS: Maureen Harney and Loretta Gallagher

REGISTRATION: Contact the Rectory at 631.878.0009 or via email at Rectory@sjecm.org

FEES: $10 donation for the workbook.

*Grief never ends but it changes. It is a passage, not a place to stay.
It is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith.
Grief is the price of love.*

"If souls, but understood the Treasure they possess in the divine Eucharist the churches would overflow with a door is no less by night, then by day." (Blessed, Dina, Belanger.)

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Please take some time look through the back pages of the bulletin! It features many local businesses (and often the work of parishioners) and the good work they do in our community. We have parishioners who do everything from car detailing to car mechanics to lacrosse training to taking care of pets. Take a look and learn more!

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist bulletin is printed free of charge each week? Not only that, our parish receives a part of the advertising commission.

So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

Also, if your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each weekend, the nearly 1,400 people who attend Mass at St. John the Evangelist—most of whom live and shop in the Moriches, Mastic, Shirley, Eastport, Speonk and Remsenberg area—receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of families in the area with information about your business.

For more information on how to advertise in our bulletin, call
